No. 5669 Equity. In the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this proceeding is to secure the foreclosure of all rights of redemption in the following property, situate in Election District No. 16 of Garrett County, Maryland, sold by the Collector of Taxes for Garrett County and the State of Maryland to Mary Naylor Bennett and Homer L. Bennett, the complainants in this proceeding:

All those lots or parcels of land adjacent to "D" Street in the Town of Mountain Lake Park, in Election District No. 16 of Garrett County, Maryland, which are known as Lots Nos. 218, 219, 220, and 221 on the Plat of the said Town of Mountain Lake Park, Maryland, which is recorded in Liber W. H. T., No. 6, Folio 800, one of the Land Records of Garrett County, Maryland, containing 20,000 square feet, more or less, and being the same lands which were conveyed to Virginia Broadbelt Baker, late of Baltimore City, Maryland, deceased, by John W. Kimmell, late Treasurer of Garrett County, Maryland, by deed dated July 9, 1921, and recorded on April 17, 1940, in Liber A.G.R. No. 122, Folio 243, of the Land Records of Garrett County, Maryland.

The bill states, among other things, that title to said property was vested in the above named defendants at the time of said tax sale and still so remains; that the amounts for redemption have not been paid, although more than one year and a day from the date of sale has expired.

IT IS THEREUPON, this 11th day of March, 1968, by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, ordered that notice be given by the insertion of a copy of this Order in some newspaper having a general circulation in Garrett County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks, before the 5th day of April, 1968, warning all persons interested in said property to be and appear in this Court by the 3rd of June, 1968, and redeem the property herein described and answer the bill, or thereafter a final decree will be rendered foreclosing all rights of redemption in the property and vesting in the plaintiff a title free and clear of all encumbrances.

Youth Fellowship Elects Officers

The Romney District Methodist Youth Fellowship had its Spring Meeting recently at Keyser, West Virginia. Officers for the new church year were elected. Among the new officers are Judy Sherwood and Randy Overdorff, Oakland, and Sharon Riley, Mt. Lake Park. Each of these three young persons will be members of the District Council. They will have responsibility, respectively, in the areas of Outreach, Fellowship, and Witness.

The Romney District has Churches in seven counties in West Virginia and in Garrett County.

Officers on last year's District Council included Sharon Riley, Christian Citizenship, and Becky Sherwood, Vice President, Oakland.

Questions, Answers On Constitution To Be Published

Questions and answers concerning the proposed Maryland constitution which will be voted on by the citizens of the State on Tuesday, May 14, are to be published during the next six weeks to give people an insight into some of advantages and disadvantages of the document which was prepared at a meeting of the constitutional delegates last fall.

This service is being prepared by William W. Grant, Garrett County's elected delegate to the convention. He says the questions he will endeavor to answer are those that most people are concerned with and are most often asked of him as he goes about the county.

Four questions are listed this week with answers by Mr. Grant.

Q. What is a Constitution and how does it differ from a law passed by the General Assembly?

A. A Constitution is like the framework of a building. It is the beams, the girders, the footers, the walls, the roof, etc., of the structure of the State Government. The laws passed by the General Assembly are like the furnishings in a building: that is the benches, the tables, the window shades, the paint, etc. Laws are to meet a current situation and when the situation is passed, the laws are repealed. Once we had many laws about street cars, horses and buggies, cattle roaming at large, etc. Now we have laws about automobiles, telephones, electric lights. In general, a Constitutional provision should last for a century while a law usually endures only a few decades.

Q. What is the difference between the Federal Constitution and a State Constitution?

A. The Federal Constitution is a delegation of powers to the Federal government by the states. It is a general type of delegation and, subject to the limitations in the Federal Constitution, the Congress can set up whatever Federal governmental structure they desire. On the other hand, a State Constitution is a specific outline of a structure of the government of a particular state. It specifies what the people of that state desire their state government to be.

Q. Why do we need a new Constitution for Maryland?

A. The old 1867 Constitution is like an old building. It has been patched up (amended) over 125 times and is literally falling down around us. It is not a sufficiently strong structure to contain the current requirement of effective government. It was written for a time when power came from men, horses and water wheels. In today's highly urbanized complex, tensely geared and impatient society, it cannot function effectively.

Q. Why do we need a new Constitution so far as Garrett County is concerned?

A. Eighty-five per cent of the population of Maryland and of the voting strength in the General Assembly lies in the Baltimore-Washington area. The old Constitution provides no protection for Garrett County from an oversight of the General Assembly or neglect of state officials. The old Constitution does not guarantee Garrett County a delegate. The new Constitution does. The old Constitution does not guarantee Garrett County will have judges for its Courts. The new Constitution does. The old Constitution does not guarantee Garrett County residents from capricious and arbitrary actions of State agencies. The new Constitution does. The old Constitution does not guarantee Garrett County as a whole a referendum before county boundary lines are changed. The new Constitution does. In general, the new Constitution safeguards rural needs from the concentration of power in the urban areas.

Crusade Started Against Cancer

The Garrett County Unit, American Cancer Society, announced its participation in the nationwide cancer crusade to be conducted during April. Dr. William Savage, president of the Garrett County Unit, recently announced the appointment of Mrs. Thomas Staup and Mrs. Vernon Reichenbecher as co-chairmen of the County Crusade. Mrs. Staup and Mrs. Reichenbecher are making arrangements for area chairmen and their helpers to conduct the community campaign for contributions.

A partial list of area chairmen includes the following: Oakland, Future Nurses of Southern High School with Kathy Beckman as president; Mt. Lake Park, Loch Lynn, Oak Park area, Mrs. Donald Thorn; Gortner, Mrs. Harold White; Route 219, Mrs. Frank Corliss; Kitzmiller, Mrs. Mary Shank; Swallow Falls, Mrs. Adra Hinebaugh; Deep Creek Village, Mrs. Roger Tower; Rosedale, Mrs. Clarence Lowdermilk and Mrs. Roy Riffle; North Glade, Mrs. Richard Barnard and Mrs. Randall Glass; Swanton, Mrs. Ellis Harvey; Hoyes, Mrs. Charley Browning; McHenry, Mrs. Stephen Russell; Friendsville, Mrs. Pauline Faucett; Accident, Mrs. Margaret Alexander. Further appointments will be announced.

A new feature in the Garrett County Crusade this year will be the work of the Special Gifts Committee of which Mrs. John O. Durst of Oakland is the chairman. This committee will make personal calls to businesses for contributions.

Mrs. Durst announces area workers helping her as follows: Grantsville, Mrs. Dan Hershberger; Accident, Mrs. B. O. Aiken; Oakland, Mrs. Irvin Feld, Mrs. Willis T. Shaffer, and Mrs. S. R. Pagenhardt.

The Boy Scouts of Accident and Friendsville are distributing collection boxes in those areas. Contributions also may be made to Earl Clark at the First National Bank in Oakland. Memorial gifts in memory of a loved one who has passed away of cancer may also be made to Mr. Clark.

Garrett county residents are reminded that present cancer patients may receive help by contacting Mrs. Betty Shaffer at the County Health Office. Patients may receive cancer dressings prepared by the Future Nurses of Southern High school for Mrs. Shaffer's services committee. Dressings were prepared formerly by the hundred of dozens by a group of ladies from St. Matthew's Church.

Primary objective of the American Cancer Society is research in the cure and treatment of cancer.

Programs with the use of films and educational materials for clubs and groups can be arranged through Robert F. Rodeheaver.

Deer Kill Below The 1966 Season

The 1967 Deer season was considered successful by members of the State Department of Game and Inland fish despite the fact that the 1967 kill was below the 1966 season. In Garrett County the total was 915, with 7 from bow and arrow season, 531, regular buck season; 309, antlerless season, for a sub-total of 847 hunting total; with 22 from crop damage, 33 from automobiles and 13 from other losses, for the grant total of 915.

These figures compared to a total of 1,000 in Allegany county, 1,415 in Dorchester county and 1,025 in Worcester county.

During the antlerless season there was a shift in hunting pressure from Western Maryland to the Shore. Total hunting kill also reflected the shift in total hunting pressure.

In Western Maryland during the regular firearm season most of the kill was accomplishel by county residents with little representation from the metropolitan areas. On the shore this trend was reversed, the greater portion of the kill was recorded by hunters from metropolitan counties.

During the antlerless season of 1967 the Western Maryland kill was accomplished most by county residents.

The signs of overpopulation continue to appear in Garrett, Allegany and Washington counties, according to game officials. Yearling weights were poor when compared to previous years.

Hunting pressure and a shift in this pressure from 1966 to 1967 was considered to be the principal reason for the reduced kill in 1967.

Deplores Violence . . .

U. S. Senator Robert C. Byrd, West Virginia Democrat, made a prophetic address in Congress last Friday to describe Martin Luther King, Jr., as a victim of his own violence.

Senator Byrd said "I am no admirer of Dr. King. What I am saying is difficult to say and it may not be considered entirely in keeping with the views being expressed by many".

Critical of King's activities in Memphis in recent speeches, Byrd said he regretted the assassination as much as any man in Congress, and added that he was "shocked but not surprised".

He continued: "There is a lesson to be learned from events in Memphis: Mass protests, mass demonstrations and mass marches—labeled non-violent or otherwise—can only serve to cause unrest and disorder and to provoke violence and bloodshed. And in the end those who advocate such methods often themselves became the victims of the forces they have set in motion. This is what happened to Dr. King.

"He usually spoke of non-violence. Yet violence, all too often, resulted from his actions and at the last he himself met a violent end".

Mr. Byrd noted King's opposition to a court injunc-

Mortar Attack Kills Army Man, Capt. C. Rhodes

Was Honor Graduate At W.V.U.; Volunteered For Vietnam Duty

Captain Curtis A. Rhodes, 26-year-old Swanton man, died Monday, April 1, in Vietnam of burns received in his billet when the village in which he was staying came under hostile mortar fire.

He was the husband of Mrs. Marybelle Simpson Rhodes, formerly of Keyser, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rhodes, Swanton.

Mrs. Rhodes was notified last Thursday of her husband's death at her home in Swanton by an Army officer. Capt. Rhodes, an ordnance officer, had been in Vietnam only 67 days.

He was graduated from Southern High School, Oakland, in 1959, from Potomac State college in 1961, and West Virginia university in 1963.

At the university he made an outstanding record in the RO-

Senior Public Speaking Victors Are Announced

Miss Karen Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman, McHenry, and a member of the North Star 4-H club; and Robert E. Hesson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hesson, Rt. 1, Accident, member of the Bittinger Boys 4-H club, were named winners of the Senior Public Speaking contest last Saturday, April 6, at the Bittinger Community building.

Alternates were Miss Linda Schmidt, North Star club, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Schmidt, Rt. 1, Swanton; and James Crabtree, member of the Southenders 4-H club, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Crabtree, Oakland.

Other awards:

Blue ribbon winners, Ann Feaster, Monte Vista senior club; Linda D. Glotfelty, Bittinger girls; and Cindy Beachy, Bittinger girls. Receiving second place ribbons were Pam Frantz, Monte Vista senior; Betty Glover, Saddle Tramps; Ruth Sisler, Swallow Falls; Sharon Fike, Southwesterners; Ed Friend, North Glade, and Dave Ingram, Southenders.

Judges were Mrs. Mildred Hoffman, Darrell Malone and Lowell Bender. Robert O. Glotfelty served as master of ceremonies. Members of the Bittinger Girls 4-H club provided refreshments while Swallow Falls 4-H club members furnished games.

Banks To Close For Good Friday

Banks of the county will be closed all day on Good Friday, April 12, it was announced.

County offices also will observe the day as a holiday. Stores in Oakland will be closed from 12 o'clock noon until 3 o'clock, during the three-hour community Good Friday service.

Employes of the Community Action Agency from both Garrett and Allegany counties were busy on Monday preparing labor survey cards for mailing. The project was undertaken by the Mt. Top Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the State Employment Service and the two power companies in the area. Results of the survey will be tabulated as soon as the cards are returned to the Department of Employment Security. Some 19,374 cards have been mailed. The agency had already received over three hundred replies through coupons which appeared in area newspapers. In the photo, left to right are some of those preparing the labor survey cards: Vivian Tasker, Ivadine Cummings, Donna Freeland, Kathleen Grubb, Betty Nicklow, Jo-Anna Braithwaite, and Ethel Kelly.

Appeals Court Upholds Judge Hamill's Decree

Oakland Has Right To Install Own Treatment Plant

A decision of Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill to sustain a demurrer of the city of Oakland to a complaint which the Garrett County Sanitary district, Inc., had filed against it early in April, 1967, and which was taken later to the Court of Appeals, has been sustained by the court, Judge Hamill was informed this week.

The bill of complaint last April had set out that the policy of the town of Oakland had been to delay and contradict plans of the Sanitary commission to provide a sewage disposal system for the three municipalities of the area, Oakland, Mt. Lake Park, and Loch Lynn.

The complaint asked the court to determine whether or not the Oakland municipality was an integral part of the sanitary district and subject to direction and recommendations of the governing body.

The complaint had pointed out that "present tactics employed primarily those of delay and contradiction, have jeopardized changes of the district to engage in a construction plan for location and operation of a single sewage treatment facility for the three municipalities".

The city of Oakland in May filed a demurrer to the complaint. The request for demurrer to the proceedings declared that "ownership and authority to operate the Oakland sewer system is vested in the mayor and town council by statute and specifically denied to the complainant by statute which declares it is a duly organized and incorporated municipality; that the public local laws of the state authorize and empower the town to construct and maintain a sewage system for the town, that title to the sewage system is vested in the town; that the annotated code of Maryland places limitations on the powers of the complainant in construction, improvement, maintenance, extension or operation of any project which would complicate or compete with existing utilities".

The demurrer also claimed that no contractual arrangement by the town relative to the sewage system had been made by the town with the sanitary com-

School Budget Is To Be Completed In Near Future

The annual budget of the Garrett County School Board will be completed within the near future and submitted to the Board of County Commissioners, reports Willard Hawkins, County School superintendent.

In a release given out this past week, Mr. Hawkins asserts that in spite of the record increase in the budget, the entire amount called for is mandated by law to meet the minimum State foundation program, with the exception of the $175,000 promised by the Commissioners for teachers' salaries and an additional 15% increase requested for school bus contractors.

The release stated that, according to the State Department of Education, the Garrett County School Board must base its school budget on an assessable base of $77 million, an increase of $15 million over last year.

Because the state's share of school costs dropped below a mandated 43% last year, the county rate has been dropped accordingly to make up the dif-

Delinquent Taxpayers Warned To Pay Or Else

Any person who has not paid his back taxes may find his property up for sale the last of May, warns Mrs. Arzella Parsons, county treasurer.

She reports that all delinquent taxes have been turned over to attorneys, and that legal action will begin sometime during the latter part of next month unless the taxes, plus an additional $7.50 attorney's fee is paid.

Taxes considered delinquent are those due during or before 1967.

Community Good Friday Service Set for Tomorrow

The Community Good Friday Service, sponsored by the Mt. Top Ministerial association, will be conducted tomorrow, April 12, from noon until 3 p. m., at St. Paul's Methodist church, Oakland.

The seven words from the Cross will form the theme. Dr. Lawrence Sherwood, pastor, will direct. Music will be provided by the church choir.

Ministers participating include Rev. Vaughn Taylor, St. John's Lutheran, Red House; Dr. C. P. Anderson, Deep Creek Baptist; Rev. Eldon Shingleton, Oak Park Church of the Brethren; Rev. William Markley, Corinth Methodist charge; Rev. Donald Green, Church of the Nazarene, Oakland; and Rev. Samuel Moore, Gormania Methodist charge.

A Community Easter sunrise service will also be held Easter day, April 14, at 6. p. m., at the Garrett County Memorial Gardens, under direction of Rev. James Remley, Bethel Methodist pastor. Rev. Thomas Crogan will speak. Rev. Eldon Shingleton, president of the ministerial association, will also participate.

Parole Violation Nets Charles Paugh Two-Year Sentence

Charles Junior Paugh, picked up for the fourth time since last October on various charges, was sentenced in Juvenile Court on April 2 to a two-year term under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Correction.

A bench warrant had been issued on April 1 by State's Attorney Fred Thayer, who charged Paugh with violation of probation. Paugh, represented by Clarence Penman, entered a plea of guilty. The court was presided over by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill.

Paugh and his wife, Betty Jane, had first been taken into court in October of last year for failing to provide adequate food, clothing, shelter and supervision for their six children and for the failure of these children to attend school. Both entered not guilty pleas at that time, but were found guilty and placed on two years' probation.

A bench warrant was issued for Charles Junior Paugh in December, 1967, charging him with violation of parole. Although he again pleaded not guilty, he was declared guilty by the court and put on continued probation.

Paugh was tried in Magistrate Court on March 27 on a drunk and disorderly charge and for resisting arrest, at which trial he pleaded guilty. Magistrate Maroney ordered him committed to the jurisdiction of the commissioner of correction for three months on the first charge and one year on the secind, both terms to run concurrently.

Judge Hamill ruled that his sentence and the Magistrate's sentence on Paugh be concurrent.

2 Polling Changes Listed In County

Two changes in the polling places in the county have been made, which will be in effect during the special election on Tuesday, May 14, it was announced this week by the Board of Supervisors of Elections.

West Oakland, district 14, 3rd precinct, now located in the showroom at the Ralph Pritts garage on Liberty street, will be moved to the Oakland Volunteer Fire department building on Third street.

As previously announced district No. 7 now located in the lobby of the Court House in Oakland, will be moved to the Knights of Pythias building on South Third street, in the voting machine storage room.

The Board also issued a reminder to voters that Monday, April 15, would be the last day of registration prior to the special election, after which the registration books will be closed and will not re-open until May 25. Those eligible to vote in the special election must have lived in the state for one year and in the county for six months prior to May 14.

The board also announced several changes in the laws con-

Hijacker Gets 55 Cases of Liquor Bound For Oakland

A thief, or thieves, hijacked 55 and one-half cases of liquor destined for the Oakland liquor dispensary over the week-end, it was learned this week.

According to Joseph Wolf, clerk to the Garrett County Liquor Control Board, a Harris truck headed for this county with its load had stopped overnight within the city limits of Cumberland. When the driver checked the load the following morning, he discovered that the liquor, with the exception of two cases of wine, and 25 cases of clothing had been stolen.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation was called in to aid the Cumberland police force on the case. The police so far report having no suspects.

The liquor represented four orders of the brew for the Oakland store.

Crellin Girl Still "Critical" After Move To Richmond

Five-year-old Sandra Holland, who was badly burned in an accident at her home in Crellin March 30, was flown to Richmond, Va., on Wednesday by the Pennsylvania National Guard in an attempt to enhance her chances of survival.

She was reported still in critical candition at the Richmond Burns Center, after sustaining burns over 70 per cent of her body while helping her family burn trash in the yard of their home a week ago Saturday.

First taken to Garrett County Memorial Hospital in Oakland, she was later transferred to the West Virginia Medical Center in Morgantown.

Officials of the 171st Military Airlift Wing at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport said they received a call shortly before noon on Wednesday asking them to airlift Sandra to a burns clinic in Richmond, Va.

The parents of the child had sought unsuccessfully to obtain a light plane for the airlift. The National Guard unit dispatched a four-engine C-121 to Morgantown and flew Sandra, her mother, Mrs. Margaret Holland, and a doctor to Richmond, arriving about 2 p. m.

Reward Is Offered

A reward was offered this week for information concerning Robert Warnick, 40, who has been missing from his home since March 16.

Mr. Warnick resides in this county about four miles from Barton, Allegany county. The man, who is single, lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Warnick. He was last seen at the American Legion home in Barton. He was reported to have stayed at his sister's home in the Barton community the night before he disappeared.

Volunteer firemen from Barton, and other groups have searched the Michaels road and Russell road areas as well as strip mines and logging trails in the Swamp Run area. The man is five feet seven inches tall and has black hair.

State police have been notified that the man is missing.

1968 Beaver Season Was Mediocre One

The 1968 Beaver trapping season turned out to be a mediocre one on account of the unfavorable weather, it was reported this week by Harold Harmon of the Game and Inland Fish commission personnel.

Mr. Harmon, in charge of the Mt. Nebo station, north of Oakland, said the beaver total for this year was 122 with 31 trappers involved.

This compares to 200 trapped in 1966 and 300 in 1967.

The season this year was from Tuesday, January 16, to Monday, March 11. Limit for the season was 10 for each trapper and Eldon Fike, of Oakland, was the only one to get the legal limit.

The total in Allegany county was 16 with six trappers involved. In Washington county 55 were trapped by ten trappers.

Child Of Civil War Era Observes 104th Birthday

ONE HUNDRED FOUR TODAY—Mrs. Elizabeth Beitzel, a guest in Goodwill Mennonite home in Grantsville, is 104 years old today, and is shown here beside the Rev. Melvin N. Nussbaum, home administrator, left, and David Lynn, field representative of the Cumberland Social Security district office, right. The latter delivered birthday greetings to Mrs. Beitzel from the Social Security administration.

Mrs. Elizabeth Beitzel, a child of the Civil War era, is 104 years old today! She was born April 11, 1864, in Garrett County, a daughter of Christ and Lena Beachy Orendorf.

A busy lifetime spanning more than a century has given her rich memories of the changing time. She hasn't forgotten walking more than a mile to the log school where she learned "poetry, spelling and the multiplication tables". She is an expert in speaking Pennsylvania Dutch which she prefers to use. She remembers the "stories" her parents told about the tragic assassination of President Abraham Lincoln. Even now, she "almost hates flax" because of the many hours she spent planting, tending and making cloth from this plant. She lived on a farm most of her life.

Personal birthday greetings from Robert M. Ball, Commis-

487 Survey Replies Received So Far In Labor Survey

Some 487 responses had been received by noon Wednesday regarding the labor survey being taken in this area by the Department of Employment Security, Garrett County Development Corp., and the two Power companies.

According to Mrs. Mary Browning, clerk at the Employment office, 391 of the responses were from the newspapers which had published survey blanks.

An additional 96 replies had been received from the 19,374 survey cards which were processed Monday by members of the Garrett and Allegany County Community Action Agencies and mailed Monday evening.

A breakdown of an earlier newspaper reply count showed that 155 females and 216 males were interested in seeing a plant constructed in this area. The plant could hire up to 500 women and 200 men.

The Community Action Agency reports through G. Bradford Rinard, executive director, that the CAA personnel are prepared to register all those who fail to receive a card through the mail by setting up registration centers in at least four areas in the county.

Also, if necessary, the CAA may provide bus transportation on a scheduled basis from pick-up points to registration centers and return.

Local Guard Still In Baltimore Area

Members of the Company C., 121st Engineering Battalion of the Maryland National Guard, from Frostburg and Oakland, who were called into emergency service last Saturday night, to assist in quelling rioting, looting and burning in Baltimore, were still on duty there at the present time. The situation had "cooled" considerably after four days of massive disorder that had spread to the city from Washington.

The Oakland members of the company were called Saturday evening at 7:30, and the first contingent left around 1 a. m. Sunday, joining up with other guardsment from Frostburg and Cumberland.

Violence flared in Baltimore on Saturday after the Thursday slaying of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in Memphis, Tenn.

The guard was called to bolster the Baltimore police force. Several thousand federal troops were also called to that city. The uprising caused five deaths in Baltimore, 510 persons injured, with some 600 fires be-

Annual Easter Egg Party Is Planned

The American Legion Auxiliary is planning to hold its annual Easter Egg party on Saturday, April 13, at 2 p. m. in the basement of the American Legion home, in northeast Oakland.

Children up to age 11 are eligible to participate.

R. Crosco Given $75 Fine On Two Criminal Charges

A total of four charges were listed on the Oakland Trial Magistrate's court docket for the past week. Two of the charges were filed by Charles H. Guthrie, who alleged that Russell Crosco had been drunk and disorderly and that Crosco had maliciously destroyed property belonging to Mr. Guthrie on April 8.

In a trial held April 9, Crosco entered guilty pleas on both charges, and was fined $25 and costs on the first count and $50 and costs on the second. He was taken into custody pending payment of the fines and could serve up to 30 days on each count in default of payment. He was given until May 1 to make restitution for the property damage caused Mr. Guthrie.

Sgt. Lynnwood Clark charged John Harry Davis with selling an alcoholic beverage after 12 midnight, in violation of his license. At his April 1 trial, he pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and costs; the fine was suspended.

In the only other case listed, Patricia Moon charged Donald Russell Moon with assault and battery upon the said Patricia Moon, on April 2 at Bloomington. In a trial held April 3, Mr. Moon pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs.

Commissioners Approve Loan For Classrooms

Would Provide Four Additional Rooms At Grantsville

Additional classroom space will be provided for the Grantsville school as the result of an approval of a state school construction loan of $100,000, it was revealed at a meeting of the Board of Education on Tuesday.

The loan of $100,000 will be applied for in the June bond sale, according to Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, and if approved, will, along with a state grant, be used to add four additional classrooms and new toilet facilities to the Grantsville school. The commissioners voted two to one for the loan approval.

Mr. Hawkins was authorized by the board to proceed with architectural plans as soon as possible. He said the loan would be repaid over a fifteen year period at a cost of not more than one and one-half cents on the tax rate.

Plans for additional construction were also learned at Tuesday's meeting. Mr. Hawkins said he expected construction on the addition to Dennett road and the new vocational additions to Northern and Southern to begin next week. The Wilson Construction company, Cumberland, was low bidder and was awarded the contract for the three units. Bids for the new addition to the Bloomington school will be opened April 22, at 11 o'clock in the board office.

To Expand Kindergarten

At Tuesday's session the board also approved expanded kindergarten programs for next year. Registration for the Oakland kindergarten is set for Friday, April 19, 11 to 3, which will serve all the area served by Southern High school, with the exception of Kitzmiller where a kindergarten program is in operation.

New kindergarten programs will be open at Bloomington and Route 40, and at Grantsville as soon as the new building is completed. Mr. Hawkins said this would leave only Friendsville and Accident without kindergarten programs but facili-

License Tag Sale Reaches 4,979 By End Of Month

Mrs. Arzella Parsons, county treasurer, has released figures showing that a total of 4,979 car license tags had been sold by March 30.

Some 3,689 of the tags were sold from the Oakland Courthouse, with Grantsville selling 1,016 and Friendsville 274.

Last year's total was 5,050, just 71 more than 1968.

Much confusion was caused by the Department of Motor Vehicles' switch to computers it was stated, with the result that 25,000 persons did not receive their application forms. To aid the situation, a new form was devised and made available at the treasurer's office which helped motorists to obtain their tags without the red tape of writing to the department.

Mrs. Parsons reminds truck and farm truck owners that new tags must be displayed by April 30. These tags are currently on sale in the treasurer's office.

NATIONAL GUARD CALLED—Members of Company C, 121st Engineers, were ordered to Baltimore last Saturday evening to assist other guardsmen in maintaining law and order in Baltimore after riots, looting and burning spread throughout many parts of the city. Bob Skipper and Jack Sowers, assist with equipment, while on the extreme right is Ted Stockslager, motor superintendent. The guardsmen were shown gathering tools, duffle bags and weapons preparatory to leaving for Baltimore about 1 o'clock Sunday morning.

The Bloody Knees

In one Allegany County church there is a series of paintings depicting the walk of Christ to Golgotha. Someone knew the art of emphasizing with color, for in each scene the background figures are almost entirely gray, whereas the face and garment of Christ are colored. The striking thing about his appearance in every painting is the bloody knees, received from a fall on the hard path or paved way.

What a thought it is—bloody knees from a struggle, ever revered by the world because it was not taken to gain something personal. It was for others—every sweat-soaked, humiliating step to an ultimate degredation in the sight of the crowd which was too ignorant to grasp the sadness.

Whether we are Christian, Jew, or agnostic, the bloody knees of self-sacrifice are enough to impale us, to admiration of the person who undergoes inhuman treatment or exposure because his creed is his whole basis for action. When angry words invite a retort and we check our hateful little articulations, when unjust criticisms find their way into our lives to wound innocent minds, and if poor results are evident in spite of our greatest strength of endeavor, then do all humans need the bloody knees to accept it without surrendering, to rise by a final effort joined with an humble spirit.

Americans have never been characterized by humility; as a national trait it seems to belong to older worlds, perhaps to the farmers of Asia or Europe who are comrades of the soil. Our American hunger for land which we often simply usurped; the revolution against the power of England, who could not discern our challenge to such a superior military foe; and the moral leadership of individuals who defended the Alamo or Fort McHenry; these instances would never convict us of turning the other cheek to win by gentleness.

Yet in the finest people of each community, that is, those who are examples of the guileless approach to everyday problems, we can sense this inner realization that only by placing ourselves at the disposal of other forces, even the evil ones, do we reach a pedestal of personal worth. That the truly great are always kind does not need to be said, for it can be seen. The avenues of life are too long to be lived in selfishness or condemnation of others. What most of us need is a personal cleansing from ourselves, our cupidity and jealousy. Give us bloody knees.

CAPITOL COMMENT

Charles "Mac" Mathias

Congressman, 6th District, Maryland

To Improve Manpower Training

One of our proudest boasts has traditionally been that America had a job for any man or woman who sought work. In fact, for the last several years the nationwide unemployment rate has hovered around 4 percent, meaning that 96 percent of the Americans in the civilian labor force were employed.

When we look behind the national averages, however, the picture is not so bright. A number of surveys have shown recently that unemployment in some central-city neighborhoods is seven or eight times as great as the national rate. According to recent door-to-door canvassing by the Maryland State Employment Service, unemployment in some parts of the City of Baltimore approaches 30 percent.

Thus the greatest single need in our cities is for work. This is a need which appears to transcend even the tremendous need for more decent housing. Yet helping the unemployed to find meaningful jobs is no easy task, because most of the so-called "hard-core unemployed" lack the education and training required to get and keep the jobs which are available. In some cases, men and women are so far out of our economic mainstream that it is difficult even to locate them.

In 1962 the Congress enacted a landmark measure, the Manpower Development and Training Act, which was directed at the most urgent employment problem of that year — the individuals who need retraining or additional skills to respond to the changing employment picture. Recently the emphasis of the MDTA has been shifting toward assisting the hard-core unemployed and toward using the talents of business and industry more extensively in training and counseling. The shift has not, however, gained the full momentum now required.

This week I joined many of my colleagues in the House in sponsoring new legislation to expand the Manpower Development and Training Act to encourage the creation of up to 300,000 new jobs in the next year. This bill has three major parts:

1) It would provide new incentives for manpower training by business and industry in the form of tax credits to offset training costs. The tax credit approach, which is simple and relatively free from red tape, has been advocated by many experts in the field, but has not yet been seriously considered by the House.

2) The bill would also promote the creation of new jobs in community service — in the areas of education, health, recreation, and public safety in which needs for sub-professional manpower are so urgent.

3) The bill would require the development of national, regional and local job opportunity surveys and programs for matching employers' needs with available manpower. Such efforts, already being undertaken in Baltimore, would be immensely helpful nationwide.

Reducing unemployment in our central cities has obvious human and economic benefits. A meaningful job can give a man or woman a sense of participation, a sense of accomplishment, and a stake in America's future growth. Expanding the job market and expanding payrolls will expand markets, increase tax revenues, and foster our economic growth. The legislation which I am co-sponsoring should help to reduce some of the roadblocks to wider employment which have persisted for far too long.

Aurora - Eglon

Roy Teets, of Eglon, remains a patient in the West Virginia University hospital in Morgantown. He was admitted to the institution March 31.

Oliver Miller, 94, who with his wife, resides in the home of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Talmage White, Eglon, suffered a light stroke very early Tuesday morning. Returns From Chicago

Linda Schmidt and Dianna Fitzwater, two of the five Maryland youthpower delegates, have returned from an all expense paid trip to Chicago.

While in Chicago the girls attended sessions on nutrition, food related careers, and the economic situation of food. During the four day convention they heard various speeches by well known people.

They would be available to give talks about the convention, on nutrition, food related careers, or the economic situation of food. Additional information is available from Miss Schmidt, Rt. 1, Swanton, or Miss Fitzwater, Rt. 2, Swanton.

There was a man named DeVore
With kiddies at home by the score.
When he'd go to buy clothing
It filled him with loathing
To leave all his cash at the store.

A good friend suggested that he
Do all his Easter shopping at H-P.
Now the clothes for each honey
Costs DeVore much less money
And the kids are a picture to see!

Now when shopping DeVore is serene
H-P prices are the lowest he's seen!
And, with the money he saves,
Buys the clothing he craves
And his wife dresses fit for a queen!

The moral of our story is clear:
Shop H-P when Easter is near
To satisfy cravings
For fashions at savings
For yourself and all those you hold dear!

Land For College

Mr. Hawkins said the matter of land for the junior college would be on the agenda for approval at the next meeting of the Board of Public Works, scheduled for this month. He said there was a question of mineral rights which had arisen relative to the titles to the land in question, which was being cleared by the board's attorney.

He indicated that following land approval, architectural work would begin on plans and specifications for the building with the hope of having the building under contract by late fall.

Other Items Approved

In other items of business the board voted to close schools at 2 p. m. on May 14, to emphasize importance of balloting on new state constitution;

Voted approval of William Watson, Jr., industrial arts teacher at Southern, for new supervisor of school transportation to succeed Robert Martin. Mr. Watson, teacher and coach for eleven years, is a graduate of Fairmont State college and holds Master's degree from West Virginia university.

Teacher resignations accepted by the Board included Miss Barbara Giles, Mrs. Mary Lee Moore, Charles Burcaw, Mrs. Katherine Tinker, George Jarvis, Ralph Beachley, the latter by retirement. Mr. Hawkins said the number of vacancies at this time was small and no problems were anticipated in filling vacancies with possible exception of special areas in art, French and drafting or industrial arts. Additional teachers are to be named for Dennett Road school for the coming year. Class sizes at Center Street, Loch Lynn and Red House are to be reduced.

The Board officially approved the teacher salary scale ranging from $5,900 for beginners up to $9,400 as a maximum with $175,000 of the additional amount needed coming from county funds.

The Board also expressed approval of a 10 percent raise in school bus contracts, subject to approval of the county commissioners, who would provide the money. But contractors met Monday with the Commissioners but no decision was made at that time.

Mr. Hawkins said the state would provide no raise for bus contractors this year. A ten percent raise would cost some $42,000 annually.

The superintendent told board members that a special $10,000 federal science library grant was unexpectedly received last week, which would be used to strengthen the Science center and planetarium program.

The possibility that the June meeting of County Superintendents and state department officials may be held in this county was indicated, providing sufficient accommodations could be secured.

Following adjournment the board members and Mr. Hawkins visited the Loch Lynn school. George Edwards, president, was absent due to illness.

TC program, being rated a Distinguished Miilitary student, Distinguished Military graduate and was a member of Scabbard and Blade, honorary ROTC organization. He was graduated with honors from the university.

Born in Swanton, Capt. Rhodes met his wife while a student in West Virginia university. They were married January 25, 1962. He volunteered for duty in Vietnam.

He was an Eagle Scout and was a member of Swanton Evangelical United Brethren church.

He was in ranger school, airborne division at Fort Benning, Ga., and also had training as ordnance officer at Aberdeen Proving Grounds.

Capt. Rhodes had spent three years in Germany in the U. S. Army infantry after going on active duty in June, 1966. Two years ago he transferred to Army Ordnance. At the time of his death his base camp was at Long Dinh, about 15 miles northeast of Saigon.

Besides his wife and parents, Capt. Rhodes leaves three sons, Lance, Chester and John; a brother, Michael Rhodes, Mt. Lake Park; a half-brother, Harry Warnick, Baltimore; three sisters, Mrs. Orval Teets, Swanton; Mrs. Kenneth Teets, Norfolk, Va.; and Mrs. Charles Hutson, Federalsburg.

Body Is Returned

The body was returned to the John O. Durst Funeral home in Oakland Monday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Swanton Ev. United Brethren church with Rev. John H. Icenhower and Rev. George W. Simpson, officiating.

Interment was scheduled for this afternoon, April 11, at 3 o'clock at the chapel at Fort Myer, Va., with interment in Arlington National cemetery with full military honors.

ACCIDENT

B. O. Aiken attended a meeting of retired teachers in Montgomery county on Thursday. He returned home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Margroff were Saturday visitors of William Herring. Ben Callis, Leo Rinker, Harold Georg, Chris Glass were also recent visitors.

Pastor and Mrs. Ketell, of Roanoke, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Hank Fike and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Callis were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sisler and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alexander spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baird and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Artice and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Jenkins and daughters.

tion blocking a planned Memphis demonstration Monday and quoted King as saying: "We're not going to let any injunction turn us around."

Byrd continued: "One cannot preach non-violence and advocate defiance of the law". He went on to quote several Bible passages against defying the law, which he said anybody could read and understand.

He added that "neither men nor mobs can continue to create disorder and disregard the laws and disrupt the orderly functioning of government at any level without shaking the very foundations of our society, tearing our country asunder and destroying themselves in the end. If we are to avoid disaster, we must strive to live in peace, work together in harmony, seek redress for our grievances through legal processes and strive always for the preservation of good order".

sioner of Social Security Administration, were delivered today by David Lynn, Field Representative of the Cumberland Social Security District Office. Although in excellent health, Mrs. Beitzel was one of the first in Garrett County to enroll for Medicare in early 1966. Since she chose to take medical insurance to help with doctor fees, she is fully protected by both parts of Health Insurance Benefits if she requires hospitalization or physician's services. In October 1966, Mrs. Beitzel became entitled to monthly cash social security payments because she was over age 72 and was not receiving any type of Federal pension or cash assistance from the County Welfare Department. Social Security records are confidential but Mrs. Beitzel gave her permission for this story to encourage others to participate in the social security program.

Mrs. Beitzel is a guest of the Goodwill Mennonite Home in Grantsville. A son, Edwin Beitzel, resides in Cumberland and 3 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren live in the vicinity. She was widowed in 1919. Later today, Mrs. Beitzel, her family and friends will be guests of the historic Casselman, built in 1824, for a birthday celebration.

Appeals Court

mission; that the petition referred to in the bill of complaint was signed by a group of citizens and that there was no corporate action. It added that the town had advised numerous times that it did not desire to enter into any arrangement with the complainant relative to sewage disposal and that the town planned to build its own facility for the disposal of sewage.

The controversy was over whether or not the town would be entitled to withdraw from the Sanitary district.

A week after the demurrer was filed the judge sustained it and subsequently an order for appeal was filed in the Circuit court on June 21st. The papers in the case were sent to the Court of Appeals last July 18, with the word coming this week that Judge Hamill's decision had been upheld, which was to the effect that the town had every right to install its own system.

Talks Planned

As a result of the Appeals Court decision, local persons involved were planning to hold a series of meetings to see what could be worked out leading to construction of the sewage treatment plant for Oakland.

There were reports that Appalachian funds may be available which would provide most of the funds needed.

Members of the Oakland council, the city attorney, and members of the Sanitary commission would be involved in the talks.

ing set during the four-day trouble. Over three thousand persons were arrested.

The call came suddenly and caused some difficulty in rounding up the members. Since the guard was in the process of changing from a tank unit back to an engineering outfit, there was a shortage of some equipment, notably trucks, which were provided from Frostburg. Several of the members reported the following day. There were 147 in the unit from Oakland and Frostburg.

A little information has filtered back to Oakland. The Guard apparently had little sleep and not too much of a balanced food diet. Thomas Bittinger, it was reported, was hit in the back by a brick, thrown by one of the mobsters.

Store Is Looted

The furniture store in Washington, Hamilton and Jordan, Inc., located on 14th street, between Euclid and Fairmont streets, in northwest, was completely looted and the interior burned last Friday.

Wayne Hamilton, Red House, one of the owners, said the mob had avoided any activity last Thursday but began looting about noon Friday. Windows in the store front were all broken and the interior set afire after looting had ended. The building owned by another person, was badly damaged by flames but the did not reach the upstairs apartments.

There was some coverage by riot insurance, Mr. Hamilton said, but insurance on the building was invalidated because the fire was caused by rioting.

There was no information on when the national guardsmen would be relieved of their duties.

ference between the actual percentage and the mandated 43%. Thus the minimum rate for schools this year will be $1.19 rather than $1.22.8 per one hundred of assessed valuation, which will mean a drop in the tax rate of 3.8 cents and a saving to the county of $29,260.00 on the assessable basis of $77 million.

Mr. Hawkins' release further stated that due to the increase in the assessable base upon which the school budget must be levied, the county by law will have to provide an additional $178,500 for schools more than it provided this year.

Mr. Hawkins' release went on to say that the state will accordingly provide $178,500 less to meet the requirements of the minimum program.

In addition to the $178,500 the county must provide due to the increased assessments, the County Commissioners have promised to provide an additional $175,000 toward the increase in teachers' salaries and the Board is asking for $63,000 increase for school bus contractors, an increase of 15 percent.

Together, that totals a $416,500 increase in county funds for schools over this year. The release mentioned that of this amount, all but the $63,000 for bus contractors is either mandated by law or has been promised by the Commissioners.

Mr. Hawkins' release further stated that this year Garrett was the only county in the state where the Board of Commissioners did not provide money in excess of the minimum mandated by law for schools. The only items in excess of the minimum in the forthcoming budget are the commitment for teachers' salaries and the request for an increase for bus contractors.

Federal funds under Titles I, II, and III have supplemented the minimum state program in the past three years; however, none of these funds can be used for salary raises for teachers or bus contractors, he added.

It was further asserted by Mr. Hawkins that the county must meet the requirements for the school debt service which, in spite of an extensive building program, is the lowest of any county in the state. He pointed out that the cost of this service is substantially offset by State funds and the gas tax, so that the taxpayers' burden has been light. This year the final payment on the original bond issue to build the two schools will be made, thus releasing $180,000 annually, the amount now required as annual payments on these bonds.

Telephone Foreman Retires After 40 Years of Service

Harold J. (Barney) Barnes, who retired last week from the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company as construction foreman, has been in service with AT & T and C & P for 40 years.

Mr. Barnes, who was born in Bristol, W. Va., started his telephone service career in April, 1928 at Salem, W. Va. In the intervening years he worked in West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

He worked part-time in Oakland in 1936 and worked through West Virginia and Pennsylvania until 1942, when he entered the armed forces.

After his discharge, he worked for AT & T first at Culpeper, Va., then was transferred to Oakland as combination man (linework and construction.) He was promoted in 1947 and worked the Garrett County area until 1949, when he took a crew out on the road in Maryland.

He held this traveling position until 1950, when he was transferred to Cumberland in 1950 as construction foreman.

Mr. Barnes married the former Beulah Wolf of Oakland. The couple has one daughter and there are four sons of Mrs. Barnes' by a former marriage. They also have 13 grandchildren.

Future plans for Mr. and Mrs. Barnes include a trip to Florida "for some sunshine", and then " a lot of traveling".

Additional Lake Properties Entered

Three additional properties around Deep Creek Lake, all on the Turkey Neck peninsula, were broken into during the week, according to James E. Frantz, sheriff. This makes five entries on the Turkey Neck peninsula, in recent weeks, plus three others along U. S. 219, south of the Promotion Council's information booth.

Investigation continues. No arrests have been made. Sheriff Frantz said the robbers apparrently were searching for money or liquor, as there was little evidence of any rifling.

DIED

MRS. LOUIS BOIT

Mrs. Anna Boit, 74, died Tuesday, April 9, at Garrett County Memorial Hospital, Oakland, where she had been a patient since March 21. Mrs. Boit was a resident of Thomas, W. Va.

Born in Thomas, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Mary (Cross) Suder. She was a member of Lodge 29, SNPJ.

Surviving are her husband, Louis Boit; two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Skomp and Mrs. Olga Bowers, Cleveland, O.; three sons, Thomas Comak Jr., and Franklin Osretkar, Cleveland, and Anthony Osretkar, Lanham, and 14 grandchildren.

The body is at the Duncan Funeral Home where a service will be conducted Saturday at 10:30 a. m. Rev. A. H. Bryant will officiate and interment will be in Rose Hill Cemetery.

April Brings Rain 3 Out of 7 Days

The month of April delivered three rains during the past seven days, so May should bring much flowering. It was raining both on Thursday and Friday of last week, with temperatures dropping steadily from 61 to 55 on Thursday, and from 55 Thursday evening to 32 on Friday morning. The highest temperature noted on Friday was a chilly 38.

Saturday and Sunday both did better; although there was light frost on Saturday, the mercury soon scrambled up to the 60's. Sunday, too, was sunny, and had even warmer temperatures as the thermometer rose to the comfortable 70's.

Monday brought gloomy skies, showers, and mid-50 temperatures. Although the showers stopped before noon, the mercury was too dampened to rise above 59.

Tuesday brought the return of sunny skies and although the wind was strong, it wasn't quite strong enough to keep the temperature from reaching the 60 degree mark. Wednesday began with clouded skies, although these soon parted to make way for ol' Sol. High for the day was 57. Thursday morning had sunny skies and a 39 degree temperature.

The Volkswagen for people who refuse to drive Volkswagens.

If you refuse to drive a Volkswagen because it's ugly, we can't help you.

If you refuse to drive a Volkswagen because you have eight kids and it isn't big enough, you have our sympathy.

If you refuse to drive a Volkswagen because it isn't fancy enough, that's for you to decide.

But if you refuse to drive a Volkswagen because you're used to an automatic transmission, listen carefully.

Now you can drive a Volkswagen all over town without shifting.

We call this new option the automatic stick shift.

And in true Volkswagen fashion, a bug with an automatic stick shift will deliver up to 25 miles on a gallon of gas, use very little oil, and nary a drop of water or antifreeze.

But just because we've made it easy to drive, doesn't mean we're about to make it any prettier, or any bigger, or any fancier. So we imagine some people will still refuse to drive Volkswagens.

You can't win them all.

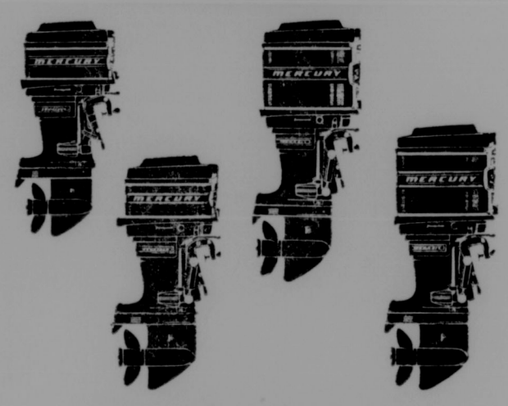
DEER PARK

An Easter Sunrise Service will be held at the Deer Park Methodist church at 7 a. m.

Congregational Meeting

The annual congregational meeting of St. John's church, Deer Park, was held on March 31st at noon. The yearly report on the State of the Mission was presented by Rev. Fr. Thomas Staup, Vicar. The congregation elected Darrell M. Wotring, Sr., and Milford Beckman, to three-year terms on the church Advisory Board. Retiring members were Harland Bittinger and Jerry Storey.



The Women of St. John's church met at the Vicarage on Monday evening, April 1, and elected as their president, Mrs. Milford Beckman to succeed retiring president, Mrs. Lonnie Long, for a one-year term. Elected as secretary was Mrs. Thomas Beckman, and treasurer, Mrs. Harland Bittinger; United Thank Offering custodian elected was Mrs. Thomas P. Staup. Following the elections, the Rt. Rev. Harry L. Doll, Bishop of Maryland, appointed Mrs. Milford Beckman to a one-year office on the Advisory Board of St. John's church, to act as representative of the Women of St. John's and as liaison between the Advisory Board and the Women of St. John's.

The newly elected officers will be formally installed on Sunday morning, April 21.

Buy a new 50, 65, 100 or 125-hp Mercury outboard.

And stamp out ignition tune-ups.

Mercury's Thunderbolt ignition—standard equipment on every Merc from 50 hp up—has no breaker points to wear out or replace. So it does away with the need for ignition tune-ups. And since Thunderbolt can deliver 40,000 volts to the spark plugs, it can fire even oiled or fouled plugs. A set of plugs will last seasons. Thunderbolt is the only electronic ignition developed specifically for marine use. For over two years it's been saving thousands of happy Mercury owners time, money, and worry. Let your Mercury dealer help you select the right Thunderbolt-powered Merc for your rig. And do away with ignition tune-ups for good!

Southern Student Places Second In State Tournament

Jenny Gosnell, a student at Southern High School, helped put her school in the winner's circle last week-end by placing second in oral interpretation at the State Forensic Tournament held at Towson State College.

This was the school's first representation in the Maryland State Finals.

The debaters also did well in their second year of competition on the state level, with Dennis DeBerry and Jim Jones going undefeated through three debates. Judy Simpson and Cyndi Mayle won one and lost two.

In other events, Sherry Frantz and Val Smouse participated in original oratory and extempore, respectively.

The students and their chaperones, Miss Mary Teets and Michael Posey, stayed at the Towson East Motel. Mr. Posey is the coach of the forensic team.

Petersburg Race Winners Named

The class of America's canoe and kayak racers gave spectators a good show at the Petersburg White Water week-end championship races.

In the one-man kayak, it was Baltimore Kayak club contestant, Norton Smith, who went down the five-mile course in 43 minutes, 43.2 seconds.

The one-man canoe race was won by John Sweet, State College, Pa., member of Wildwater Boating club. His time was 45 minutes, 54.7 seconds.

The man and woman canoe team of Mark Fawcett and Gay Gruss, of the Buck Ridge Ski club, Philadelphia, won the race in 44 minutes, 47.8 seconds.

It was one of the largest crowds to view the races in recent years. The river was full and fast, the rapids providing a challenge to the racers. Weather was favorable with moderate temperatures.

Races were run from the Grant-Pendleton county line to the bridge at Smoke Hole Caverns in Grant County. Since its institution the White Water Week-end has grown in prominence until it is recognized nationally and is watched by canoe and kayak fans across the nation.

GORTNER

Pastor Paul Erbi, Scottdale, Pa., will be guest speaker at the Union church on Sunday.

The Union Sunday School contributed $24.00 to International Guest House, Washington, D. C., at the April special offering.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schlosnagle met their daughter Mary and family, of near Cleveland, O., half-way, Sunday, and were accompanied home by their grandsons, James and Jeff Roth, who will spend the week here.

Noah Kauffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kauffman, of Table Rock, became critically ill in Kentucky, and is now a patient at University hospital, Morgantown. His brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Stull, of Ontario, are here to be with him.

Owen Swartzentruber, who has been ill for some time, was in Morgantown on Thursday for a check-up. It was discovered that his spine has been affected and was put in a cast. His small daughter had her check-up and is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swartzentruber were in Morgantown, Saturday evening, where his sister, Miss Nancy Summy, of Meyersdale is now a hospital patient. Mrs. Swartzentruber remained in Morgantown.

Eli Hershberger, who was home from Wernersville, Pa., left Sunday night accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Atlee Hershberger, for Beltsville, where he has been transferred. The Neil Nissleys, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Beachy, Nelson Garber and family and Miss Anna Schlabach were Sunday dinner guests of the Hershbergers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Alexander, of LaVale, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Anna Welch.

The wedding of Miss Frannie Yoder and Alpha Kauffman took place at the Amish church on Tuesday. Bishop Norman Schrock performed the ceremony at noon. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Sue and Rachel Yoder; groomsmen were Levi Miller and Junior Kauffman. Dinner and supper were served the guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Yoder. The young people spent the evening singing. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Petersheim, of Wernersville, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swartzentruber, of Belleville, Pa., sisters of the bride were home for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Swartzentruber returned home Monday night from Dover, Del., where they visited his son, Lewis and family, and attended the funeral of John A. Yoder's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lee and children, Pittsburgh, and Owen Martin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lee, on Sunday. Monday evening visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mellott and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mellott, Swallow Falls.

Some 420 fires burned in Balto., during recent rioting.

Questions, Answers On Constitution Continue Today

Questions and answers concerning the proposed Maryland constitution which will be voted on by the citizens on Tuesday, May 14, continue to be published this week. They were prepared by William W. Grant, the county's elected delegate to the convention last fall.

Q. Why can't I vote for just those parts of the Constitution I like and against those I don't like?

A. If each of the delegates to the Constitutional Convention had each written a Constitution, each person's version would have contained provisions differing from another person's version. This is because each delegate represented a different part of the population, such as Western Maryland, Eastern Shore, Washington Suburbs, etc. The proposed Constitution contains those things on which the majority of delegates could agree. It contains benefits for the rural as well as benefits for the urban areas. Were it to be voted on piece by piece, obviously only those things which benefited the urban areas which have 85 per cent of the votes could be certain of ratification and those things which benefit the rural areas might be rejected.

Q. Does this Constitution give a lot more power to the Governor?

A. No, it pretty well continues the present restrictions on the Governor's power. He is given the power to reorganize the governmental agencies, but any reorganization is subject to a veto by the General Assembly. It provides for a Lieutenant Governor to assist the Governor. Proposals to give wide appointive power to the Governor were not adopted, but he was given power to discharge some of the department heads if their performance was not satisfactory to him.

Q. Does this Constitution abolish a lot of elected officials?

A. No, but it does allow the General Assembly to decide whether or not to continue certain state government officials and allows the people of each county to decide whether or not to continue county government officials. Under the old Constitution these officials were beyond the reach of the legislature or the people to change, even if their performance of duty was not satisfactory.

Q. Are State funds being used to get people to vote for the Constitution?

A. No, it is not. The State appropriated money for a Commission to study the Constitution, for an election to pick delegates to the Constitutional Convention, for the expense of the Convention and for an election on May 14, 1968, to vote for or against ratification by the people of the proposed Constitution. As part of the expense of the Convention, a number of copies of the Constitution have been distributed. Everything else is being done by groups interested in good government and voter education. These include the League of Women Voters, many newspapers, and radio stations, a Citizens Committee for the new Constitution, business and professional associations, etc. Some schools are also conducting programs to familiarize their students with the issues, since this is a unique occasion in governmental history.

Deep Creek Firemen Now Meeting Regularly

Bi-weekly meetings are now being held on the first and third Monday of each month by members of the Deep Creek Volunteer Fire Company, Inc., in the new fire hall at McHenry.

Firemen are making plans for two training courses offered by the University of Maryland. A basic course is open to all firemen, with an advanced course open to all who have completed the basic course. The advanced class will be open to firemen from surrounding companies.

Since the Deep Creek company is the only one located on Deep Creek Lake, its members are concerned with the possible purchase of a fire and rescue boat in addition to the regular trucks. Should this be done it would mean additional classes for scuba diving, Red Cross first aid courses.

The company is now carrying a large debt on the present truck and engine house recently constructed, but members of the department are looking to the future for additional equipment which would include a new pumper truck, a tanker for water, equipment truck, auxiliary water pumps, and an ambulance. J. Stuart Kuhlne, one of the officers of the company, said in rural areas an ambulance was almost a must.

Question

I remember hearing about something called farmer's lung when I was a boy. Could you tell me something about this?

Answer

Farmer's lung is the name given to a disease of the lungs which can be caused by the inhalation of dust rising from moldy hay or other moldy vegetation. Hay that is cut dry and well stored is usually free of any appreciable amount of dust. But the storage of wet or moist hay produces mold and bacteria which, when disturbed, create clouds of dust. Continued breathing of this moldy, bacteria-filled dust causes the pulmonary disease called farmer's lung.

Man Is Promoted

Promotion of three men to supervisory positions in the Maintenance Department of West Virgiia Pulp and Paper's Luke mill has been announced by James L. Newlin, maintenance superintendent.

One of those is Theodore Raynovich who was promoted to the position of Welding Shop Supervisor.

Raynovich had been a welder at Westvaco since joining the Luke mill in May 1962 until his transfer as a maintenance planner-scheduler in July 1966. He, and his wife Delores and two children reside in Oakland.

Rebellious Negro students at Tuskegee, Ala., held 12 prominent trustees hostage for 13 hours, until the National Guard moved in.

DeGaulle has described the U. S. bombing curtailment as a first step toward peace.

A PLUME OF SMOKE rises over Baltimore Sunday, April 7, following violence that erupted in that city of a million people Saturday night. Trucks and troops of the Maryland National Guard are shown in the foreground at the Fifth Regiment Armory. A force of over 6000 Guardsmen were called out to help curb the disturbances.

National Guard Publishes News Release On Riot

Several thousand members of the Maryland National Guard were put into the streets of Baltimore shortly after eleven p. m. Saturday, April 6, in the third call for a civil disturbance in the State since 1963.

Outbreaks of violence began in the eastern section of the city of a million people around 7 p. m. Looters and arsonists were reported to be breaking into and setting fire to properties in the vicinity of Gay and Aisquith Sts.

Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro requested Gov. Spiro T. Agnew to call out the Guard. Mr. Agnew declared a state of emergency and issued orders to mobilize some 6000 Guardsmen.

Through the rest of Saturday night and until the curfew was lifted at 6 p. m. Sunday, the Guard was able to control the violence which had spread from its point of origin.

At a press conference Sunday morning, Major General George M. Gelston, who took command of police and Guard operations in Baltimore, declared the situation in the city "well under control". He added that several thousand more were standing by to be committed.

Saturday night's violence claimed lives of at least three people while an estimated 85 more were reported injured, including 10 policemen. An estimated 250 fires were touched off by arsonists, most of them small, but at times flames from several fires burning out of control, leaped into the night sky spewing out columns of smoke.

Police and Guardsmen made 412 arrests Saturday and early Sunday morning and officials said that the vast majority of those arrested ranged from age 14 to 20. All face possible $100 fines, 60 days in jail, or both. Of those arrested, 8 were from out of state.

Although city and state officials said the situation in Baltimore was never out of control, acts of violence and looting were spreading as Sunday evening approched. The deteriorating situation prompted the call for outside help.

Sunday evening, at the request of Gov. Agnew, President Johnson dispatched 1,900 paratroopers to the city to help the beleagured Guardsmen. The Airborne troops, from the 18th Airborne Corps from Fort Bragg, North Carolina, excamped in Druid Hill Park and by 11 p. m. contingents were patrolling the streets in troubled areas.

General Gelston, who relinquished command to Lt. Gen. Robert H. York, when the Guard was brought under Federal control, emphasized that the deployment of Federal troops to the City was a precautionary measure.

With the advent of Federal troops, the level of violence declined markedly after the 4 p. m. curfew was imposed Sunday. Nevertheless, the casualty toll continued to mount.

An estimated 300 persons had been injured since the rioting began, including 30 policemen and 20 firemen; 420 fires had been reported since early Saturday night and more than 1,350 persons had been arrested.

The use of federal troops in Baltimore, marks the first time since 1870 that the nation's government has dispatched forces to the city.

In the past five years, the State's National Guard has received riot control experience in training exercises and in racial flare-ups in Cambridge.

In an appeal to city residents on Sunday morning, Mayor D'Alesandro called for calm. He emphasized that the disturbances had been confined to a very small section of the city and that disturbances were largely the work of some 3000 people, mostly youths less than 20 years old.

Vandivier-Silber Vows Exchanged

Wedding vows were exchanged between Frances Ann Silber and Lawrence A. Vandivier, on February 17 at Faith Lutheran Church, Oxon Hill.

The Rev. Richard Manning performed the afternoon ceremony which united the daughter of C. Willis Silber, Accident, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Vandivier, Fairborn, O.

The bride wore an off-white street length dress styled with an A-line skirt and lace bodice featuring rounded neckline and long sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was caught by a matching bow and she carried a cascade arrangement of white daisies on a white prayer book.

The matron of honor, Mrs. James Hollen, wore a mint green dress of crepe identical to that of the bride's, and carried yellow daisies. Both dresses were fashioned by the bride.

James Hollen, Alexandria, was best man. Michael Manning served as acolyte.

The new Mrs. Vandivier attended the University of Maryland and worked for the Department of Agriculture in Washington, D. C., for three years. She is presently employed at the Naval Research Laboratory in Washington.

The groom attended Fairborn schools and served four years with the U. S. Air Force. He is currently employed at the District of Columbia Water Pollution Control Plant.

After a wedding trip through Virginia, the couple is residing at 3418 Brinkly Road, Oxon Hill.

Grantsville Group Asks For School Improvements

A delegation of 16 parents and students appeared before April 1 meeting of the Board of Garrett County Commissioners to discuss the need for additional classrooms and other needed facilities at the Grantsville school.

The group, which declared that there is immediate need for such improvements, were advised by Board president John Ross Sines that the matter will be discussed with the school board and the people will be advised of intentions no later than April 22.

A list of 60 names of those supporting the request was handed to the Board.

Supervisors of the Registration and Election Boards discussed regulations of the State Board of Health concerning voting places and facilities with the three commissioners.

Glenn Shaffer, mayor of Loch Lynn Heights, related the difficulties in procuring materials needed for street repairs since paving materials are not available from the County Roads department.

Commissioner Hubert Friend made a motion that request for furnishing a paver be advertised; the motion passed unanimously.

Commissioner Allan S. Paugh made a motion that a tractor-mounted power broom be purchased from Lutherville Supply and Equipment Company for a price of $1,281.53. The motion also passed by unanimous vote.

Walter Broadwater was present to request improvements to the Meadow Mountain Road. The Board said it would give consideration to requested improvements when completing the Roads Work program.

Baltimore riots left 4 dead, 300 hurt, 1,350 arrested.

Special Conservation Practice Approved

A special conservation practice, Culture of a Stand of Sugar Maple Trees, was recently approved for Garrett County, I. William Umbel, Chairman, County ASC Committee announced.

The practice was developed by the County Technical Action Panel because of the concern of many people about the declining maple sugar and syrup industry and the harvesting of many sugar maple groves for timber.

It will be carried out under the Agricultural Conservation Program and will provide cost-sharing, at the rate of 80 percent of the cost, for a number of conservation measures designed especially to improve present stands of sugar maple and to promote the growth of new stands. All projects will be carried out under the supervision of a qualified forester of the Maryland Department of Forests and Parks.

Mr. Umbel urged interested persons to contact the ASCS Office or one of the local foresters.

Returns To States

Specialist 4 Charles Layman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Layman, of Bayard, W. Va., returned to the states on February 29 after a year of active duty in Vietnam. He is now stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va.

The nation's rioting death toll since Dr. Martin Luther King's death was 28.

Nine Charged With Vehicle Violations

Nine motor vehicle offenses were listed for the past week at the Oakland Trial Magistrate's office on Third street.

Carl Preston Harvey, Kitzmiller, pleaded not guilty to charges of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, and for failing to make an appropriate turn signal before making a right turn.

He was found guilty and fined $100 and costs on the first charge, and committed to jail until the fine is paid. On the second charge, a $25 fine and costs were suspended.

Roy Robert Shaffer, Corinth, W. Va., pleaded guilty to charges of operating a motor vehicle without a license and failing to keep right of center. He was fined $30 and costs on each charge.

John Alvin Carter, Jr., Oakland, pleaded not guilty and was found not guilty of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

Ernest Ray Martin, Oakland, pleaded not guilty but was found guilty of operating an unsafe vehicle, and was fined $20 and costs.

Homer Donald Cayton, Crellin, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs for failing to obtain a Maryland registration card and driver's license after establishing permanent residence.

Robert Ralph Ringer, Oakland, forfeited collateral of $15 and costs for exceeding 50 m.p.h.

Lloyd Turney, Oakland, forfeited collateral of $15 and costs for failing to reduce speed for hazardous conditions.

HALLELUJAH

Eddie was the smallest one in the choir today. He stood at the end of the front row, stretched tall as he could, and sang with his whole heart.

I looked up at his round freckled boy-face and wondered what he was thinking as the Easter anthem rose in crescendo and blessed the April air. Were his thoughts on chocolate bunnies and rainbow-colored eggs, or on the stirring story he was singing — "He is not here, but is risen"?

Of one thing I am certain. When he is grown and thinks of Eastertime back home, it won't be the candy eggs and Easter baskets he'll remember; but the smell of lilies at the chancel rail, the joy of joining his voice to a Hallelujah chorus.

Give your child a lifetime gift. Celebrate special Sundays and every Sunday by going to your church and taking him with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
. . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read you Bible daily.

VIVIT! VIVIT!

Lesson for April 14, 1968

Background Scripture: John 20 and 21.
Devotional Reading: I Corinthians 15:51-58.

When accumulating troubles seemed to rise up on all sides, Martin Luther was once seen to write with his finger in the dust of a table-top: VIVIT, VIVIT — "He lives! He lives!"

Just as Luther found strength in that thought in the midst of his troubles, so may we. Let our troubles be enumerated before us and we can reply in litany-like fashion:

Rev. Althouse

Though life seems ready to overwhelm me,
He lives! He lives!
Though friends prove fickle and disloyal,
He lives! He lives!
Though defeat stares me in the face,
He lives! He lives!

A fact for me

There is no trial, no temptation, no problem, no danger, no defeat, no pain, no sin so great that it can stand in defiance before that overpowering reality: He lives!

The resurrection of Jesus stands, not as a happy ending for a gripping story, but as a fact that uproots and changes everything with which it comes into contact. German theologian Helmut Thielecke testifies: "At a single stroke it has altered my own life. For Jesus Christ is a living Lord with whom I may be linked at any moment, who now speaks to me and to whom I may speak . . ."

The Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah is dramatic and stirring music, but for the person who has experienced the reality of He lives! in his own heart and life, even that grand music seems a vast understatement. The experience exceeds our means to express it.

Beyond an empty tomb

Why is this all so important for me? Consider what might have resulted if Jesus had not been raised from the tomb; the disciples probably would have disbanded and gone home with broken hearts. The story of Jesus' death would be little more than the saga of one more martyr who lived, died, and is no more. Paul and others like him would hardly have risked their lives to carry the Good News throughout the Mediterranean world. There would likely be no Church of Jesus Christ and your local congregation would not exist. All of these are highly dependent upon one fact: He lives!

Yet, how did they come to this conclusion? To be sure, they found an empty tomb, but that was hardly conclusive. It merely gave them, perhaps, a ray of hope. Then too, there was the excited testimony of Mary Magdalene. She claimed to have spoken with the Master at the garden tomb. But there was a third reason and it was this that made all the difference: "... Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you'" (John 20:21).

To a living Lord

The body of Jesus might have been stolen from the tomb. Mary Magdalene may have been the victim of a hallucination. Now, however, they themselves were seeing him, experiencing his risen presence, communing with him, and receiving the inspriation and strength that only he could give.

Socrates was a great teacher who also died a martyr's death, yet who today seeks his presence in times of crisis and need? Ghandi was one of the finest men to have lived, yet who calls upon him in the event of sorrow or tragedy? These men are dead, gone from us.

The essence of Christianity, however, is not just that Jesus' great teachings still instruct us, or that his humble life inspires us, or that his brave demeanor in facing death is still a model for our own. These are all true, but the heart of the Good News is found in the fact that we are convinced that Jesus himself survived the ordeal of death, indeed conquered both death and sin, was found to be alive . . . and still is present as our living Lord today. VIVIT!

Army Youth Heads For Alaska

By Pvt. Stephen F. Wood

One place where most basic trainees at Ft. Bragg would not choose to be assigned is Ft. Richardson, Alaska; but an Olympic skiing hopeful now training at Fort Bragg, N. C., dreams about the state.

Private Robert F. Lohr, 20, of Oakland, is in his fifth week of basic training with Company D, 2nd Battalion, 1st Brigade.

He credits his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lohr, of 122 North 8th St., Oakland, with encouraging him to begin a sport that he hopes will carry him to the Winter Olympics in 1972.

Overall he has won 22 skiing championships in competition for state titles and he has finished second or third in 26 such competitions, since beginning competition eight years ago.

Pvt. Lohr enlisted in the Army last February to become a clerk, but he soon learned that Army ski teams are based at Ft. Richardson.

"To qualify for the next Olympics, I will have to begin training this summer, so I have to get to Alaska," he said.

"I failed to qualify for this year's Olympics held last month in France, but I'll make it next time".

To qualify for the Olympic preliminary trials in 1965, Pvt. Lohr had to win or place second in seven of the eight annual alpine skiing races sanctioned by the U. S. Eastern Amateur Ski Association.

He was asked by the Eastern Amateur Ski Association two years ago to compete in the year's circuit of alpine championship races held in the United States and in Europe.

He hopes his associate degree in business administration and his skiing experience will help land him a good job as a ski instructor after he leaves the Army, but right now he is concentrating on the next Olympics.

"If I get the chance to train and to compete regularly with the Army, I know I will be ready for the next Olympics."

Farm Bureau To Sponsor Constitution Meeting

A public meeting on the proposed Maryland constitution will be held at Northern High School Cafetorium, Wednesday, April 17, at 8:00 p. m. The meeting is being sponsored by Garrett County Farm Bureau, and the principal speaker will be William W. Grant, Garrett County's delegate to the Maryland Constitutional Convention. Mr. Grant will discuss the proposed constitution, and will attempt to answer questions relating to it.

SEEKS ASSIGNMENT IN ALASKA—Private Robert F. Lohr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lohr, of 122 N. 8th St., Oakland, hopes to further his skiing career by joining the Army's ski teams at Ft. Richardson, Alaska. Pvt. Lohr is currently undergoing basic combat training at Ft. Bragg, N. C. (U. S. Army photo by Pvt. Stephen F. Wood.)

Events Above The Mountain Top

Paul S. Frank Jr.

April 11 to 18

Today the sun will set at 6:52 p. m. It rose thirteen hours and six minutes earlier at 5:46 a. m. Daylight will continue to increase this week as next Thursday it will last seventeen minutes longer, since the sun rises at 5:36 a. m. and sets at 6:59 p. m. on that day.

There will be a full moon during the week, occurring sixteen minutes after midnight tomorrow night. For most of the week the moon will be waning. It will be found in the eastern sky rising at a later time each night. On Sunday the moon will be 223,000 miles from earth at its perigee or the closest point in its orbit around the earth.

This week we will be treated to a lunar eclipse on the night of April 12 to 13, tomorrow night. The eclipse will begin at 9:29 p. m. on Friday and end at 2:42 a. m. on Saturday. If the night is clear, we will see a copper colored moon while it is in the darkest part of the earth's shadow, the umbra. This is due to the fact that the earth's atmosphere scatters and diffuses sunlight into the earth's shadow.

The eclipse is caused by the passage of the moon into the earth's shadow. Eclipses occur about every six months when the moon, earth and sun are in line. Eclipses do not occur every month because the moon's orbit is tilted or inclined to the earth's orbit. They occur at regular intervals, however, because the moon's orbit revolves around the earth, but at a different rate than the moon.

As you watch the curved shadow of the earth advance across the face of the moon, realize that this is evidence of the earth's shape. The fact that every eclipse reveals the same shadow proves the spherical shape of the earth since only a sphere has the same shadow when viewed from every side.

The planets Saturn and Mercury are too close to the sun, as viewed from earth, to be seen. Venus can be seen for a few minutes before sunrise in the constellation of Pisces, the Fishes. Jupiter is found in Leo, the Lion, high in the eastern sky shortly after sunset. Mars is visible only a short time in the west after sunset. It is in Aries, the Ram.

In the planetarium this week the fifth, sixth and seventh grades from Kitzmiller will be studying satellites and the NASA display "Progress in Space." The Oak Street kindergarten will visit to study the cause of day and night.

Offending Mail Can Be Stopped

Mail patrons offended by pandering advertisements may now take steps to curb such mail, Postmaster Guy Wm. Hinebaugh said today in announcing plans for administering a new law which gives each family the right to decide that an ad is "erotically arousing or sexually provacative".

When an advertisement sent through the mails is offensive on these grounds, a postal patron can now ask the post office to direct the mailer to send no more mail to him and to remove immediately the patron's name from all mailing lists he owns, controls or rents.

To assist patrons, the Post Office Department has published a brief pamphlet—How You Can Curb Pandering Advertisements—which is now available at the Oakland post office.

The pamphlet explains that when a patron receives an advertisement which is, in his opinion, pandering, he must send the ad, its envelope and the form letter, or one which includes its language, to his post office with the words, "Request for prohibitory order" on the face of the envelope.

"Last year the Post Office Department received some 140,000 complaints from those offended by pandering advertisements.

While the patron's complaint will only be directed to the sender, Postmaster Hinebaugh believes that one or two complaints will provide substanital protection because "the great bulk of this advertising comes from fewer than 20 so-called 'smut dealers' who are frequently swapping mailing lists".

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. David G. Dixon of Friendsville announce the engagement of their daughter, Lynette Elaine, to John Douglas Buddle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Buddle, Jr., of Rockville.

Miss Dixon is a graduate of Northern High School and Catherman's Business School. She is presently employed at the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Buddle was graduated from Wheaton High School and has served four years with the U. S. Navy. He is employed at the U. S. Naval Oceanographic Office in Suitland.

A late fall wedding is being planned.

Fire Auxiliary of Grantsville Dines

The annual banquet of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Grantsville fire department was held Monday evening, April 8, at Bittinger and served by ladies of the Bittinger center.

A history of the auxiliary for the previous year was given by Mrs. Emmons Warnick. Miss Evelyn Kinsinger, R. N., was the speaker. Mrs. Lee Beachy presided.

Miss Kinsinger returned recently from her third 3-year period in Brazil where she served the 25 families of a meat packing company and assisted the Mennonite Mission board. She spoke about the life, homes and country in Brazil and assistance being given the people by the Americans. She also showed colored slides.

Guests included Miss Thelma Beachy, Mrs. Robert Speicher, Mrs. Roy Gearhart, Mrs. Dennis Carver, Mrs. Ruby Evans, Grantsville; and Mrs. Lawrence Wells, Ramona, Calif. Mrs. Evans became a new member. The May 6 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Edwards with Mrs. Harley McKenzie, Sr., as co-hostess.

The last thing you'll do on earth is create a debt for someone else to pay. Could your family afford the doctor and hospital bills, funeral expenses, attorney's fees, court costs and current bills? Or would the money have to come from the insurance you had figured would pay off the mortgage? Or from the kids' education fund? A Woodmen of the World "Cleanup Fund" is a far better answer; a life insurance plan for the special purpose of paying your final expenses. Call today. A CHILD WILL SWALLOW NEARLY EVERYTHING

Taste is unimportant. Children have swallowed lye, gasoline, ammonia, ant poison, bleach, lighter fuel, worm medicine, deodorants, shampoo, alcohol, paint, fertilizer, plant foods, glues, cements and every type of medicine.

Underestimating the risk is the real cause of child poisoning. Adults must protect them by keeping every danger safely out of their reach and access. Give the children a break. It is up to all adults to make it impossible for children to touch anything dangerous.

Sermonette By Area Ministers

Rev. Eldon Shingleton

In this most holy season we are aware of man's seeming inclination to choose the low road. Life's interest is intensified by the coming and going of happy experiences and trying experiencing. Just when we begin to think that things are going to be better then something happens to put humility into the situation.

Can't we imagine how exuberant and enthused the people of Jerusalem must have felt at Jesus' triumphant entry into the city. Then that excitement was to fade away into the sadness of Passion week and the blackness of the crucifixion. Of course as we look back upon the event it is obvious that the people were acting foolishly with false hope, but they didn't know it. In the crucial moment of their making of history they were sincere in their actions with great high hopes that the situation was about to be greatly improved for them. They had no way of knowing that their great hopes of deliverance would be spurned centuries later. We even have a tendency to condemn them for not knowing the time of their visitation. But they were inside the situation and did not know that doom lay around the corner.

Today we are on the inside track of the history machine. I dare say that people of the future will look back upon our present generation with contempt. Indeed it can be said that the humble servant of Galilee's reconciliatory purpose appears far removed from us. Shame on us! Here we are plummaging through life seeking to be served rather than seeking to be of service like our Master taught us. Of course we're not mean but for some crazy reason our world keeps getting tangled up in mean circumstances.

I sumbit to you today that the way of life our Master taught is that of humility and penitence. Our great hope is for persons to individually humiliate themselves and attempt to make other people appear to be the good guys. Were this to happen we would have a dynamic force of good in our communities. Then everybody would have his very own public relations expert right in his own back yard. The great high priest of Calvary suffered and died that through him God's great desire to reconcile men to each other might be accomplished. Our wonderful opportunity is to be in that very position ourselves where we can be an agent in the reconciliation of men to men.

In this holy season it is my hope that the peoples of our communities will go to the Lord's house and there in the presence of our fellows confess our sins and pray forgiveness. There certainly is a lot to be sorry about, but there is even more to be happy about and hope for. Our greatest hope is that we might bring peace to another person and therefore find peace for ourselves. Come, let us devote ourselves in love and concern for each other so that the tragedy of the crucifixion can indeed be resurrected into new life and brotherhood amongst men.

A replacement for the Silver Bridge, Pt. Pleasant, Ohio, is scheduled for completion by September 1969.

IN MEMORIAM

FRAZEE—In memory of our daughter and sister, Anna Lynne Frazee, who passed away April 9th, 1961.

Few have seen our sorrows,
Few have seen us weep,
We shed our tears at midnight,
When the world is fast asleep.
With the Saviour, she is waiting,
In the upper garden fair,
She is watching for our coming,
There shall be no parting there.

So sadly missed by her parents, Dale and Renelda Frazee and children.
—Adv. 6-1t.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank our many relatives, friends, and neighbors who were so comforting during the illness and following the loss of my dear husband, Harry (Sonny) Guest.

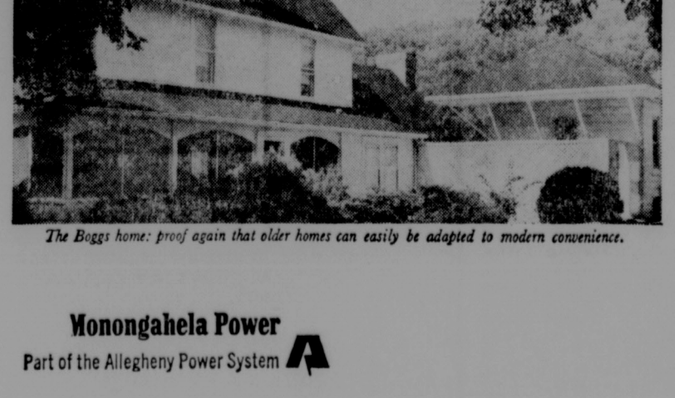
They Remodeled . . . And Went TOTAL ELECTRIC
Their Monthly Electric Bill: $24



Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boggs remodeled their Sutton home in 1964 and in the process installed electric heat. Their total electric bills in 1967 averaged out to $24 a month . . . and that was for ALL electricity used in their seven-room house.

Besides their baseboard heating system they have most of the modern electric appliances—range, washer, dryer, water heater, garbage disposer, No-Frost refrigerator, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Boggs are retired—he from the B & O Railroad and Mrs. Boggs from the Ben Franklin Company. That doesn't mean they're alone! Five grandchildren keep the place humming, and Mrs. Boggs will testify that their 40-gallon electric water heater has never failed to meet the demands.

The feature of electric heating she likes most is the cleanliness. "Just not having to dust everyday is reason enough to have electric heat," she says. And as for the cost: "We are completely satisfied."

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Boggs remodeled their home in Sutton in 1964 and went Total-Electric. They are quite enthusiastic about the heating system. The Boggs agree, "With electric heat, the entire house is warm and comfortable."

The Boggs home: proof again that older homes can easily be adapted to modern convenience.

Oakland Couple Mark 50th Event

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas W. Sines of Davis addition, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, March 31 in the form of an open house reception given by two of their daughters, Mrs. Mary Lewis and Mrs. Emma Sorge. Another daughter Faye G. Payne, was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sines were married March 27, 1918, in Oakland by the Rev. Phineas Snyder. They have lived in Oakland most of their married life and are the parents of four children, Mrs. Mary Lewis, Crellin; Mrs. Emma Sorge, Grafton, W. Va.; Mrs. Faye G. Payne of Arlington, Va., and one son Chester R. Sines, who died last May 14. They also have 14 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren and 2 step-grandchildren.

Mr. Sines is a retired coal miner and Mrs. Sines still does most of her own house work.

Color schemes of gold, green and white were carried out for the occassion through the dining area.

Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Mary Lewis and Mrs. Mary Ashby. Serving the punch was Mrs. Emma Sorge. Mrs. Janet Sorge registered the guests.

Friends and relatives calling included Mrs. Edith Friend, Mrs. Dora Yost, Mrs. Jean Reckart, Mrs. Eva Kight, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mayle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shaffer and Sandy, Mrs. Ruth Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mayle, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mayle, Mr. and Mrs. Artenis Sines, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Naylor, Mrs. Rose Sines, Mrs. Luke Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ashby, Donna and Cynthia, Mr. and Mrs. George Kight, Mrs. Shirley Stottlemeyer, Paul Rishell, Carolyn Mayle, Paul Mellott, Mrs. Mary Lewis and Larry Lewis all of Oakland.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Sorge, Milford, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sines, Cresaptown; Mr. and Mrs. Emra Shaffer, Mrs. Lola Shaffer and Mrs. Ann Johnson and daughter of Terra Alta; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Metheny, Frederick; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sorge, Leon and Kathy, Grafton, W. Va.; Bob Biggs, Swanton; Miss Helen Mayle, Piedmont, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Milton DeWitt, Debbie and Miltie, Sang Run; Mrs. Howard Hinebaugh and Tarla, Shinnston, W. Va.

Monte Vista Sr. 4-H Meet

The Monte Vista Senior 4-H Club held its meeting at the home of Carol Bergstrom. The club tour, community projects and club Sunday were discussed.

Demonstrations were given by Jane Gibson on seam finishes; Regina Sanders on bound buttonholes; Pam Frantz on selection of meat; and Debby DeWitt on a well-rounded wardrobe.

The meeting was adjourned for recreation and refreshments.

Completes Basic

Pvt. Marvin Glotfelty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glotfelty, of Grantsville, has completed basic training at Fort Bragg, N. C. Glotfelty qualified as an expert with the M-14 rifle and was promoted to E-2 upon graduation.

Pvt. Glotfelty is now undergoing advanced infantry training at Fort Dix, N. J.

Receives Master's

Mrs. Gladys W. Faherty, Frostburg, has received her master's degree in library science from the University of North Carolina. While there she was elected to Beta Phi Mu, honorary library science fraternity. Presently she is librarian at Mt. Savage School and St. Paul's Lutheran church, Frostburg. She is the wife of William J. Faherty, teacher at Allegany High school; and a daughter of Floyd L. Wensel, Oakland.

She is a member of the American Library association and Association of School Librarians of Maryland. Mrs. Faherty's graduate studies were financed by a grant from the state of Maryland and scholarships from Delta Kappa Gamma teaching society, the Association of School Librarians of Maryland and the Maryland Council of Student Library clubs.

13 Are Killed On State Highways

Thirteen persons were killed on Maryland highways last week, according to the survey published by the State Police. Nine of those killed were drivers, three were passengers, and one was a pedestrian. Alcohol was a contributing factor in three of the deaths, speed in nine, and "driver error" in thirteen.

"Speed was undoubtedly the major contributing factor in fatal accidents on Maryland highways last week," moted Lt. Col. George E. Davidson, Chief of Operations of the State Police. "In fact, it was a factor in just about 70 percent of the cases.

"Driving at speeds which are excessive for existing conditions is a well-established safety hazard. A speed which may be reasonable and safe at one time may not be so at another time. This demands responsible judgment on the part of the individual operator; and he would do well, for his own safety and the safety of others, to slow down his car even though he may be traveling under the posted speed limit."

Fegistration For Kindergarten Set

Registration for next year's kindergarten group will be held at the St. Peter's School Building, Oak Street, Oakland, Friday, April 19, from 11:00 a m. to 3:00 p. m., it was announced by Willard L. Hawkins, County Superintendent of Schools. The school accommodates 100 kindergarten pupils on a first come, first served basis. The only cost or obligation to parents is to come for their children at noon. Morning transportation is provided on the regular school buses. This school serves the same area that is served by Southern High School and children from outlying areas such as Swanton, Crellin, and Red House are encouraged to enroll.

The Oakland kindergarten school is completing its first year under the new State law providing half day kindergarten programs at public expense. A kindergarten program operates at Kitzmiller and plans are being made to open kindergartens at Bloomington and Route 40 next year. Building needs must be provided at Grantsville, Friendsville, and Accident to complete the program for the entire county.

All children entering kindergarten must be vaccinated and parents should bring birth certificates at the time of registration. Children must be at least five years of age by January 1, 1969 to be eligible to enroll.

3 Marines Meet In South Vietnam

Three area Marines, all 1966 graduates of Southern High School met recently in Vietnam. The three young men, Cpl. William L. Evans, Kitzmiller; Cpl. Roger L. Smith, Crellin, and Lance Cpl. Allen R. Friend, Swallow Falls, held a reunion on Marble Mountain near Da Nang.

Lance Cpl. Friend had located Cpl. Smith in the area and the two were met by Cpl. Evans, who had seen Lance Cpl. Friend's picture in The Republican a few weeks ago.

Cpl. Evans is with 2/9 "H" Co. at Camp Carroll, South Vietnam. He is presently a fire-team leader and has been overseas for over seven months.

Cpl. Smith is with HMM-265 M.A.G.-16 at Da Nang. He is presently a crew chief of a CH-46 rescue helicopter.

Lance Cpl. Friend of VMA-242, M.A.G. 11, Da Nang, is presently a communication, navigation, electronic technician of the A6-A Intruder, an all-weather attack bomber.

LBJ ordered 1,900 U. S. troops to Balto., to quell rioting.

Persons Failing To File Claims For Medicare

Although medicare has been in effect for over a year and a half, there are indications that some people may not be filing claims for medical insurance payments because of lack of knowledge of the method for filing.

According to Edward G. Phelps, District Manager at the Cumberland Social Security Office, some individuals had incurred the $50 medical deductible early last year but have not yet claimed reimbursement for 80 percent of the reasonable charges for physicians' services and medical supplies in excess of the deductible.

Also there are others who do not understand that medical expenses incurred in the last calendar quarter of a year can, in some cases, count toward meeting the $50 deductible for the following year. Individuals who need help in filing a medical insurance claim may get in touch with the social security office or a social security representative when he visits this area.

A representative will be at the National Guard Armory in Oakland every Tuesday between 10:00 a. m. and 12 noon.

Homemaker Dates Listed For Week

Mrs. Freda Denison, extension agent, will continue to present the April topic at the homemaker club meetings during the ensuing week. The subject is "What to Keep and Where".

She listed the following meetings.

April 15, 8 p. m., Mt. View club, home of Mrs. Donald Failinger.

April 17, 7:30 p. m., Accident club, at Accident fire hall.

April 18, 1 p. m., Swallow Falls club, at Baptist church basement.

April 19, 1:30 p. m., White Church club, home of Mrs. Larry Tichnell.

The County Council of Extension homemakers will meet April 16, at the Bittinger Community building at 1 p. m. Club presidents and representatives are expected. Plans for county fair activities will be a scheduled topic.

Fashion Looks For 1968

There is no one look, no one length for fashions for 1968, Mrs. Denison points out this week. The over-all mood is femininity and prettiness, she says, with two points of interest, the skirt length and the waistline.

The mini skirt, on the way out, will still be seen in many versions for spring, summer and late fall. The midi (mid-calf length) will be seen in special occasion coats, casual skirts with ruffled blouses, after five dresses and at home wear; the maxi (ankle length) for special occasions; the mid-knee of just touching the knee, is length chosen by majority.

Fashion industry and designers say "every" woman should have a wardrobe of skirt length to fit her activities — no longer do we say a dress is X number inches from the floor.

Skirts are drindled and gathered, shaped and flaring and swinging pleats softening the silhouettes. The returning waistline is emphasized by belts, wide or shaped. The chain belt has a new look, is made of silver with ornamented tassels. The waistline is shaped with darts and curvy seams or top stitched for emphasis. All features point to the return of the romatic look.

Service Visit Scheduled

Maryland Insurance Commissioner Newton I. Steers, Jr., has announced that a member of the State Insurance Department's Advisory Service will once again visit the Western Maryland area on Tuesday, April 16, from 9:00 a. m. until 1:00 p. m., in the Council Chamber of City Hall, 2nd floor, Cumberland.

The Advisory Service visits Cumberland on the third Tuesday of every month, in order to provide more convenient assistance to citizens of Garrett and Allegany Counties.

Government flags were flown at half-mast due to Dr. King's death.

Work . . .

The Republican office receives a monthly pamphlet called "The Imperial Magazine", which contains many wise and prudent sayings by the editor, William Feather.

A particularly appropriate one on "Work" appeared in the April issue. It declared:

"Mankind will be in a sorry way when men look for satisfaction outside their work instead of in their daily task. It's a low form of happiness that is pursued after working hours. Without joy in work, life is dull.

"Dreaming of a world in which there will be no alarm clocks may be a diverting mental exercise, but no one really wants such a world. We will always seek opportunities to demonstrate our courage, skill and creative ability. Nothing can quench our desire for self-expression.

"Immanuel Kant, the great philosopher, long ago contemplated the human race and concluded that nature goads man into activity. 'Many', he says, 'long live in comfort and pleasure, but nature, who knows better what he was made for, gives him toil and painful strife so that he may raise himself above the sphere of his sorrows'.

"A young man seeking happiness should try to find a job that will tap his uttermost resources. A soft job may bring an equal income, but it will produce no inner satisfaction.

"We were made to work and we'll always work, for we can't be happy otherwise".

Daylight Time Is Effective April 28

Residents of Garrett County will automatically turn their clocks ahead one hour early Sunday morning, April 28, and move to Daylight Saving Time.

In previous years definite action was needed by mayors and councils of various cities or by the County Commissioners before becoming effective, but a national ruling last year made this unnecessary.

Clocks are turned ahead automatically on the last Sunday in April, unless state legislatures take other action. Daylight saving time will continue in effect until the last Sunday in October.

Phone Co. Laying Submarine Cable

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company was engaged this week in laying two submarine cables across Deep Creek Lake, at the site of the Deep Creek bridge on U. S. 219, and Glendale bridge.

Cables at present were mounted on the bridges themselves. The new cables are being moved into position on floating barrels and when in place, will be dropped to the bottom of the lake, after which a diver will descend to check their position. The cables are in steel armor to prevent damage to the lines.

The work was scheduled for yesterday and today and is in charge of Taft Oursler. The submarine cables are the fourth and fifth in the area. The cables were brought to the site on reels weighing six tons each.

Traffic Group Elects Officers

Members of the Garrett County Traffic Safety committee elected officers at a dinner meeting at Cornish Manor, Oakland, last evening. Robert R. Martin served as temporary chairman.

Elected were William Watson, chairman and treasurer. Mr. Watson will replace Mr. Martin in the county school system as transportation supervisor. Mr. Martin has accepted a position with the school system of Allegany county.

Others named were Charles Price, Bloomington, vice-chairman; Mrs. Eugene Baumgartner, Oakland, secretary. Also attending were Charles C. Bender, Donald Prichard, Grantsville; Rodger W. Bond, McHenry; H. B. Buckley, Oakland.

Lynn Walker, Cumberland, supervisor of traffic safety for five Western Maryland counties, explained the program in detail to the group. In addition to the program Mr. Walker suggested other points for the local committee to work on which included voluntary auto inspection, bumper stickers, reflector stickers for car doors, sponsoring of defensive driving classes, getting other clubs and organizations to participate, enlist aid of teenagers to bring the problem before the public and to form a teen club to push the project, have representatives from all sections of the county to participate and present facts to the legislators, and to enlist women in the program.

Governor Signs Eight Local Bills Into Law

Eight of the measures which the county's House of Delegates member Benj. O. Aiken, guided through the state legislature this year were signed into law on April 10 by Governor Spiro T. Agnew, it was learned this week.

The measures signed by the governor included:

House bill 398, concerning inauguration of a county merit system.

House bills 594, 595 and 596 relating to changes in the court system as recommended by the County Bar association; one eliminating the non-jury terms; one providing 10 cents a mile for citizens serving on juries and $10 per day payment; and one on the pay raise of the bailiff.

House bill 1170, concerning raise in allowance for expenses of office of state's attorney, also recommended by the bar association.

House bill 1219, providing for a court stenographer.

House bill 1267 concerning teacher salaries, proving a minimum but no ceiling.

House bill 1268 raising the salary of the deputy treasurer, also recommended by the bar association.

Four other measures were passed by the legislature but have not yet been signed by the governor. One was a supplementary salary for judges of $2,500, pushed jointly by the House of Delegates members from Allegany, Washington and Garrett counties.

The other three were house bill 399, authorizing the commissioners to borrow money for the community college; house bill 593, repealing obsolete provisions concerning the circuit court; and house bill 795, concerning changes in the Alcoholic beverage regulations.

County Literature Widely Distributed

An estimated 17,260 pieces of county literature were distributed during the month of March, according to the monthly newsletter from the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council. The information appeared at gravel shows in Laurel, Cleveland and Washington.

Some ten thousand four-season brochures were distributed in the four spots of Cleveland, Washington, Laurel and state office with some 1,700 vacation guides, 60 maps, and some 5,500 post cards, brochures and match books. Some 2,000 new vacation guides will be mailed to the state offices next week.

Lynn Beckman, executive director, said some 52,000 people attended the Laurel Raceway event, giving him the opportunity to promote campsite possibilities as well as fishing, hunting, boating, skiing and other local sports. People were able to see slides of the area.

The information booth at Deep Creek Lake will be open for week-end business the first Saturday in May. It will be staffed this summer by Sue Sharps and Jane Gibson.

The council is backing the Isaac Walton league in a federal fish hatchery on Savage river.

Cigaret Tax For Quarter Released

Cigaret tax distribution to political subdivisions of Maryland was made for the third quarter of fiscal 1968 by Louis L. Goldstein, comptroller of Maryland. As guaranteed by law Baltimore city received an additional amount of $169,832.05.

The breakdown for the counties showed $17,761.80 received by Garrett County for the third quarter, which made a total of $57,189.07 for the first three quarters. The other two quarters showed totals of $19,954.30 for the first, and $19,472.97 for the second.

The county stood 17th in total amounts in the counties, with Calvert, Caroline, Kent, Queen Anne, Somerset and Talbot counties having smaller totals for the three quarter periods. Baltimore county showed the highest figure with $1,388,979.68 for the three quarters.

Directed Verdict Favors Plaintiffs

A jury trial over an automobile accident in 1964 conducted in the Garrett County Circuit Court last Thursday in which plaintiffs sought damages of $50,000, resulted in a verdict for the plaintiffs for a total of $6,475.01.

Curtis Paul Liston and his wife, and the former as father of Wesley Liston, had sued Francis Howard Deremer and Randi Deremer, infant, of Corriganville. The husband had sued for $40,000 for injuries to himself, loss of his motor vehicle and loss of services of his wife. The second count asked for $5,000 for his wife and the third count sought $5,000 for the son.

The accident occurred July 12, 1964, on the Oakland - Sang Run highway, about a mile from Oakland. The Deremer car struck the left front of the plaintiff's car.

A motion by the plaintiff's attorney, Jack R. Turney, asked for a directed verdict in favor of the plaintiffs because defendant did not have vehicle under control and showing responsibility for the collision. The directed verdict was granted by Associate Judge S. F. Hamill, while at the same time denying a motion for a directed verdict in favor of the defendants. This motion claimed the evidence was not sufficient to entitle plantiffs to recover.

The jury granted one cent damages in regard to Wesley Liston; $6,000 in regard to Curtis Liston, and $475 in regard to Mrs. Martha Liston, his wife.

Trial Magistrate Hears Two Cases

Only two names were listed on the criminal docket for the past week at the office of Oakland Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney.

Joseph M. Dennis was charged by Game Warden Leo Friend with attempting to fish without a license. Dennis forfeited collateral of $20 and costs.

In a second trial held April 16, Elizabeth Nicklow charged her husband, Walter Nicklow, with assault upon herself at Friendsville on April 14. To this charge, Mr. Nicklow entered a plea of not guilty.

At the same trial, John Devine brought a charge of assault and battery against Mr. Nicklow. Nicklow pleaded guilty to this charge. After testimony was heard from the three parties involved, and also from Mrs. Nicklow's son, Magistrate Maroney sentenced Nicklow to 30 days in the county jail on the assault charge, and fined him $25 and costs on the assault and battery charge.

The 30-day sentence was suspended on the condition that Nicklow leave his wife and her son alone and treat them with respect.

H. W. Crawford Tried April 15 on 2 Separate Charges

In a trial held April 15, in Oakland, Harold Walter Crawford, Klondike, was found guilty on two of three counts of burglary and on one charge of carnal knowledge.

He pleaded not guilty to having stolen items from the home of Mrs. Nellie Rosenberger, Finzel, and also pleaded not guilty on the second charge.

However, he was found guilty by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, who withheld sentence pending a pre-sentence investigation by the Department of Parole and Probation.

Appeal Heard

An appeal from a decision of the county Liquor Control Board to revoke the license of Donald Drees, for violation of the liquor laws was heard Tuesday morning before Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill.

Drees had his license revoked for a two year period following a hearing on March 15, by the board, and he filed an appeal.

Judge Hamill, after hearing testimony in the case, reduced the revocation to a one year suspension. According to Court House officials this would permit Mr. Drees to lease his business to some other individual.

Two Fugitives From Maine Are Picked Up Here

Two residents of Portland, Maine, were apprehended by state police in the Pleasant Valley area over the week-end and held for Maine authorities on charges of aggravated assault.

They were identified as Ellery Thomas Maynard, 28, and Merlin Freemont Marshall, 26. They were charged with assault upon Joseph Wood, in that city.

At a hearing Tuesday morning before Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill they waived extradition and were to be returned to Maine as soon as authorities there could send for them.

Information concerning the activities of the men had been received over state police teletype and the arrests were made by Trooper first class Ronnie S. Lewis.

County authorities said the men and two women had appeared in the county about two weeks ago and had rented the former Uphold farm in Pleasant Valley. The men were placed in the county jail to await arrival of Maine authorities. All four had come to the county in a somewhat dilaplidated automobile and Tuesday morning the two women, who were not wanted by authorities, left Oakland for the return trip to Portland.

Another Held

Homer Lyle Jobes, who was listed as an escapee from the Marshall county jail at Moundsville, W. Va., was arrested Saturday by June Evans, deputy sheriff, in Loch Lynn Heights, and is being held in the county jail, awaiting appearance of West Virginia authorities.

He was being held technically on a motor vehicle violation.

Area Man Killed

David Faidley, 28, formerly of Grantsville, was fatally injured in a farm tractor accident last Wednesday, April 10, at Woodbine.

Faidley was operating a farm tractor which was pulling a 400-pound tank sprayer across a steep incline. The sprayer struck a tree forcing the tractor down the steep incline, according to Westminster state police, who said Faidley was trying to turn the tractor away from a swampy area at the bottom of the incline, when the tractor overturned on him. The left rear fender of the tractor crushed him. He was pronounced dead on arrival at the Carroll County General hospital.

He was a son of Carl and Audra Myers Faidley of the Grantsville area. He is survived also by his wife, Gloria Jean Faidley; two children, David W. Jr. and Gloria Jean, both at home; and a brother, Leon Faidley of Grantsville.

The body was taken to the Waltz Funeral home in Winfield, and funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Woodbine Lutheran church. Burial was in Morgan chapel cemetery.

National Guard Is Back from Balto.

National Guard units from Oakland, Frostburg and Cumberland returned Sunday from riot control duty in Baltimore.

The two units, Company B of Cumberland, commanded by Capt. William B. Wood, Frostburg, had 120 men on duty. Company C, made up of two units from Oakland and Frostburg, commanded by Capt. Mahlon Yost, of Oakland, numbered 139 men. Both are companies of the 121st Engineers.

All of Maryland's National Guard units were on duty during the rioting, looting and burning in Baltimore.

Western Maryland units left the area around midnight Saturday, April 6, in motor convoy and returned Sunday before noon.

In Baltimore they were each assigned to a particular sector of the city with some of the men on standby or reserve duty. Street patrols were established for curfew enforcement and to prevent looting.

Dr. F. D. Custer and Mrs. Clayton White, county laboratory technician, attended a meeting at the College Park laboratory on April 1 to discuss progress in the abnormal milk program.

Good Work, Men

Kim Frederick Wins Oratorical Contest

Speaking on the "Golden Opportunity of Youth", Kim Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Frederick, Mt. Lake Park, won the Oakland Optimist Club Oratorical Contest, held last Thursday.

He competed with two other boys, Jim Jones, son of Mrs. Madelyn Jones, Route 1, Oakland, and Bill Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Friend, Sang Run.

As winner of the local contest, Kim will go to the Optimist Club's Zone contest at the Shrine Club in Cumberland, April 24. The winner of the Zone Contest will then go to the District Convention Contest at Atlantic City, N. J., May 16-19.

The judges for the Oakland contest were Mrs. Paul Hoye, Mrs. Robert T. Hoffman, and Gilman Sylvester. Bill Renshaw was timekeeper.

Labor Survey Has 5,648 Responses

Charles Briner, manager of the Department of Employment Security office in Oakland, said late Wednesday that a total of 5,648 responses have been received thus far in a labor survey of Garrett County.

The survey was initiated when a representative from an industrial plant location firm from New York City contacted Oakland to look for a possible site to build a plant. He requested the survey and said if it were satisfactory he would return and release information as to what company is considering building in the county.

Included in the total were replies from 1,796 females and 3,879 males. The plant would be capable of hiring up to 500 women and 200 men. Approximately 250 responses were from former county residents who said they would return if they could obtain work in the county. The majority of the replies were within a 25-mile radius of Oakland.

One of the questions on the survey cards asked for an opinion on establishing a plant. Mr. Briner said the response in favor of the project has been "overwhelming".

The survey was conducted by the employment office, the Garrett County Development Corporation and the two power companies.

Any persons who did not receive a survey card in the mail may call the Community Action Agency for aid in registering, according to G. Bradford Rinard, executive director.

Band Boosters Plan Two Sale Events

Southern High school Band Boosters are planning two sale events in the near future.

They are having a bake sale at Browning Foodland Friday, April 19, with proceeds to help defray the cost of the new uniforms for the junior band.

They are planning an auction sale for Saturday, May 25 with the time and place to be announced. Proceeds from this sale also will be used for the junior band uniforms.

Persons having articles of any kind to contribute may call Mrs. Glenn A. Simpson or Mrs. Randall McCartney and arrangements will be made to pick up the items.

By Carol Canan

Despite Negro taunts such as, "Go Home, white boy scout", and other less printable remarks, the men in Oakland's National Guard, Company C, followed their orders to the letter when they helped control Baltimore's recent siege of looting, rioting, and burning.

According to Capt. Mahlon Yost, some 120 enlisted men and five officers from the Oakland-Frostburg area arrived in Baltimore about 1 p. m. Sunday afternoon, with orders to "prevent looting and rioting and restore order".

Their first assignment was to patrol Pennsylvania avenue, one of the hardest hit areas during the Saturday disorder. The men were equipped with M-1 rifles and ammunition, but had instructions not to shoot unless ordered to do so by an officer, or in self-defense.

The men were removed from that patrol about 7:30 Sunday evening and sent to Orleans Avenue, in the vicinity of looted and burning Gay street. There the soldiers were to enforce the 7 p. m. curfew and apprehend looters. Several persons were caught, with the police being called in to make actual arrests.

Capt. Yost revealed that for him, the most tense moment of the assignment came when a patrol, under orders to stop and search all unauthorized vehicles abroad after curfew, came across a loaded .38 pistol in a car. The man in possession of the weapon was hustled off to jail but not before some worried moments for the guardsmen.

Home away from home for the men was a "tent city", set up first in Carroll Park, later in Patterson Park, and then back in Carroll. Company cooks as-

Four Will Attend Safety Conference

Four Garrett County high school students will attend the Governor's Safety Conference to be held in Baltimore on Wednesday, May 8.

John White and Don Tucker from Southern, and Debbie Bender and Neil Giconi from Northern will represent the county at the conference in the Civic Center.

The theme for the conference will be Traffic Safety for Teenagers. Governor Agnew is expected to attend. According to Robert Martin, Supervisor of Transportation of Garrett County Schools, the local sponsor for the group is the Garrett County Traffic Safety Committee which is in turn sponsored by the Maryland Traffic Safety Council.

The Garrett County youth will join other students from this part of the state in the chartered bus trip leaving from Frostburg.

Sewage Plant Problem Up For New Answers

New Offer For Construction Given By Health Department

A new offer for construction of a sewage disposal facility for the three mountain top communities, Oakland, Mt. Lake Park and Loch Lynn Heights, has been indicated by the State Department of Health, with funds from Appalachia and the state taking care of the basic cost of construction.

The Mayor and Town Council of Oakland held a special meeting Monday night to discuss the new plan, and another meeting with the State Health department has been set for next week to see whether or not details could be worked out satisfactory to all.

Basic objections of the town of Oakland would be eliminated in the new agreement that is now being worked out, with the health department apparently agreeing with the town.

Any sewage from the Mt. Lake and Loch Lynn areas would be taken around the town of Oakland and not through it, according to the latest word, with the health department agreeing to pick up the sewage from the "Dead Pond" in its trip around the town. Another objection about the size of the plant also would be absolved.

All this new activity has come about since the appeals court last week upheld Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill's decree which gave Oakland the right to install its own treatment plant and disassociate itself from the Sanitary commission in any plant construction.

A review of the sewage treatment problem reveals that a sanitary district was formed in 1962. A feasibility study was made by the Chester Engineers for $1,750 after the County Commissioners had provided $5,000 as a loan toward eventual construction. A part of the fund was used for purchase of a plant site west of town.

The feasibility report in August, 1964 recommended construction of a single treatment facility of an activated sludge type. There was a subsequent discussion over costs and a request for more engineering information. A petition asked the County Commissioners to reject the activated sludge plan.

On May 2, 1966 representatives of the three towns heard a report of Griffith Engineers.

The State Department of Health said it would support only an action to acquire a single treatment plant. Articles of agreement were held valid with the Chester Engineers.

Finally an aerated lagoon system was recommended with the cost dropping to $575,000 from

The U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) is collecting a unique file of marketing surveys written by U.S. businesses. Each report explores a possible foreign investment and every one concludes that the outlook is unfavorable.

AID is paying money for these ill-fated studies. It does not pay for successful ones; just the duds.

C. W. Harder

From this, it might appear that anyone could make a profit by grinding out marketing surveys on dubious enterprises . . . like selling snowshoes in Algeria, or automobiles in Venice, or computers in Borneo.

* * *

However, the agency must approve the project before it starts and pays just half the expenses incurred if the enterprise is dropped, so apparently there is no chance for profit. At most, it provides an opportunity for cheap travel.

The agency was established a few years ago to promote investment of U. S. capital in underdeveloped countries. More than 80 companies have collected under the Investment Survey Program and 31 others have made investments. Pan American World Airways, for example, recouped $20,000 on a study of a luxury hotel in Tunisia.

This unusual technique of encouraging investment abroad is doubly interesting in view of the Administration's new efforts to improve the unfavorable balance in international trade. While asking that citizens refrain from overseas travel, the President also indicated steps will be taken to discourage or prohibit U.S. businessmen from making foreign investments.

Does foreign investment of U.S. money constitute a negative factor in the balance of payments, as the President implied? And if so, why have we been so avidly encouraging it?

The Administration's own Economic Report of 1967 stated: "Over the years, the outflow of U. S. capital has made a major contribution to world economic growth . . . U. S. foreign investment also has yielded handsome returns to American investors and substantial investment income receipts for the balance of payments . . . U. S. investments abroad generates not only a flow of investment income but also additional U. S. exports. From a balance-of-payments standpoint this is an additional dividend."

Does the captain of our Ship of State know which way the wind is blowing?

And under the newest policy, what is to become of AID? Old Bureaus never die and they seldom fade away. Perhaps the bureaucrats at AID may be able to save their jobs by launching even more vigorous programs to promote an increasing number of futile market surveys.

Your Federal Income Tax

The Republican, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, Baltimore District, will publish each week in this column, tax information that will enable taxpayers to become more familiar with the Federal income tax laws.

Questions And Answers

Q. What form do I use to report a profit on the sale of my home?

A. Profits on the sale of a home should be reported on Schedule D, "Gains and Losses From Sales or Exchanges of Property". Taxpayers who filed this schedule with their return last year should find it included with the 1040 tax package they received in the mail.

Copies of Schedule D are available at many banks and post offices as well as local offices of the IRS.

Q. I owe a couple of hundred dollars on my 1967 tax. Can I pay half of this when I file and the rest later?

A. No. The tax due must be paid in full when the return is filed.

Q. I drive to work every day and have several regular riders. Am I taxed on the money they give me to cover driving expenses?

A. Payments such as you describe do not have to be reported as income unless they exceed expenses.

Q. I am expecting a refund this year. Do I use the envelope that came in the 1040 package?

A. Yes. All returns calling for a refund should be sent to the IRS Service Center. Tax payers expecting refunds but who do not have an envelope addressed to the Service Center should check page 16 of the 1040 instructions.

Q. I read in the 1040 instructions that unemployment benefits paid by a company are taxable. Does that include state unemployment benefits too?

A. No. State unemployment benefits are not taxable and do not have to be reported.

Q. Can you claim someone as a dependent if he does not live with you?

A. A person does not have to be a member of your household to be eligible as a dependent as long as he or she is a close relative.

A parent, brother or sister, child or grandchild are among those that meet the legal definition of a close relation.

Q. Where can I hire someone to help me prepare my tax return?

A. Call your local accounting, legal or tax practitioner association. They should be able to make a recommendation.

Q. Are lump sum Social Security payments taxable?

A. No. All Social Security benefits are tax exempt.

Q. I made a mistake in filling out the pre-addressed Form 1040 I got in the mail. What should I do?

A. The label on your form may be peeled off and put on another Form 1040. Use of this label will help avoid mistakes or delays in processing your return since it contains the information needed to identiify your tax account.

Copies of tax forms are available at most banks and post offices as well as local offices of the IRS

Q. How does the retirement income credit work? Does it reduce your income or the tax you owe?

A. The retirement income credit is a credit against your income tax. Taxpayers qualified to claim this credit, can reduce their tax by up to 15 percent of their "retirement income". Use Schedule B, Form 1040, to claim this credit.

Further details on this credit are contained in the booklet, "Retirement Income and Credit", Document No. 5018, available at your local IRS offices.

Q. I still have not received one of my W-2's from a former employer. Can I file without it?

A. W-2 forms from all employers should be attached to your return to avoid delays in processing. Ask your former employer about it since he is required by law to give W-2 statements to his former employees within 30 days after the last payment of wages.

Q. I am itemizin my deductions. Should I send in my expense records when I file?

A. No, do not send in records with the return. If your return is selected for adudit, then you may be required to either send or bring them in.

Note that for some deductions or exclusions, schedules or supplementary forms must be filled in and attached to the Form 1040. Check your 1040 instructions carefully before you file.

Q. Does interest from a savings account have to be reported as income if it's under $10?

A. Yes, this interest income must be reported if you are required to file a return.

Q. How should I figure my deduction for state gas tax?

A. On page 9 of the 1040 instructions there is a table you can use. It is based on the state tax rate and the mileage driven.

Q. Are the dividends on GI life insurance taxable?

A. No they are not. Dividends on other insurance policies are not taxable either when they represent a return of premiums paid

Q. Are Social Security benefits ever taxable

A. No, they are not.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Wesley Paugh, Sr., who passed away 15 years ago, April 15.

A man lay sick and dying, but he did not complain. For in his heart he loved his God, for him our Lord was slain. The hand of God he held in peace, a smile upon his face. The joys of eternity were his, he'd won the race. His family standing near his side he tried so hard to say, "Goodbye, please meet me up with God," on that eternal day. His eyes were closed forever, his body now at rest, he left a living memory, we knew he'd done his best.

CAPITOL COMMENT

Charles "Mac" Mathias

Congressman, 6th District, Maryland

The Lessons Of Last Week

The news from Washington during the past week has been the news from all over the United States: the unhappy news of violence and disorder. Both Washington and Baltimore had been fortunate in the past in escaping the civil disturbances which have been so costly in lives, property and civic confidence in other American cities during the past several hot summers. But this time both Washington and Baltimore have suffered disorders whose costs are tragically high.

The violence of the past week was very different from the types of mass uprisings and riots with which the pages of history are filled. During the disorders, I was on the streets with the policemen, the firemen and the newsmen. At the height of the destruction, I saw no great crowds of rioters and burners, but rather small, roving bands of people who seemed to be causing most of the violence and starting most of the fires.

One of the encouraging sides of this unhappy story, and one of its most important aspects, is that most people did not participate. Most of the citizens of Baltimore and Washington were law-abiding and loyal and steadfast. Most people stayed home, obeyed the curfews, and cooperated with the authorities. It is from this central fact that we can all take great comfort and gain renewed confidence.

We can also take pride and new confidence from the performance of those who bore the responsibility for containing the destruction and restoring order. I would like to express my deep gratitude and respect for the firemen, whom I saw repeatedly risk their lives to save other men . . . for the police, whom I saw act with bravery and restraint in capturing desperate men who bore deadly arms . . . for the troops whom I saw operating in efficient and professional ways amidst the chaos and the litter . . . and for the churchmen and citizens whom I saw helping in a hundred ways in the police stations, in the hospitals, in emergency wards and in the streets. Finally, I want to say a word for the meek, the young and the elderly, who stood by in the cold night air, sometimes barefoot, usually ill-clad, clutching a few salvaged possessions as their world went up in flames.

Out of all this unhappiness, out of all this disorder and violence, there is very little about which we can be proud. But we can take comfort and find reassurance in the performance of the vast majority in these days and nights of crisis. The disorders were not the end of the world or the end of our society. I am convinced that we can prevent further disorder, that we can root out the causes of disorder, and that we can identify and deal appropriately with those primarily responsible. I am confident, that out of the destruction will emerge a new spirit of confidence, compassion and conviction to carry us ahead.

Question

How dangerous are empty aerosol cans, and how can we get rid of them safely?

Answer

Any empty aerosol can is always potentially dangerous because there is little chance you can ever fully free all of its gas from the can. Never toss one of these cans into an incinerator or on a trash fire because it's almost certain to cause an explosion dangerous to anyone standing nearby. Always empty an aerosol can as completely as possible, relieving as much of the gas pressure as you can. Then throw the empty can into your trash receptacle. Also, remember that many aerosol products are highly inflammable, so please don't place them on hot (or even warm) surfaces. And these products have been known to explode in over-heated cars, so be careful of them—at ALL TIMES.

Good Work

sumed the chores of feeding the men after some slight confusion involving the food situation was resolved. Things in camp, at least, were reckoned under control.

Baltimore itself remained haunted by skulking figures who could disappear in the split second it took a looter to cry a warning. According to the Captain, he saw only Negro looters, mostly between the ages of 12 and 20, who showed little preference in the type of stores they robbed. Liquor stores, delicatessens, clothing and appliance stores came in for most of the attention, however.

The youngsters almost invariably would rather run than risk arrest. Several groups did parade the streets to heckle the soldiers but for the most part, the looters were reasonably cooperative about leaving store premises. There were some ugly moments, as when a sniper tried to prevent firemen from quenching a fire, but Capt. Yost related that the men maintained self-control throughout the ordeal.

One of the most dismaying facets of the eye-opening Baltimore assignment was the way the younger generation prowled the streets, alleys and parks throughout the night. "It was as though they had no home, no folks, no discipline", said the Captain.

Their job finally completed, Company C returned to Oakland one week after they departed, arriving at the armory about noon. It had been a disturbing week in many ways — hearing curses, smelling smoke and charred store contents, and seeing people at their worst.

The men of Company C received praise from Capt. Yost and other officials, who commended them for their fine job, self-control, and high morale. But then, Garrett countians could do no less.

Commissioners Agree to Buy Tanks From Teets Oil Co.

The Board of County Commissioners met as scheduled on April 8.

At this meeting, John Ross Sines made the motion that all tanks, pumps, and related materials that are on county propty or for county use should be purchased from Clem Teets Oil Company, for the price of $6,362.57. The motion was seconded by Allan S. Paugh and made unanimous by Hubert Friend.

Appearing before the Board were Dr. Elmer Hill, Charley B. Miller, Mrs. Shelby Paugh and Miss Catherine Speicher, from the County Health Department, who met with the Board to discuss various county matters. Plans were made for a meeting to be held May 13 at 1:30 p. m.

Fishermen Crowd Trout Streams As Season Commences

The April 15 income tax deadline was lightened for some by the fact that the 1968 trout season opened the same day. Many streams, especially those previously stocked with fingerling trout, held almost as many fishermen as fish on opening day.

Daily creel limit for the trout is seven. Each fish must not be smaller than seven inches in length, reminds Game Warden Leo G. Friend.

According to Mr. Friend, Muddy Creek, Bear Creek, and Savage River areas were the most popular with anglers. All three of these waters have been periodically stocked, not only with trout, but also with wall-eye pike, pickerel, and other native fish varieties. Several other streams in the county have also been stocked, and stocking will continue at various times throughout the year.

The beginning of the season on trout marked open season on all fish. Trout may be taken for the next eleven months, until March 14, 1969.

Mr. Friend also reminds anglers not to forget to get their fishing licenses.

April's Third Week Brings Chill Touch To Mountain Top

Cooler air has been the byword this week, with Monday bringing some exceptionally chilly weather. Last Thursday began the pattern, with an 8 a. m. reading of 39, and a high of only 50 despite the sunny skies.

Friday had a high in the upper 60's, following an early reading of 45. The high was again in the 60's on Saturday, with sunlit skies. Sunday a few clouds dotted the sky, while the mercury climbed to near the 70 degree mark.

During the night, the weather sneaked in some high winds, which brought along much colder air. On Monday, the 8 a. m. reading was 36, with cloudy, rainy skies. The high for the day was only 44.

Tuesday was a wee bit warmer, around 38. A heavy frost had coated the ground, but there were no reports of frost demage heard. The sky remained clear throughout the day, while the mercury climbed up to 63 before beginning to drop around 5 p. m.

No frost was noted on Wednesday, as the mercury registered 56 under bright, cloudless skies. Before long, however, clouds blanketed the sun although they couldn't keep the mercury from rising to 66.

Thursday morning was partly cloudy, with a temperature reading of 56 at 8 a. m.

a previous figure of $740,000.

In April, 1967 the sanitary district filed a complaint against the town saying it was delaying and contradicting plans of the commission to provide a disposal system for the three municipalities.

The complaint asked the court to determine whether or not the Oakland municipality was an integral part of the sanitary district and subject to direction and recommendations of the governing body.

The city of Oakland in May filed a demurrer stating that "ownership and authority to operate the Oakland sewer system was vested in the Mayor and town council by statute". The demurrer was sustained and on June 21 of last year an order for appeal was filed. The court of Appeals upheld Judge Hamill's decision which was to the effect that the town had every right to install its own system.

The health department then came up with a new approach and new offer. Results of the offer will be known after the meeting scheduled for next week.

Any cost above the basic expense would be borne, 75 percent by the State and twenty-five percent by the County through a bond issue.

Why is our top so way out?

The top of the Volkswagen Convertible is way out of the car for a very simple reason: We had no other practical place to put it.

Of course, we had other alternatives.

We could have put the top in the back seat. (It wouldn't have been out of the car, but 2 or 3 people would have been.)

Or we could have made room for the top by making the bug a little longer. (But it would no longer have been the little bug.)

The way it worked out, our Convertible has all the practical benefits of our Sedan.

Seating for 4 adults, parking ease, and economy (up to 27 mpg).

But many people don't need practical benefits. They simply like our top.

They like it because it has a real glass window in back. And because it's padded, and fitted by hand, so it's weatherproof and it actually cushions sound.

They like our top when it's up for its smooth custom-made look. And they like it when it's down for its unusual way-out look.

To many people our top is so way-out, it's in.

PTA Council Plans Appreciation Meal

The Garrett County Council of Parents and Teachers is planning an appreciation dinner for Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of Schools. Mr. Hawkins announced his retirement several months ago, to take effect August 1.

The dinner will be held Tuesday evening, April 30, at 6:30 o'clock in the Southern High School cafetorium with the cost per person set at $2.25. Parents, teachers and other interested citizens are being invited. Tickets may be secured from any of the three drug stores in Oakland. Reservations must be made by Wednesday, April 24, it was announced by C. W. Englander, member of the Board of Education, who is in charge of the program. Mr. Englander said the president of the PTA organization has been invited to be the speaker.

Mr. Hawkins has served as county superintendent for this county since June, 1954.

John Dollar, Hagerstown, past district governor of Rotary International will be the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Oakland Rotary club this evening at the Legion home. Speaker last week was Lynn Beckman, executive secretary of the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion council.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Anthony Pirrone, Jr., Hyattsville, announce the birth of a son, Patrick Anthony, on March 21, in a Washington hospital. Mrs. Pirrone was formerly Linda Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Tucker, former residents of the county. Maternal great grandmother is Mrs. Rose Foley Lee, route 1, Deer Park. Paternal great grandmother is Mrs. Jane Tucker, Steyer.

Firemen Are Called

Oakland firemen answered a third call this week, when a woods fire got out of control in the area of Underwood, along the Underwood-Mansfield road.

The fire was discovered by Janet Brant, across the road from her home, and firemen were called at 5 p. m. yesterday. Firemen said three fires were observed at first. Some two acres of a vacant woodland on the properties of James Savage and Burlin Holler, were burned.

Events Above The Mountain Top

Paul S. Frank Jr.

Today the sun rose at 5:35 a. m. and will set thirteen hours and twenty-three minutes later at 6:58 p. m. During the week daylight will continue to increase each day so that next Thursday daylight will last eighteen minutes longer than it did today. Sunrise April 25 is at 5:25 a. m. and sunset is at 7:06 p. m.

The moon will be at last quarter tomorrow at 2:35 p. m. During the week it will continue to wane. It will rise after midnight.

Jupiter is the only planet that can easily be seen. It is near Regulus, the bright star, in Leo the lion. Both objects are high in the sky by 9:00 p. m. All the other planets normally visible to the naked eye are too close to the sun to be seen easily.

On Monday Jupiter will be stationary among the stars. It will slowly move eastward after Monday. If you observe very carefully you will notice Jupiter move among the stars. Use Regulus as a reference if you wish to observe this motion as it has been observed for centuries.

A meteor shower will occur on Sunday. To best view the shower, one should look in the morning before sunrise. Some of the shower might be seen on Saturday and Monday mornings. There should be about fifteen meteors seen per hour during the maximum of the shower.

On the average, one can see seven meteors per hour which are not associated with a recognizeable shower. These meteors can be seen on any night of the year. Sometimes the earth encounters groups of meteors all having the same orbit around the sun. These groups cause meteor showers as some of them enter the earth's atmosphere. They begin to melt as the heat of friction, generated by their passage through the air at great speeds, increases to the melting temperature. Particles streaming behind the meteor as it melts cause the tail behind the "shooting star".

Any extremely bright meteor should be reported to Mr. Frank at the Garrett County Science Center (phone 334-3991) as it may be large enuogh to reach the ground. The information that should be reported consists of the following:

1. The time the meteor was seen
2. The number of seconds it lasted
3. The direction from which it came
4. The direction of the point at which it disappeared
5. A description of any sounds associated with the meteor
6. A description of the meteor's brightness and general appearance

These meteors are generally called fireballs because of their brillance.

It is important that the public supply information about these objects since the only way to recover the fallen object is by analyzing the information supplied by the public.

This week in the planetarium, the Oak Street Kindergarten completes its study of Day and Night. The NASA Space - Mobile will visit the schools giving every student in grades four through twelve a lecture-demonstration. The adult education classes will visit on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

A new ceiling of 549,000 men is set for Vietnam.

SOME DAY SOMEONE MAY INVENT SOMETHING THAT COOKS BETTER THAN GAS

...BUT DON'T BET ON IT.

The guy who tries to come up with something faster, more flexible, or with greater cooking control than today's clean, precise Gas flame will have quite a job. He'll have to top such cooking conveniences as the burner-with-a-brain, oven-with-a-mind, automatic cook and hold, automatic meat programming, smokeless broiling. (All are Gas range exclusives). And his Whatsis will at least have to match Gas for cleanliness . . . and for economy of operation. (That's almost too much to ask).

Sure, some day someone may invent something that cooks better than a Gas flame. But it's not likely. So go with the best cooking device yet invented — a modern, dependable Gas range.

Listen, Americans!

By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON
President—National Education Program
Searcy, Arkansas

On the National Archives building in Washington is a famous inscription 'What Is Past Is Prologue." The Archive contains the past records of our nation — the Declaration of Independence which in a sense was the prologue to 200 years of American freedom; and the U. S. Constitution, the prologue to the good performance of our unique Republic. Some other documents in the Archives, for instance the record of U. S. foreign policy from 1933 until today, might possibly record a prologue to disaster. In this series of columns we are examining briefly some of the record.

1959—Castro, with a bedraggled force of bearded revolutionaries, took over Cuba. U. S. foreign policy decisions in the Eisenhower administration had made the takeover possible. Fidel was brought to Washington, wined, dined and proclaimed—although his Communist record and his ties with World Communism were known to key persons inside the State Department. (Three former U. S. Ambassadors to Cuba have subsequently stated publicly that they reported to the State Department that the Castro "Revolution" was a Communist operation.) The U. S., when Castro's force was still a puny threat to the Cuban government, banned sale of armament to Batista and otherwise aided the Red cause. Cuba fell, and in 1962 Castro publicly brazenly announced he had been a Communist all the time; that he had deceived the Americans and Cubans in order to win a Communist victory.

1961—An amphibious assault on Cuba through the Bay of Pigs by Cuban exiles, planned and supported by the U. S. Government, aborted, with horrible casualties and disastrous results for all Freedom-loving Cubans. The disaster occurred when vital U. S. support was withdrawn —after the assault had begun! President Kennedy publicly assumed the blame, but important State Department and diplomatic personages (including Senator Fulbright) were involved in the decisions affecting the debacle.

1962—Months after some Senators and other reliable sources had warned the President of the presence of Russian H-bomb missiles and Russian technicians in Cuba —reports that were denied by White House, Defense Department, and State Department officialdom—the Cuban "Missile Crisis" broke with President Kennedy's message to the People (October 22) concerning the danger.

The U. S. was poised to invade Cuba by air and sea. Khrushchev, Red Premier, sought a deal with President Kennedy. Finally, a deal was consummated—for the withdrawal of the missiles (with U. N. inspection in Cuba), the U. S. agreed not to invade Communist Cuba and in effect agreed to protect Red Cuba against invasion. The records, part of them in the Archives, prove this. It was a one-sided deal: No U. S. inspection was made of missile withdrawal; No one could be certain that all were withdrawn.

1962—U. S. Commitment in Vietnam became substantial. The record shows that U. S. policy under President Kennedy worked toward the deposing of the anti-Communist Ngo Dinh Diem (assassinated), and under President Johnson for a limited, purely defensive "no win" war, creating a sanctuary for Communist ports, supply bases, air fields and other targets and subjecting American as well as South Vietnam soldiers and civilians to a murderous death toll as the "protected" Reds move South with their "protected" Russian tanks and mortars.

Assigned In Vietnam

Army Private Raymond G. Bennett, 24, son of Mrs. Beatrice Rhodes, Oakland, was assigned to the 815th Engineer Battalion in Vietnam, March 21.

A mechanic in the battalion in Pleiku, Pvt. Bennett entered the Army in October, 1967, received basic training at Fort Bragg, N. C., and was last stationed at Fort Dix, N. J.

DIED

DANIEL L. REED

Daniel L. Reed, 78, died Saturday, April 13, at his Bloomington residence.

He was born in Shaw, W. Va., the son of the late Perry V. and Hannah (Barker) Reed.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mae Reed; one son, William L. Reed, Bloomington; and one daughter, Mrs. Samuel Romesburg, Cleveland, O.; two half-sisters, Mrs. Elsie Whitehair, Akron, and Mrs. Eva Bolyard, Philippi, W. Va.; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

He served in the Army before World War I in the Philippines and at the age of 55 he enlisted in the Army for duty in World War II.

Mr. Reed was a retired plant guard at the Luke Mill of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company. He was a member of Kelly-Mansfield Post, American Legion, Piedmont and Bloomington Methodist Church.

The body was taken to the Boal Funeral Home, Westernport. Services were conducted from the Bloomington Methodist Church Tuesday at 1 p. m. by Rev. Edgar Cole, pastor, and Rev. Eugene Eaton. Kelly-Mansfield Post accorded military rites at the graveside in the Bever cemetery near Bloomington.

MISS ZAIDEE BROWNING

Miss Zaidee Josephine Browning, 90, formerly of No. 2, South Second street, Oakland, died early Tuesday morning, April 16, at the Oak Rest Nursing home where she had been a resident for some five years.

Deceased was born in Oakland July 16, 1877, a daughter of the late John T. and Florence Jamison Browning. She was a public school teacher for many years.

Miss Browning was a member of St. Peter's Catholic church, the church Sodality, the McVeigh Holy Cross club; and the retired county public school teacher association.

Nieces and nephews are the only survivors.

The body was taken to the John O. Durst funeral home on Second street. Funeral services were conducted this morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. Peter's church with Rev. Fr. Felician E. Brooknan, O. F. M. Cap., officiating. Interment was in the parish cemetery.

NEWS FROM THE Ruth Enlow Library

BY EDITH BROCK

"Be all you can be. Read" is the slogan this year for National Library Week, April 21 to 27.

Area residents seem to have had this idea in mind all through the preceding month, as the library set another all-time high in circulation. Some 6,216 books and other materials were borrowed from the main library in Oakland during the month of March, the largest number ever borrowed here in one month. The Grantsville branch had a circulation of 2,-119 and the bookmobile a circulation of 2,139, making a total circulation of 10,474 for the county library in March.

Books on gardening and interior decoration, weddings and parties have had their usual spring popularity. But library patrons have also showed concern about social problems and foreign affairs in their choice of reading. The religious books which were placed in the Lenten reading display were quickly borrowed. Literature, biography and history have had heavy use by high school and college students working on research papers. The same subject fields in the children's collection have been often requested by young borrowers reading poetry, biography and history just for fun.

There will be no movies at the library on Saturday afternoon or Monday evening because the projector is being repaired.

Northern PTA To Meet

Charles Strauss, outdoor education supervisor at Northern High school, will present the program at the Northern High PTA meeting this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, at the outdoor education center.

On the agenda also will be the installation of officers. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Elsie Slagle is president of the organization.

America Under Attack

Not for decades have the American people faced such tumultuous and depressing times as they face in the spring of 1968. Everywhere they look, at home and abroad, there is stress, danger and division. From the battlefield at Khe Sanh in Vietnam to the insurrectionary centers in the nation's big cities, to the gold markets of Europe, there are threats and menacing developments.

Clearly the American people will have to steel themselves for the period ahead. They face dangers that are on a scale with what the U. S. faced after Pearl Harbor. Unhappily, the nation is not united as it was after Pearl Harbor.

The immediate danger today is not surprise attack as it was in late 1941, though that danger cannot be wholly eliminated. Stress within the United States and pressure on global military and economic fronts may encourage and tempt the Soviet Union to new adventures and even worse.

At Khe Sahn, U. S. forces are in a military posture that ill suits American fighting men. They are in a siege position, or what soldiers call positional warfare, whereas Americans always have preferred the offensive from the tide of the War of Independence to Gen. Douglas MacArthur's brilliant landing at Inchon in Korea. U. S. forces along the so-called Demilitarized Zone in Vietnam are being bled mercilessly by troops that emerge from the stil' privileged sanctuaries of the Communists. The White House apparently has no winning strategy for the war in Vietnam—no plans for striking at the center of North Vietnam's power as Gen. George Patton and other generals struck at Germany's center in World War II.

On the world economic scene, the United States also has been bled mercilessly by gold speculators in Europe. New measures are proposed to halt the bleeding, but for months and years there has been inaction.

The Johnson administration has proposed restrictions on U. S. tourists in Europe, while ignoring the real causes of the weakening of the U. S. dollar that lie behind the gold panic. The administration has urged vast new outlays in Great Society spending, though this kind of inflationary spending has contributed to the loss of confidence in the dollar. Though U. S. foreign aid long has bled this nation of needed economic resources, "Liberals" in the Executive Branch and Congress have insisted that the United States continue giveaways that the nation cannot afford.

The danger on the home front is perhaps the greatest danger of all. In the last few months, the Communists have been pumping unprecedented quantities of propaganda into the United States, feeding the fires of division and disillusionment. The "no-win" forces in the United States have been buttressed by these efforts from outside. Moscow, Peking, Havana and Hanoi are rejoicing in the political mobilization being carried out by the phony "peace" movement in the United States.

Bobby Kennedy and other political opportunists are telling the American people, as Neville Chamberlain told the British in 1938, that they can have "peace in our time" even though the Communists are conducting a worldwide offensive to destroy the capitalist system and our free institutions.

In this offensive, April will be a critical month. New disorders are planned for the nation's capital, where the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. and Black Power leader Stokely Carmichael have formed a coalition to tie up Washington. In New York City, the ultra-radical Students for a Democratic Society have planned 10 days of chaos. One of their targets is New York's financial center, which is essential to the operation of American business and industry.

Leftwingers are planning an invasion of the congested Wall Street area in the hope of paralyzing the stock markets and related activities. They view this invasion as a dress rehearsal for revolution, and describe their planned efforts as the "1905" of a new revolution. In 1905, Russian Marxists conducted a dress rehearsal for the Bolshevik overthrow of a parliamentary regime in Russia.

The combination of Vietniks and Black Power activists hope to score high successes in April as a preliminary to a summer-long campaign of disruption and terrorism that will include riots in American cities. In every city, police forces should be ready and alerted for strife by "peace" and Black Power elements. The U. S. public should understand that the survival of our free society is at stake in the ugly attacks from within and without in the months ahead.

Homemaker Dates Listed This Week

Mrs. Freda S. Denison, Ext. Agent, Home Economics, listed meetings as follows:

April 22, 8:00 p. m., Cove club at the home of Mrs. Paul Bender.

April 23, 1:30 p. m., Sunnyside club at the home of Mrs. Gary Bookout; 7:45 p. m., Bittinger club at the home of Mrs. George Shawley.

Leader training meetings will be held for the Home Furnishing chairmen; April 24, Accident Fire Hall, 1:00 p. m.; April 25, Oakland, Extension Office Basement of the Postoffice, 1:00 p. m.; April 29, Grantsville, Methodist Church, 1:00 p. m.

Fashion Look For "68"

The "68" look is a well coordinated look with the right accessories playing an important role advised Mrs. Denison. Accessories, designed for "68" Fashions are scaled to the mini size. Handbags are smaller but roomier. The envelope, flight bags, tote bays, "the treasure chest", wicker satchel are a few shapes that come in a variety of leathers.

Hose are textured, patterned (point d' esprit diamond lace most popular) in navy, beige, pink, blues, greens, yellow, lavendar, and a rainbow of pastels.

Jewelry, too, has adopted the mini size, mini-brooch, little animals—wise owl, cat, tiger, lion, etc.

Hat styles, pot-pourri—no one fashion for spring. They range from tiny nothing hats to big flowered straws, turbans and tailored, sailors and sombrero.

Shoes are still boxie toes, slightly higher heels, pastel patent, slightly round toes, sling pumps, buckles, bows, with a hint toward the "baby doll" look.

Fabric and fabric finishes in ready-to-wear as well as fabric for the home sewer is much in the news.

Textured knits of 100 percent dacron polyester, completely machine washable and wrinkle free, come in a variety of jacquard knit designs and a range of bright to pastel colors.

Announcing
Chevrolet's new Torque-Drive.

Nobody else offers anything like it at the price.

Torque-Drive does away with the clutch pedal. Most of the shifting, too. And for the most economy, it's available exclusively on all Camaro sixes and Chevy II Nova 4- and 6-cylinder models.

Look how simple it is. You accelerate in 1st; then shift to Hi for cruising. That's all. If you like, you can even start in Hi. And accelerate from standstill to cruising speed. It's just a little slower that way.

The shift lever is conveniently located on the steering column, and there's a selector quadrant with easy-to-read indications: Park-R-N-Hi-1st. Only your Chevrolet dealer has it—clutchless driving at only $68.65.

The first no clutch one shift $68.65* transmission

Only Chevrolet has it.

A Perilous Theory...

A reader has sent us a copy of a letter written by a Congressman who jumped down the throat of an editor who questioned the certainty of payment of promised benefits under the Social Security Act.

The unhappy fact is that the Congressman simply repeats official government pronouncements on the subject, ignoring completely the credibility gap which Washington bureacracy has created.

Here are some facts:

From the beginning, the Social Security Act has provided that all collections not needed for immediate expenses must be invested in government bonds, or government guaranteed bonds.

What was first designated as a "Reserve Account", was later called a "trust fund", to increase public confidence. Recently it was stated officially that there are about $23 billion in the "trust fund". Actually, these are bonds. Government bonds. They are government promises to pay. To pay, the Government will have to redeem the bonds—by sale of new bonds for cash—or, Congress will have to appropriate money out of current revenues to redeem the bonds.

Further, the Supreme Court of the United States has held that the Social Security tax on employees is an income tax, based on his wages, to be withheld from his wages by the employer and remitted to the Collector of Internal Revenue. The tax on employers is an excise tax, equal in amount to the employee tax, and also based on wages. The Court also held, in Flemming vs. Nestor, 363 US 603, that "accrued property rights" are not inherent in the Act.

A major flaw of the original Act was paragraph 1104, which expressly reserved to Congress the "right to alter, amend or repeal any provision" of the Act. Such a provision makes meaningless any statement in the Act, its amendments or revisions. Social Security is what the Congress says that it is at any given time. Just that and nothing more.

Each Congress is going to have to tax the wages of the workers who elect them in order to redeem Government bonds and meet Social Security benefits promised. The Congressman, and the Government, presume that the working taxpayer will always elect a Congress willing to tax and give. It is a perilous theory. U. S. Press Association, Inc.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our husband and father, Jackson E. Thomas, who passed away two years ago, April 28th.

You cannot say, you must not say
That he is dead, he's just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
So think of him as faring on, as dear
In the love of here as the love of there,
Think of him still as the same and say
He's not dead, he is just away.

Sadly missed by Wife, Madelyn and Children.

Then, As Now . . .

By Carol Canan

What was Oakland like back in the "old days"? What could you expect to see? Has the town really changed?

After browsing through an "Illustrated Guide to Oakland" published in 1900 and lent to the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council by H. G. Gortner, a picture of the same town in a different costume emerged. It is to be expected that things are somewhat different, but the essence is still the same.

Then, as now, Oakland was a summer resident's paradise—a place to get away from teeming cities and relax in the rarefied atmosphere of the mountains. Great claims were made about the air here; it was compared to a tonic, and the Guide stated that sick children brought from cities "revive in a few days."

Especially popular then was riding and driving, either with one's own turnout or a rig gotten from one of the town's three livery stables.

Pleasant drives were adjudged to be those to King's Hill, Deer Park, (fashionable hotel and luxurious cottages); and Eagle Rock, (one of the most popular due to magnificent scenery, but the ascent was said to be "too difficult" for delicate or elderly persons.)

Listed among walks to be enjoyed were Iron Spring, (take a drinking cup); Mt. Lake Park, (800 acres with lake and boating); Coddington's Riffles, (best time to go is in early morning); and Monte Vista, (well-behaved visitors were allowed to enjoy the view from in front of the house.)

Excursions to be taken by buggy or train could be made to Table Rock (lunch could be eaten on the rock); Crellin, then a lumber plant belonging to Preston Lumber Co.); Swallow Falls, and Cumberland. For the Cumberland trip, it was recommended that the ride be made by train with return after dark—the moonlight made a surely unforgettable trip up the steep 17-mile grade.

Horses' shoes could strike sparks from Oakland's brick or macadam pavements, with the ladies' skirts brushing the board sidewalks. For summer entertainment, band concerts were given two evenings a week, with occasional dances in one of the town's seven hotels. "During August," relates the Guide, "lectures, concerts and other entertainments were given morning, afternoon and night in the auditorium in Mt. Lake Park." A concert hall and the Oakland Club were year 'round fare.

The Guide related how one could see "fashionable ladies, seated in carriages, with coachmen and footmen" parading through town, which then boasted 1,200 inhabitants. No doubt these "fashionable ladies" were enroute to or from visiting one of the town's busy stores.

Then Oakland supported Oakland Pharmacy and Sturgiss' Pharmacy; Weber's Florists; D. E. Bolden's furniture store; and general stores operated by Lewis Gortner, O. Hart and Son, Thomas Little, John Felty, Jr., H. C. Sincell and Co., S. L. Townshend and Son, and D. E. Offutt and Sons.

In addition to these, there were Mrs. M. L. Scott's and Connell and Crane's millineries; two housewares stores, G. A. Shirer's and J. M. Davis and Son; two photographers, Pritchard's, and Grant and Co.; two restaurants, W. G. Hinebaugh's and John D. Taggert's (where one could obtain a "square meal" for twenty-five cents).

At that time, Oakland featured one bank, the Garrett County Bank of Oakland; one harness store, J. W. Leathers and Co.; three book and confectionery stores: Flowers, A. T. Matthews, and J. M. Stanton; Liller's barber shop; A. D. Naylor's and Brown and Davis' blacksmith shops; A. D. Naylor's machinist shop; and Browning Bros. and Nelson's meat markets.

Nine attorneys made their headquarters here, along with three dentists, five physicians, two notaries public, two justices of the peace, and three real estate offices.

Back then there were three newspapers: Garrett Journal, (independent); the Mountain Democrat, and the Oakland Republican. All three were published every Thursday.

Five faiths were represented here—Presbyterian, Evangelical Lutheran, Protestant Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal, and Roman Catholic.

Change the long skirts to miniskirts; the horses to cars; change stores and store fronts around, add a lake, blacktop roads, and motels; stir in several hundred more people, sprinkle with destructive fires, and let age nearly 70 years, and you can see Oakland as it is today.

Is it so very different?

Observe Fiftieth Event

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman P. Tressler, of Mt. Lake Park, observed their 50th wedding anniversary with a family gathering and dinner last Sunday, April 14, at the Loch Lynn Aid Hall. Seven of their eight children were present with their families. The only one not present was M/Sgt. James Tressler, who is stationed with the U. S. Army in Thailand.

Children and families present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Parke Tressler, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Staggs and son, Mrs. Leora Beitzel and six children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tressler and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tressler and five childen, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Beitzel and three children, Mr. and Mrs. George Rexrode and two children.

Questions, Answers On Constitution Continue Today

Questions and answers concerning the proposed Maryland constitution which will be voted on by the citizens on Tuesday, May 14, continue to be published this week. They were prepared by William W. Grant, the county's elected delegate to the convention last fall.

Q. What becomes of the local trial magistrates under the new Constitution?

A. The trial magistrates would be replaced by a district court which would hear traffic cases and small claim cases. Each county would have at least one district court judge who would have to have had legal training. The district court judge could appoint various other persons in different parts of the county, who would be called "commissioners", to make it convenient for the public to post bond or obtain warrants.

Q. Why does the new Constitution say judges will be selected by a commission, rather than be elected as they are now?

A. A judge is like the surgeon in a hospital. You hope you will never have to have an operation but if you do you want the surgeon to know what he is doing. You hope you will never have to go to Court because a business deal went sour or someone accused you of something you did not do. However, if you do have to go to Court, you want to have a judge who is competent and won't play favorites. Originally, Maryland had judges appointed by the governor, but this gave too much power to the governor. In more recent times judges have been elected, but this gives too much power to the politicians. The new system has judges selected by a commission composed of an equal number of lawyers and non-lawyers. The lawyers are to make sure he will be competent and the non-lawyers are to make sure that he will be fair. Only persons selected by the commission may become judges.

Q. How do you get rid of a judge who is no good or unable to work?

A. There is no method under the present Constitution, except to wait the fifteen years to the end of his term of office. Under the new Constitution there is a judicial disability commission which can take immediate action to dismiss a judge who is unwilling or unable to properly perform the duties of his office.

Q. Does the new Constitution give a big salary to the judges as well as to the governor and the legislators?

A. No. The new Constitution does not specify the salary for any official. The salary for a judge is now and would continue to be up to the General Assembly. The old Constitution did specify a salary for the governor and a salary for the legislators. The new Constitution provides that all salaries will be set by the General Assembly. The proposed schedule of legislation attached to the new Constitution suggests salaries for the governor and for the legislators. However, the General Assembly may accept or reject these proposals.

Couple To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Lewis, Rt. 1, Oakland, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Kathryn Louise, to Pvt. Gary Richard Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Savage, also of Rt. 1, Oakland.

The open church wedding will take place on Saturday, April 20, at 8:00 o'clock p. m. at the Sunnyside Chapel, near Red House. A reception will follow the ceremony at the Pleasant Valley Grange Hall in Pleasant Valley.

All friends and relatives are invited.

Earns Scholarship

Rebecca Ann Sherwood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sherwood, Jr., of Oakland, has been awarded a four-year, $4,800 Conference Honor Scholarship by West Virginia Wesleyan College. She is a senior at Southern High School, Oakland.

Wesleyan's admissions director, R. W. Kiser, reported that the scholarships are awarded annually to incoming freshmen credited with outstanding scholastic records.

A student receiving the scholarship must maintain at least a "B" average annually to qualify each year for renewal.

Miss Sherwood, who plans to make chemistry her major, was recipient of the American Chemical Society Award, local winner of a peace essay contest sponsored by the Oakland Lions Club, a recipient of the God and Community Award for Girl Scouts, and has had an essay accepted for publication by the National Essay Press.

Miss Sherwood is vice president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of St. Paul's Methodist Church and of the sub-district, vice president of the Romney District MYF, and a member of the conference executive committee of the conference MYF.

She is a member of the band, the National Honor Society, and the French club.

Firemen Called Twice

Members of the Oakland Fire department assisted in extinguishing two brush fires last Friday and Saturday.

A call was received last Friday afternoon at 3:45 from Hutton, and on Saturday there was a call from Mt. Storm about 12 o'clock noon, to help in quelling a woods fire. Indian tanks were used to put the fires out, and there was no significant damage at either place.

Fallout Protection Survey Inaugurated

Some fourteen residents of the county will be among the 485 Marylanders employed by the U. S. Bureau of Census as interviewers for the Home Fallout Protection survey which the bureau is conducting throughout the state for the Maryland Civil Defense agency.

DeCorsey E. Bolden, Oakland, has been named crew chief and the thirteen interviewers were given training Monday in the Oakland fire hall. Interviewers began their work on Tuesday and expect to have made contact with all citizens of the county by May 14.

Assisting in the work are Mrs. Rita C. Hiller, Mrs. Doris E. Atwood, Grantsville; Wendell R. Beitzel, Accident; Charles W. Gosnell, Sang Run; Mrs. Carmen White, Kitzmiller; Mrs. Lucille B. Grant, Oakland; Mrs. May M. Welch, Mt. Lake Park; Mrs. Anne Gordon Bell, Oakland; Mrs. Dolores E. Moyer, Oakland; Walter W. Wachter, McHenry; Mrs. Norma Gail Machs, Frostburg; Mrs. Josephine May Long Oakland; Mrs. Ruth A. Campbell, Rt. 2 Oakland.

John G. Gibson, director of the census bureau regional office in Philadelphia, is directing the program which includes only single family homes and two and three unit dwellings.

Interviewers will wear a red, white and blue identification badge which will bear the person's signature and certifying that the individual is authorized to perform the duties of a census interviewer.

Primary aim of the Civil Defense program is to save as many lives as possible in the event of enemy nuclear attack. The program is focused on the development of a nationwide fallout shelter system. The objective is fallout protection for all.

George Comp, Jr., civil defense director for the county, said at present there is only one officially approved public fallout shelter, in the basement of the Oakland post office building, but several others are contemplated. Two large underground shelters are in the Thayerville area, capable of holding several thousand persons. If approved they would be stocked with emergency food rations.

When the survey is completed the Federal government will furnish statistical area summaries of homes with fallout protection to state and local governments. No information about individual houses will be revealed by the census bureau since the information would be confidential.

Persons contacted will be asked how many persons live in the household, how many floors? Basement or Cellar under home? Composition of the walls? Height of basement wall above outside ground level? The information later would be mailed directly to the householder with civil defense booklet with methods for increasing amount of protection in basements.

Literature Tries To Dissuade Vote For Constitution

A group of citizens from Carroll County, is sending out information designed to convince people that they should vote against the proposed constitution on May 14. The group is saying "Don't let your government fall into the hands of a few."

The literature being distributed gives ten reasons for voting against the measure:

Increased taxes—over $250 to start for total cost of $154 million; salaries for legislators and judges increased;

Reduction of our rights: elected offices eliminated, representation in legislature reduced by 25 with eight counties having no Senator or Delegate; constitution may be suspended in an emergency; local government ruined; placing of a new layer of government over the counties.

State financial system weakened; court system ruined with destruction of right to a fair trial.

Government made all powerful with no internal check on a billion dollar budget, appointees to serve at governor's pleasure, unrestricted control of state militia; destruction of checks and balances.

The literature states "Our present state constitution protects the people from bad and tyrannical government. The proposed constitution protects bad and tyrannical government from the control of the voters".

Twenty-One Killed On State Highways

Twenty-one persons were killed on Maryland highways last week, according to the weekly survey published by the State Police. Ten of those killed were drivers, eight were passengers, and three were pedestrians. Alcohol was a contributing factor in six cases, speed in thirteen, and "driver error" in twenty.

"For the past two weeks speed has been a contributing factor in 60-70 percent of the fatal accidents on Maryland highways", commented Lt. Col. George E. Davidson, Chief of Operations of the State Police. "This is well above 45 percent average for the past six years.

"The list of driving errors that teamed up with speed to take thirteen lives last week is long and varied, but in every instance the driver was either unable to keep his car under control or because of the excessive speed missed or ignored well-posted traffic control signals or road markings. The use of common sense would certainly have averted most of this needless tragedy".

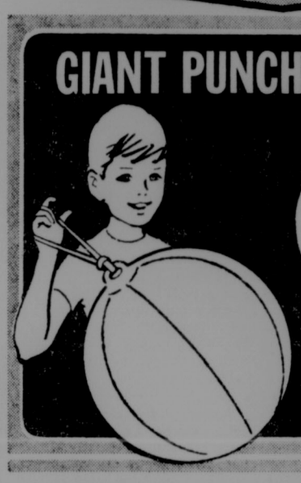
Garrett Has 80 Youth Cases In Past Seven Months

Garrett County had a total of 80 Juvenile Court cases in the period July 1, 1967 through February, 1968, according to a report by the Maryland Department of Juvenile Services.

During February, Garrett County listed one case, a male delinquent, during the month.



This county has had 42 delinquency cases in the past seven months. The one reported in February was dismissed, warned or the petition withdrawn.

Thirty-eight non - delinquency cases were heard since July of last year. Only one youth from this county was in a forestry camp.

A Bird in Hand

Copyright 1968 Keister Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg, Va.

The hands are gentle and deft . . . the bird-banding process painless and quick. Soon the bird will fly off, safe and unharmed, unaware that it has become another link in the chain of research concerning the migratory habits of birds.

Our feathered friend has no interest in the fact that his experience ultimately will help chart the flight lines of all migrant birds. With heart beating wildly in its soft, downy throat, it longs only to be free.

Sometimes people are like that bird. Caught in circumstances beyond our control, we flail and thrash about. Fear and doubt overwhelm us and we fail to realize and acknowledge the loving arm of God that is present and sustaining in every situation.

Place your faith and trust in God and His Church. In times of need, strength and help are yours for the asking.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons.

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE GREATER GAIN

Lesson for April 21, 1968

Background Scripture: Job 28:12, 13, 23, 28; Proverbs 3:13-18.
Devotional Reading: Proverbs 8:12-21.

There is a legend about a flock of crows who lived on the edge of a cornfield owned by a farmer with whom they did not get along very well. Of course, the crows regarded it as their cornfield and thus were in constant conflict with the farmer and his sons who understandably could not see it that way at all. Again and again the crows would descend upon the cornfield. Again and again the farmer and his sons would greet the interlopers with buckshot.

Rev. Althouse

Some facts

At last, the crows decided that they had "had enough of this." A council of war was called at the edge of the woods. They would settle this matter once and for all. A bright young crow arose and, thrusting out his chest, he said: "As far as I can see, we do not have to put up with this. I have gathered some facts and, on the basis of this information, I am confident that we can be victorious." An expectant hush settled over the flock.

"First of all," he continued, "there are more crows than men!" He paused to let this fact sink in and all his peers seemed to nod their heads in agreement. The fact was really obvious to any one who could count. "Fact number two," he went on, "we can fly and men cannot. Therefore, there is no reason why we should not destroy these brash men and have the cornfield entirely to ourselves. It is perfectly logical." And it was.

Once again heads began to nod in agreement, but an old crow at the edge of the flock stood up and, clearing his throat as men of wisdom are inclined to do, he interrupted the young crow. "That is all very well," he said, "but in my lifetime I have observed this one thing . . . . . where there are no men, there are no cornfields!"

More than facts

The story illustrates the difference between wisdom and knowledge. The young crow was certainly knowledgeable. He had facts and no one could dispute his knowledge. Facts alone, however, are not enough. One still needs the wisdom to use the facts to the best advantage. This involves more than knowledge. It involves understanding, discernment, judgment, and experience.

Man in this twentieth century is obvisouly gaining in knowledge. The increase in knowledge is rapid, so voluminous, that it seems impossible to keep up with it all. Some years ago, Dr. Sidney Burwell, was addressing the entering class at Harvard Medical School, and said: "Gentlemen, in the next four years here at school, we will teach you as much as we possibly can of the latest theories and interpretations of disease and all of its varieties and insideious forms. But medical science is progressing so rapidly that by the time you have finished your four-year course, one-half of what we tell you will have been, by that time, proven incorrect, and, unfortunately, we cannot tell you which half it's going to be."

The wisdom gap

It is questionable whether we are likewise gaining in wisdom. For example, what good is it to reach the moon if we still have not learned how to get along with our next door neighbor here on this planet? We speak of various technological "gaps." Perhaps we need to be more concerned about the gap that exists between knowledge and wisdom. We possess the knowledge to blow-up the planet today, but do we have the wisdom to use our knowledge constructively and prevent our own self-destruction?

The Bible is admittedly an old book, an ancient one in fact. Yet who would deny the timeliness of this observation from across the centuries? "Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gets understanding, for the gain from it is better than gain from silver and its profit better than gold" (Proverbs 3:13, 14 RSV)

YOUR BODY OFTEN NEEDS HELP

If your body has a problem, it tries to cure itself. The blood sends white corpuscles to fight any invading germ. For some ailments the body forms an antibody which usually conquers. But often the problem cannot be solved by the body alone. It needs outside help.

If distress symptoms persist, if home remedies do not soon help you need a physician who will treat the cause and the odds are relief will come soon. He can prescribe the drug he thinks will help you most, from the thousands of prescription medicines we stock in our prescription laboratory.

Aurora - Eglon

A May Day luncheon will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Aurora, May 3. A covered dish lunch will be served at 12:30 followed by a program beginning at 1:30. There will be a guest speaker. Everyone is invited.

Mrs. Ernest Dumire, Horse Shoe Run, who suffered a paralyzing stroke April 10, remains a patient in the Garrett County Memorial hospital.

Memorial rites were conducted Saturday at Bethel Methodist church, Horse Shoe Run, for Mrs. Page (Anna) Sell, 89, who passed away April 11 in Elkins. The Rev. Galen Fike, Eglon, officiated. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Last rites were conducted Wednesday afternoon at Maple Spring church by the Rev. Dunson, for Charles Strawser, 54, who died suddenly at his home at Mt. Lake Park, April 14. He was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Strawser, formerly of Eglon, and the last survivor of the family. Interment was in the Eglon cemetery.

Mrs. Mona Hylton and two daughters, Robynne and Lisa Carol spent the Easter holidays visiting in Virginia. They visited Mrs. Hylton's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Carter Bross and children of Stuart, Virginia; her aunt, Mrs. Gladys Carter and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Claude T. Stone and family, all of Bassett, Virginia. They also visited the Rev. and Mrs. Bobby Phillips and family of Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Pastor and Mrs. Frank Snyder, Aurora, are grandparents of a daughter born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Lane Snyder, of near Romney, W. Va.

A daughter was born April 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jackson of Aurora, in a Kingwood hospital. Mr. Jackson is Vo-Ag teacher in Aurora school.

Mr. and Mrs. William Armentrout, Cash Valley, went Friday to Webster County where they visited in their parental homes for a few days.

Mrs. Emory Wotring, Brookside, accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Cockran, last week to her home in Fairmont where she plans to visit for a while.

Open House was held Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Knotts, Mt. Top, in honor of the forty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mrs. Knotts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Donham, of near Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gnegy, Sr., who recently sold their farm near Eglon, purchased a plot of land from Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Judy, in Eglon, on which they plan to erect a dwelling.

Mrs. Robert Wotring, who became ill suddenly Sunday at her home near Aurora was taken to the Garrett County Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Hugh Forman, of near Amboy, suffered a light stroke of paralysis early Sunday morning. She is slowly convalescing in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Slaubaugh, of near Eglon, went April 5 to Charleston where they visited in the home of their grand-son-in-law and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Shaver, on Friday and then went to the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Devaux Armentrout, Holder, where they visited until on Monday.

Roy Teets, Eglon, underwent surgery recently in the West Virginia University Medical Center, Morgantown.

Word was received here that James Helmick, formerly of Eglon, is much indisposed in the Oak Rest Nursing Home in Oakland.

Darwin Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Snyder of near Horse Shoe Run, was injured recently in an automobile accident on Rt. 24, near Eglon.

The Fight Against Famine

One of the struggles of modern life, a struggle with which we in America are not familiar on a day to day basis, but only observe in other countries, is the fight against famine. We know now, and have known for some time, that as the world population rises there will have to be more food to feed these millions of hungry mouths.

The great food producing areas of the world, of which the United States is one, have made enormous strides in the production of foodstuffs. We in America have surpluses not only of grain, but are able to export other foodstuffs as well. In fact, some commodities such as corn we find that we actually have more than not only we ourselves can absorb, but more than the rest of the world can absorb on any kind of economical basis.

One of the problems in the world's food fight is that not every nation which needs food can afford to buy it from other countries. During the recent droughts in India, for example, the United States was forced to give or lend large quantities of grain to prevent starvation of more Indians than the combined populations of North and South Vietnam.

There is also the fact that diet is a matter of habit, a matter of taste. Many people don't understand how to get along on the kinds of foods that are available. Corn meal, for example, has been a staple of the American diet for many generations, but it isn't known in other parts of the world and it is hard to develop the taste and the demand for it. This kind of habit becomes one of the artificial barriers to the free flow of food.

There are other problem in making the world food supply available wherever it is most needed — problems of transportation, the physical problems of distance and the artificial and mechanical problems of tariff barriers, international exchange, and international bargaining. All of these factors make the world food market a very special and limited place to purchase the food which mankind must eat day by day.

Now we are being told by a number of experts, most recently by Paul Ehrlich, a population biologist at Stanford University, that we're losing the fight against famine; that sometime within the next fifteen to twenty years the world will undergo enormous famine; that hundreds of millions may easily starve to death. This is a frightening prospect.

It is a prospect which not only forecasts the terrific suffering and the terrible tragedy of mass starvation, but also threatens world security. A hungry world is not a peaceful world.

I am concerned that American farming, one of the most important bulwarks against world famine, is one of the saddest spectacles of economics mismanagement that this government has yet produced. Our prices are lower than they have been in years, and our operating costs are higher. Thousands of Americans are leaving the farms. Discouragement is common among those who are raising the food for America and for America's food markets all over the world.

I think that the time has come for a reappraisal of America's farm policy; a reappraisal that will bring new life and new vigor to the most basic of all American industries. Only through such a reappraisal can we insure that American agriculture will be able to respond adequately to the vast needs of a hungry world.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

"Why is the economy booming and overheated all over the country except in our area?"

* * *

So writes a Utah businessman who sees no increase in business there. He is probably being facetious with his question. But on the other hand, one could assume that he is serious, that he has been reading all about the exciting gains of our economy and is downright puzzled that his locality is not sharing in this increased business and prosperity.

C. W. Harder

There has been much talk about a booming, overheated economy in recent years, most of it issuing from Washington.

* * *

Just a few months ago, Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, was urging Congress to hurry and pass a tax increase to head off "excessive acceleration" in the economy. (Later, the argument for an increase shifted to anti-inflation.)

In December, the President boasted: "We are now in the 82nd month of the American economic miracle. This sustained prosperity is unparallelled in our history."

Then the Secretary of Commerce forecast "a new wave of prosperity" in 1968, with significant gains in emloyment, income, profits and purchasing power. He did not mention the best bet of all, inflation, except to repeat that a tax surcharge would help combat it.

The economy may look like it is "heating up" to government business analysts who gloat over the total dollars of the Gross National Product, but if they came down from their ivory towers they would find thousands of small businesses having a dickens of a time trying to make ends meet.

This "prosperity" they talk about must be perplexing to millions of American businessmen and wage-earners, whose profits and purchasing power have declined.

Business expansion has been pretty well limited to the corporation giants of industry, partly due to Vietnam, and many of them are reporting lower profits on higher sales.

Washington likes to equate prosperity and economic growth with the increase of the Gross National Product, the total dollar volume of goods and services produced each year. But this includes the ever-increasing government expenditures, and is inflated by rising prices, so GNP gains often do not reflect what is happening to the private segment of the economy.

Increased Federal spending and relentless inflation hardly add up to what the taxpaying-consumer and businessman would call "prosperity."

If Americans are going to be hit by yet another wave of this curious type of prosperity in 1968, they may be washed up on the beach, high and dry, where they, too, are likely to become overheated.

Reception Cool

A news report from Welch, W. Va., through the United Press service related about a cool reception that Senator Robert Kennedy received in that city last week.

"Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N. Y., found his reception cool in one spot in southern West Virginia as he arrived for a whirlwind tour. A Friday editorial on the front page of the Welch Daily News printed in headline-size type across three columns said:

"Bobby Kennedy is: uninvited, unwanted, undesirable, unethical, un-American, unfit, unprepared, unshorn, unpopular, unloved and overrated." The editorial was entitled: "That's What Bobby Kennedy Is".

Farm Bureau Directors Oppose New Constitution

Maryland Farm Bureau's Board of Directors went on record as opposed to the new proposed Maryland constitution at a regular meeting last week.

This action followed talks and discussions before the Board by three delegates of the Constitutional Convention.

Main points expressed by the Directors against the proposed Constitution centered around: (1) the elimination of numerous locally elected officials, (2) the increased power of the Governor, (3) loss of individual county representation by eight counties, (4) fiscal changes, and (5) the possible increased cost to the taxpayer.

The Directors felt that the present Constitution gives the officials of the State sufficient power, subject to appropriate checks and balances to protect the people, to have an effective State government, and that needs of the future could be met in the present constitution by amending it through regular procedures.

Teaches Knitting Course

A six weeks knitting course, offered twice each week in Thomas and Davis by an Oakland resident, was completed and plans are being made for a fashion show to be held in the near future.

Teacher is Mrs. Karin Offutt, native of Sweden, who was reared in Stamford, Conn., and was taught to knit the Swedish-Continental way by her grandmother. The method teaches carrying the thread in the left hand rather than the American way of holding the thread in the right hand.

Mrs. Offutt is a Latin and English teacher in Mountaineer Senior High school in Davis.

The fashion show will feature the showing of the knitted suits by those who took the course. It will be held in the fire hall in Thomas and the city building in Davis.

The course was offered through the vocational education program under supervision of C. B. Odell, vocational coordinator.

Simple Solution . . .

We have heard a lot about the gold crisis, that the gold reserve of the United States is extremely low, and that if other countries would demand payment in gold for the U. S. dollars they have in their possession, we would not be able to pay.

There could be a simple solution. The United States during previous wars has loaned to various countries more than enough to make up for the gold we owe to other countries. What would be more simplified than to demand immediate payment of these loans—in gold? Especially should this be true of France and other countries that have turned against the United States.

An advertisement appearing in U. S. News and World Report this week was titled "No wonder we're broke!" It listed the countries and the amounts of loans that had been made to them in the period 1945 through 1966.

The countries totaled 136 and the amount which the Americans authorized the government to give or loan amounted to an unbelievable $122 billion, $358 million dollars.

And this advertisement pointed out, "If you think it might have been an investment in the future look down the list and see how many dependable FRIENDS you can find. Yet we are still giving away more billions, billions we haven't got, billions we have to borrow and pay interest on, to give away, billions we desperately need at home".

And what has it accomplished? It does look a bit more than just silly. It is tragic!

Labor Survey Has 6,113 Responses

A total of 6,113 responses were received at the conclusion of the labor survey period, it was announced by Charles Briner, manager of the Department of Employment Security in Oakland.

The survey was initiated a few weeks ago after an industrial plant representative showed interest in Oakland as a possible site for building a plant.

Included in the total were replies from 4,055 males and 2,058 females. The plant, if constructed would hire as many as 500 women and 200 men.

The survey cards, when tabulated showed, in distrance from Oakland, up to 10 miles, 1,962; 10 to 20 miles, 1,894; 20 to 25 miles, 811; and over 25, 1,446. Of those returning cards 526 had college education, 3,765 had from ninth to twelfth

Summer Theatre Plays Announced

The nine plays for the fourteenth season of the Garrett County Playhouse were announced this week by Gene Yell, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, producer and director.

Again this year the first play will be a musical comedy, "The Amorous Flea", being presented during the week, July 2 to 6. The play is taken from the book by Jerry Devine with music and lyrics by Bruce Montgomery, and is based on Maliere's "School for Wives".

All but one of the other plays are listed as family fare.

The list of plays includes the following:

July 9 to 13, "The Glass Menagerie", by Tennessee Williams.

July 16 to 20, "The Irregular Verb to Love", by Hugh and Margaret Williams (adult fare).

July 23 to 27, "Laura," by Vera Caspary and George Sklar.

July 30 to August 3, "The Odd Couple", by Neil Simon.

August 6 to 10, "Generation", by William Goodhart.

August 13 to 17, "The Best Laid Plans", by Fred Carmichael.

August 20 to 24, "Barefoot in the Park", by Neil Simon.

Plays are presented Tuesday through Saturday of each week.

Season tickets are to be available early in May and brochures will be available by the middle of May, according to Charles L. Briner, subscription chairman.

8,566 Registered Voters Are Listed

The revised list of voters on the registration books of the county as of April 15, 1968, shows a total of 8,566 persons eligible to vote. This is an increase of 160 over the figures released by the Board of Election Supervisors for January 1.

At the present rate it will still be quite some time before the total number of eligible voters reaches the total of 9,553 in effect in May, 1967 before removing 1,153 names from the registration books because they had not voted for the previous five years.

The new voting list was divided as follows: 3,330 Democrats and 5,172 Republicans, a majority for the latter of 1,842. A further breakdown of the latest official registration shows 1742 are Democratic males and 2,645 Republican males for a total of 4,387; 1,588 Democratic females and 2,527 Republican females for a total of 4,115, with 48 male declines and 16 female declines, for a total of 64, making grand totals of 4,435 males and 4,131 females, for a complete total of 8,566 registered voters eligible to cast a ballot at the May 14 special election.

The number declining included two in district 1, six in district 2, nine in district 3, two in district 4, four in district 5, three in districts 6 and 7, two in district 8-2, three in district 9, four in district 10, seven in district 13, four in district 14-1, three in district 14-2, four in district 14-3, and eight in district 16.

Republicans hold the edge in eighteen of the twenty voting precincts, with Johnson and Kitzmiller being the only ones having a Democratic majority. However three other precincts are close with Friendsville showing only a 356 to 380 edge for

Ohio Man Gets 13 Months On Five Charges

Crashes Into Car Driven By Edward Hershman Last Saturday

Norman Francis Kinser, 23, Canton, Ohio, was tried Monday, April 22 on five motor vehicle charges brought against him by Oakland Police Officer Hobart Shillingburg and was given a 13-month sentence after being declared guilty on all counts.

Kinser was the driver of a 1959 Ford station wagon which demolished a 1968 Javelin being driven by Edward A. Hershman, 21, of Oakland. The accident occurred Saturday evening, April 20, at approximately 7:30.

According to Officer Shillingburg's reconstruction of the accident, Kinser was traveling east on Pennington when he failed to stop for a stop sign, and crashed into the Hershman vehicle, which was headed south on Third Street.

The impact forced Mr. Hershman's car across the road where it slammed backwards into two cars parked in the Sharps Motor Co. parking lot and also struck a vehicle being driven north on Third by Ronald D. Lothry, Terra Alta.

Kinser pleaded guilty to operating with expired registration, for which he was given a suspended fine of $15 and costs; to leaving the scene of a personal injury accident, for which he was sentenced to six months under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Correction; to reckless driving, for which he was sentenced to 30 days under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Correction; to operating a motor vehicle with tags issued to another vehicle, for which he was given a suspended $15 and costs fine; and to operating under the influence of alcohol or drugs, for which he received six months under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Correction.

Mr. Hershman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hershman, Oakland, was hospitalized with injuries suffered in the crash, and was released Tuesday afternoon. He had let his wife and 13-month-old son out of the car moments before the collision. Two passengers in the Kinser car, Cathey Holler, Oakland, and Roy Edward Hershman, Loch Lynn, who is not related to Edward A. Hershman, both sustained slight injuries; while Mr. Lothry and his passenger, Nellie Paugh, were uninjured.

Damage to Lothry's car was estimated at $75; the two cars on Sharps lot were estimated to have damages worth $250 and $50; while both Hershman's and Kinser's car were completely demolished.

"Brigadoon" To Be Presented Tonight

Renew Efforts To Find Missing Man

Efforts were renewed this week to discover the whereabouts of Robert Warnick, 40, who has been missing from his home near Barton since March 16.

Stanley Warnick, father of the missing man, brought photographs of the man to the newspaper office and to the sheriff's office this week. A reward has been offered for information about him.

Robert Warnick was last seen at the American Legion home in Barton. He spent the previous night at his sister's home in the Barton community.

The photograph of the missing man was taken while he was serving in the armed forces during World War II.

Theodore Fike Released After Trouble Since 1964

Theodore Raymond Fike was officially released from custody on Tuesday after maneuvers in the local courts since January, 1964, concerning charges of forgery, false pretence and just writing bad checks.

A hearing on Fike's status as a defective delinquent was held in the Circuit Court Tuesday morning before Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, after it had been determined at the Patuxent institution that he was not such a delinquent. The judge released him from custody and Fike told court house officials that he "was finished with breaking the law".

Back in January, 1964 Fike pleaded guilty to four charges of forgery and two charges of false pretense and at that time was given sentences in the Maryland penitentiary and House of Correction totaling four years when he appeared before Judge Hamill.

Fike received three years in the penitentiary on each of the four forgery charges, sentences to run concurrently, and one year in the House of Correction in each false pretense charge, sentences to run concurrently but consecutively as far as the sentences to the House and penitentiary were concerned, or a total of four years.

He entered pleas of guilty in all cases. On false pretense charges Fike pleaded guilty to attempts to defraud Walt's gro-

Briner To Head Bell Ringer Drive

C. L. Briner of 710 E. High has been named Chairman of the 68 Bell Ringer appeal in Oakland, it was announced today by Mrs. E. I. Baumgartner, campaign chairman.

He will head a group of 60 who will visit their neighbors during the one day period which starts May 13, as the high point of the 1968 Mental Health Campaign. The drive will be made after 7:30 p. m., in Oakland-Mt. Lake Park, and Loch Lynn. He will have the members of the Oakland - Mt. Lake Park Lions Club as volunteers.

The volunteers will distribute information about mental illness and mental health. They will also receive mental health contributions to support science, service and social action activities of the Garrett County Mental Health Association.

City Officials, Health Group Discuss Sewage

Meeting Tuesday At Baltimore Held Favorable

Some of the details on the construction of a sewage disposal plant for the mountain top were discussed Tuesday at a meeting of State Health Department officials with Mayor H. D. Swartzentruber of Oakland, the six members of the town council, and the city attorney.

A three hour session was held in Baltimore with the Assistant Attorney General assigned to the health department, and health department engineers. Also present was a representative of Lewellyn Griffith, engineering firm, of Alexandria, Va.

William W. Grant, attorney ot the town of Oakland, said there was general agreement that in the new plan the basic objections of Oakland would be eliminated. Any sewage from Mt. Lake and Loch Lynn areas would be taken around the town of Oakland by pipe line, and not through the town's present sewer system, and there was agreement that sewage from the "dead pond" would be picked up by the pipe line.

Mr. Grant said there was also discussion on aerated ponds and aerated lagoons and the type of plant best suited to area needs. He said the ground work was laid for agreement between city and health department officials concerning the projected facility for Oakland and possibly for not only Mt. Lake Park and Loch Lynn, but eventually for Crellin and Deer Park also.

A meeting of health department officials is to be held soon and if approval of plans is forthcoming, then discussion will be held with city officials of the other towns involved as well as the sanitary commission.

Lewis Rishel to Be Honored at WVU Convocation Friday

Lewis Rishel, Garrett County young man, will be honored at an honors convocation Friday afternoon at West Virginia University, Morgantown, arranged by the College of Agriculture and Forestry.

A freshman student in the College of Agriculture, Rishel has been named to the dean's list as the result of a 3.57 grade point average last semester and an even higher grade point for the second semester. Highest possible grade is a 4-point.

Rishell is a son of the former Evelyn Kight, of Sunnyside, now Evelyn Kight Harned. He is a nephew of Cecil Kight, also of Sunnyside, who helped to rear him.

Rishel, now 18, attended Southern High school in 7th and 8th grades and then was graduated from Kingwood high school. He has changed his major to pre-medicine for next term.

A member of the Freshman wrestling team at WVU, he was considered a top lightweight competitor and will be on the varsity wrestling squard next year.

Rishel was also one of two honored guests at the annual spring banquet of the West Virginia chapter of Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture fraternity, held on April 17.

The student also has been informed that he has earned at least three scholarships for next year's studies, one for his wrestling ability, and two for his top grades.

Lions Club Plans Variety Type Show

PLAQUE HONORS LONG SERVICE—James Rook, left, president of the Oakland Volunteer Fire Department, is shown presenting A. G. Gortner with a plaque recognizing his long service to the department. The presentation took place at the annual firemen's dinner Wednesday evening of last week. Mr. Gortner was elected president of the department in 1949, and served until 1967. During his term, the modern fire hall on Third street was erected, and major pieces of equipment added. Mr. Gortner, along with Grover Stemple, are active charter members, both serving since the department's organization in 1925.

Sweitzer Youngsters Hurt In Accident

A motor bike accident near Kitzmiller injured two Elk Garden youngsters Tuesday night. Jimmy Wayne Sweitzer, 19, and Delores Sweitzer, 15, were riding their motor bike towards Kitzmiller when the mishap occurred.

The youth was admitted as a patient at Garrett County Memorial Hospital, while the girl was treated and released at the same institution.

The cause of the accident has not yet been determined.

Northern Senior Chorus Comedy Scheduled Friday

The Northern High School Senior Chorus is presenting its annual chorus production on April 26, at 8:00 p. m. in the school cafetorium. The production is a musical comedy, "Annie Get Your Gun" which features Patty Michael as Annie Oakley and George Layman as Frank Butler. The misadventures of Annie Oakley lead the whole Wild West Show into havoc until the final shooting match between Annie and Frank. During this match Annie must decide if she would rather be the world's champion sharpshooter or the wife of Frank Butler.

Mrs. Joan Lambert taught the choreography for the Indian dances. Having attended Schultes Dance School in Berkeley, W. Va., Mrs. Lambert has combined ballet and modern jazz steps into the dances. The dancers include Donna Haenftling, Linda Wagner, Linda Uphold, Betty Savage, Nancy Beachy, Kay Durst, Debbie Pugh, Ron Wagner, Roger Winebrenner, Joe Spiker, Tom Turner, Ross Glotfelty, Larry Brenneman.

Stage properties are handled by Paul Maust and Arthur Maust who have built many of the needed properties. Phil Pugh and Bill Kamp are in charge of sound effects.

Drumming up business for the Wild West Show is Charlie, portrayed by Allen Hetz. Tommy (Gary Layman) and Winnie (Kathy DeWitt) have their problems in trying to stay together.

All members of the chorus participate in some way.

Crawford Is Given 3-Year Sentence

Harold Walter Crawford, Klondike, Allegany county, was sentenced Tuesday morning to the custody of the Department of Correction for a period of three years, and was ordered sent to the receiving and diagnostic center of the Maryland penitentiary.

Crawford was tried on Monday, April 15 on a charge of burglary and also carnal knowledge. He had pleaded not guilty to having stolen items from the home of Mrs. Nellie Rosenberger, Finzel, and also pleaded not guilty on the second charge.

However, he was found guilty by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, who withheld sentence pending a pre-sentence investigation by the Department of Parole and Probation. The sentence was for three years on each conviction but Judge Hamill ruled that the sentences would run concurrently.

Andy Cosby Gets Appointment to US Air Force Academy

Anderson Blackwell Cosby IV, Oakland, has been appointed to the U. S. Air Force Academy class of 1972, it was announced by Rep. Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. R-Md., (6th). Andy will enter the Academy in June.

The appointment was made on the basis of a competitive examination taken by young men nominated by the Western Maryland congressman in February. The nominees were selected from applicants on the basis of academic and extra curricular records, a competitive Civil Service examination and a physical examination. Final recommendations for nomination were made to Rep. Mathias by a non-partisan Service Academies Review Board composed of Sixth District civic, military and educational leaders.

Cosby, a senior at Southern High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson B. Cosby III. He has participated in varsity basketball and is captain of the school football team. He is a member of the National Honor Society and the Varsity Club and represented his school at Maryland Boys State. He also holds the rank of Eagle Scout and is a member of the Order of the Arrow.

Legion To Honor World War I Vets

American Legion posts in every district throughout Maryland have announced plans to hold banquets to honor World War I Veterans. Auxiliary units are working with posts in arranging the celebrations which will pay tribute to those who fought to preserve freedom a half century ago.

The Legion was found to continue to serve their country and make America a better place in which to live, according to John W. Sloan, chairman of the 50th anniversary commission.

There will be a re-dedication of the legion's founding purposes at all the celebrations.

The 50th national convention will take place in New Orleans, La. The annual National Veterans Day observance will be held at Arlington cemetery on November 11. In March 1969, Legion attention will commerorate the original Paris Caucus during which the organization was founded.

Seek Bid For Aurora Post Office

The post office department is seeking competitive bids to build and lease the Aurora, W. Va., facility, it has been announced.

Under a lease construction program the new facility would be located on route 50, in the vicinity of the present post office. Successful bidder would construct the building according to departmental specifications and lease it to the post office department for nine years with renewal options. Bidding documents are returnable by May 17 at 2 p. m. Planned is a building totaling 864 square feet with 4,500 square feet for parking.

College Land Purchase Gets Partial Okay

Board Of Public Works Insists Land Must Not Be Strip-Mined

State officials yesterday approved purchase of land for the Garrett County community college only on condition a written guarantee be obtained that it never could be striped mined for coal.

The precaution against any chance of future mining was taken at the insistence of Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein and concurred in strongly by Treasurer John A. Leutkemeyer, sitting as the Board of Public Works.

Goldstein was aroused by a memo on conditions of the proposed purchase of three parcels of land. All three noted "does not include mineral rights".

Goldstein said flatly he would not approve the purchase unless the deed included mineral rights. The comptroller and treasurer had personally visited the county a couple of years ago to investigate a dispute over mineral rights under state owned park property.

Willard L. Hawkins, secretary-treasurer of the board of trustees of the community college, assured the state officials that its lawyer was confident the mineral rights of two of the properties could be obtained simply and quickly.

INSERT COLLEGE LAND ...

S. R. Pagenhardt, attorney to the Board of Education, said there was no coal underlying the proposed sites, and the mineral rites at present were leased to the New York State Natural Gas company in one instance and to Snee and Eberly and Texas Eastern, in another instance

He said there would be no trouble in having the lessors agree not to drill on the college property. Claude Wagner owns the mineral rights of the one tract and the mineral rights of the other two tracts are owned by the heirs of William Shank. He said the heirs were known and would be contacted immediately.

Mr. Hawkins said the college could manage with only two of the parcels since they amount to 56 acres and the other only 6 and one-half.

Authorization to buy the two parcels and the third if pos-

Is Your Name BREWER?

Do You Know That:

Brewer, an old and honored surname, is principally of English origin. It admits of at least two derivations. According to most authorities on the origin of names, it is of occupational meaning and was often applied in mediaeval times to those who were engaged in the brewing of beer or ale. It is said also that Brewer is a variant of the surname Bruer which is obtained from the Old English "bruera" signifying a heath or open land overgrown with shrubs. Thus Brewer and Bruer were applied frequently, when surnames first came into vogue, to those whose homes were upon such a tract of land.

Among the high ranking officers who served in the Continental Ahmy during the Revolutionary War was Colonel Jonathan Brewer (1725-1784) of the Massachusetts troops.

The first census of the United States, taken in 1790, has sixteen listings of persons by the name of Brewer who were residents of Maryland and heads of families at that time.

"The Brewer Genealogy" was compiled by Harriet Augusta Robinson and published in 1903.

Brewer Mountain, California is 13,886 feet high.

David Josiah Brewer (1837-1910), who was born in Smyrna, Asia Minor and whose father was a graduate of Yale University and a missionary to Turkey, was an attorney of note and served as associate justice, Supreme Court of the United States for twenty-one years.

George Emerson Brewer (1861-1939) of New York City was a distinguished surgeon and served also as professor of clinical surgery at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University.

John Withrow Brewer is professor of international law, George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

Gene Cedric Brewer is president, United States Plywood Corporation, with offices in New York City.

Willis Ralph Brewer, an educator of note, is dean of the College of Pharmacy, University of Arizona.

PHARMACY PHACTS

from Clinton W. Englander

With the illegal use of narcotics steadily rising in this country, it's important that everyone know the seven symptoms of this addiction which are so common to all narcotics addicts.

These are (1) rapid disappearance of clothing and personal belongings from the home; (2) spending unusual amounts of time in locked bathrooms; (3) inability to hold a job or stay in school; (4) rejection of old friends — taking up with strange companions; (5) using the jargon of addicted persons; (6) loitering in hallways or in areas frequented by known addicts; and (7) signs of unusual activity around hangouts and other buildings.

And if you're thinking "This couldn't ever happen in our family" just remember that hundreds of thousands of other parents felt exactly the same not too long ago.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

In the past few years, anytime anyone goes so far as to suggest there might be a communist conspiracy going, with roots in this nation, there are loud cries of "McCarthyism" or "John Birchism."

* * *

Yet there is the old saying that if something waddles like a duck, quacks like a duck, and looks like a duck, there can be an assumption that it is a duck.

C. W. Harder

A case in point along this line is the developments in the prolonged copper strike. As is well known, copper, which is also a component of brass, is a vital war element not only for shell casings, primers, but in modern warfare sophisticated electronic equipment requires copper.

The strike is against the entire copper industry from the mines through the smelting and fabricating processes. The main issue is that the union, the United Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers demands a master contract covering entire industry.

This is not practical. Several years ago the union was thrown out of the AFL-CIO complex on the grounds its leadership was communist dominated.

Now with Americans dying in southeast Asia, presumably to stop communism, there has been no domestic copper to supply the fighting forces. It has been necessary to import copper, with the normal price charged by our "allies" jumping from around 38 cents per pound, pre-strike to somewhere close to 80 cents per pound.

But that is not the entire story, either, because lately the longshore unions have either been refusing, or delaying the unloading of imported copper. While such a secondary boycott is presumably illegal, the longshoremen have just not been touching the stuff.

While the necessity to purchase foreign copper has been playing hob with the U. S. balance of trade situation, of far greater import at this time is the threat to the safety of the American fighting forces.

The situation could have been remedied at any time by use of the 80-day "cooling off" injunction provided under the Taft-Hartley Act. But in an election year there is a great reluctance to use this tool.

On the other hand, because the communists 11,000 miles away must be contained, there is no curtailment of the draft calls. But on the other hand, the 18-year olds cannot vote. And while there is a tendency to term the teen agers demonstrating against the Vietnam war as "confused" it might be well to ask just where does confusion end . . . and who are the ones really confused.

cery at McHenry of $32.50; Ray Teets Garage at Oakland, of $35.52, with worthless checks. The four forgery charges concerned forging the name of Arthur Savage, payable to himself, of $33.20; using signature of Everett Savage on another totaling $44.25; using signature of Arthur Savage on another one totaling $33.20; and using signature of Mrs. Ray Perkey on another check totaling $43.70.

Sentences were scheduled to begin December 21, 1963, date of his arrest. Subsequently he was sent to Patuxent Institution to determine whether or not he was a defective delinquent and was later transported to Brooklane Farms hospital.

He was picked up again in October, 1967, on four bad check charges, one against Point View Inn for $71.30; one against Bob's Sport shop for $71.30; one against Ritchie Motel for $61.80; and one against Edge o' Lake for $33.60. Judge Hamill sentenced him at that time to two years. In December of that year the balance of the sentence was suspended. He was granted another hearing on January 30 and on March 22 underwent a psychiatric examination by Dr. David Whitcomb at the Brooklane Farms hospital. On March 27 he was returned to the county jail and had a hearing on his delinquency status on Tuesday morning with the resulting release from custody.

Oakland Man Cited In Two-Car Mishap

Carroll William Hahn, Oakland, was held responsible for a two-car accident which occurred at the intersection of Third and Center streets about 9:45 a. m. Wednesday morning.

He was charged by Tfc. Robert Lashley, of the Maryland State Police, with failing to yield the right-of-way to an oncoming car. He was headed west on Center street at the time.

In the second car, which was traveling south on Third street, were Edna May Wilburn, Baltimore, and Wilma Stanton and Virginia Stanton, all of Accident.

Two of the women were taken to the emergency room at the Garrett County Memorial Hospital complaining of back and neck pain. The injuries were not believed serious, according to Oakland police chief Percy Lawton, who drove the two to the hospital.

Damage to the cars was termed moderate by Tfc. Lashley. Mr. Hahn was enroute to a garage for some repair work on the car he was operating when the mishap occurred.

$62,000 Is Total Price

The total price for the 62 acres would be $62,000. Goldstein said this was "top dollar for the land in Garrett County". The asking price for the smaller parcel, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Glotfelty, is $1,325 an acre. Two appraisers valued it higher.

A section of 26 acres, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald H. Glotfelty, would cost $26,000, about the same as appraised. Claude W. Wagner also had priced his 30 acres at $1,000 an acre, at least $133 higher than appraised. All of the land lies between Mosser and Bumble Bee roads. Hawkins said the cost of starting the two-year college was estimated at $1.2 million.

Announcing: A new, lower-cost Blue Cross Program

Blue Cross Non-Group 80/20 Cooperative Payment Reduces Your Subscription Charge as You Share the Cost

The new Blue Cross 80/20 Program has been designed for those people who prefer to share part of the cost of their hospital care while paying a lower subscription charge.

Those who join Blue Cross 80/20 will pay directly to the member hospital 20 per cent of the charges for covered Blue Cross inpatient services. The remaining 80 per cent of costs for these services will be covered by Blue Cross.

Blue Cross 80/20 includes most of the benefits provided under the current standard Blue Cross program. The 20 per cent cooperative payment provision applies only to inpatient care. 80/20 coverage includes:

- 30 days of semi-private room in-hospital care with the member paying 20 per cent of covered charges.
- Other general hospital services with the member paying 20 per cent of covered charges.
- Outpatient emergency and surgical care with Blue Cross covering full cost of covered services.
- In-hospital maternity care coverage up to a maximum of $150.00 after eight months under the 80/20 program. Present Non-Group members: prior to that time, coverage will be in accordance with your present certificate.

Present Blue Cross Non-Group members who are billed at home will receive instructions on converting to 80 20 with their next bill. They need do nothing at this time.

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP in Non-Group 80 20 are now being accepted for those Marylanders who are not currently enrolled in any Blue Cross program. Sneak Snowstorm Brings Crop, Bloom Worries to Area

The majority of days during the past week exhibited some cloudy skies, but not enough rain fell to make mud pies. What rain there was changed to a surprise snow late Wednesday evening, bringing worries about frozen blooms and crops.

Last Thursday skies remained cloudy throughout the day. The mercury climbed from an 8 a. m. reading of 56 to a high of 70. Forty-nine was the first reading noted on Friday, with cloudy skies changing to partly-cloudy during the afternoon. High was 62.

Saturday brought rain until mid-afternoon, with a high in the 50's. Sunday had clear skies and a high in the 70's.

Partly-cloudy skies resumed Monday morning, with the temperature 46 at 8. Skies were clear in the afternoon, while the thermometer rose to a high of 71. Tuesday was mostly sunny until noon, when clouds drifted in and remained over until Wednesday, bringing a few showers during the late evening and again in the morning hours. High for Tuesday was 63; for Wednesday, 53. More rain fell Wednesday evening, with high winds beginning around 7:30. The rain changed to snow as the mercury rapidly dropped from the 50's to the freezing mark. A few snowflakes were still visible in the air and on the ground Thursday morning, while the temperature showed 24 at 8.

State Tax Remains At Seventeen Cents

Continuation of the state property tax at the rate of 17 cents per $100 assessment was found necessary Wednesday by the Board of Public Works.

The rate will be required to pay off state debt service requirements of $30.2 million.

The state will distribute from general funds the equivalent of 11 cents of the tax to the 23 counties and Baltimore city.

Garrett Memorial Lists Seven Births

The birth report from Garrett County Memorial Hospital, Oakland, shows that seven babies were born during the past week. For the first time in more than a month, the boys outnumbered the girls, four to three.

On April 19, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Derwood Green, Oakland; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborne Harvey, Kitzmiller; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Harland Milton Paugh, Mt. Lake Park.

On April 20, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Troxal O'Brien, Deer Park.

On the 22nd, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Gary Blake Pennington, Bayard, W. Va.; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Gary Allen Willis, Elk Garden, W. Va.

On April 24, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Randall McCartney, Oakland.

The hospital listed 58 admissions and 48 discharges during the week. This morning's census was 53.

Huskies Win 2nd

Gary Reichenbecher fired a five hitter and struck out ten along the way, sparking Northern High to its second straight victory, a 3-0 shutout over the Shade, Pa. team Tuesday afternoon at Shade.

The Huskies previously had downed Salisbury 11 to 7.

Northern opened the scoring in the fourth inning with a pair of runs when Reichenbecher singled, and after Layman had doubled, the former scored on an error. Paul Hunter drove in Layman with a sacrifice fly.

The Huskies added another tally in the seventh on three singles by Brenneman, McKenzie and Hetz. Brenneman then scored on a fielder's choice. The opposing pitcher fanned fourteen.

Northern's next game will be a doubleheader Saturday at Turkeyfoot.

Seek Person For Indecent Exposure

A Terra Alta man was being sought last week on charges of indecent exposure while in the corridors of Southern High school, but James Frantz, sheriff, revealed this morning that the man was in jail in the Preston County jail in Kingwood on similar charges.

The man had fled from Southern High school when a teacher notified the principal, Robert F. Rodeheaver, of the occurrence. Mr. Frantz investigated the case and obtained a description of the man.

Fred A. Thayer, state's attorney, said he felt certain the man incarcerated in Kingwood was the same man who was at Southern. Neil Reed, prosecuting attorney for Preston county said the man had been convicted in Morgantown for the same offense and was released on bond pending sentence. Mr. Reed said the man had also committed the same offense in the schools in Aurora and Kingwood. He was being detained in Kingwood on a charge of contributing to the delinquence of a minor.

Mr. Reed further stated that the man had recently returned from Vietnam after serving there in the armed forces and that shortly after returning to his home that he had lost a child by death.

TOP WINNER—This scenic overlook built by the Maryland State Roads Commission, on Maryland Route 219, near Keyser Ridge, and Northern High school, has been Judged the top entry in the scenic overlooks category of the nationwide 1967 Highway Beauty Awards competition of the U. S. Department of Transportation.

County's Scenic Overlook Winner Of National Award

An outstanding scenic overlook on a Garrett County highway has won for Maryland a national Award for Excellence in Highway Beautification from the U. S. Department of Transportation.

Cited as a top award winner in the first nationwide competition was the "Cove scenic overlook on U. S. Route 219 near Keyser Ridge.

The entry was submitted by Charles R. Anderson, Chief of the State Roads Commission's Bureau of Landscape Architecture, in the special category of "Scenic Overlooks Action Programs, State or Local Governments".

Five other State highway departments, five civic organizations and one city were also judged winners among 227 competitors in the twelve Highway Beauty Award categories. Secretary of Transportation Alan S. Boyd will present awards to each of the winners at a later date.

Mr. Anderson said Maryland's winning entry was constructed under a program "in which we emphasize that scenic overlooks should not be built as an 'afterthought' but as part of the design of the highway itself".

He said its construction was included in the project begun last year to improve and eliminate safety hazards on Route 219.

The new scenic overlook, situated at an elevation of about 3,000 feet, offers a panoramic view of Garrett County's mountains.

Mr. Anderson said the elimination of a dangerous curve, accomplished by relocating Route 219 about 200 feet east of the old road, permitted use of the existing road for the scenic overlook. Now nearing completion, the scenic overlook is being built by the Phoenix Construction Company, of LaVale.

Included in its design are parking facilities and a guard rail made of boulders, which is set up on the edge of the overlook. Picnic tables are being erected on the slope above the parking area.

Sheets Seeking Seat in House

STOP PLAYING WITH ARTHRITIS

Some day, a cure will be found for Arthritis, a disease which so far has evaded the efforts of thousands of research workers, who are trying to solve this universal problem.

Stop trying every new pain reliever advertised by the medicine men who apparently promise much in their ads and television commercials. Analyze what they say and you can see they definitely offer you little help. Place yourself in your physician's care. Visit him at the regular intervals he suggests. Let him prescribe the medicines he thinks will do you the most good. He is an expert.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Retires From Air Force On April 1

Senior Master Sergeant Donald Dwight Johnson, 78th Civil Engineering Squadron (ADC), Hamilton Air Force Base, California retired from the service as of April 1, after more than twenty years of Active Military Service, it has been announced.

Sergeant Johnson was born 1 October, 1926, at Oakland.

He first entered active military service May 4, 1943, and has served continuously since that date except for a period of four years and eight months. During World War II Sergeant Johnson served with the United States Navy both in Europe and Asiatic - Pacific Theaters of Operations. He also has served overseas in England from February 20, 1951 to February 6, 1954, Iwo Jimo from August 20, 1955 to August 7, 1956, and in Vietnam from March 7, 1966 to February 26, 1967.

During his military service, Sergeant Johnson has received the following Awards and Decorations:

Bronze Star Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal, Air Force Outstanding Unit Award, Air Force Good Conduct Medal, Good Conduct Medal with one Silver Loop, American Campaign Medal, Asiatic - Pacific Campaign Medal, European - African - Middle Eastern with one Bronze Service Star; World War II Victory Medal, National Defense Service Medal, with one Bronze Service Star, Vietnam Service Medal; Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, Air Force Longevity Service Award with four Bronze Oak Leaf Clusters; Small Arms Expert Marksmanship Badge Campaign Medal.

Sergeant Johnson is the son of Mrs. W. A. Johnson of Oakland, and the late Mr. Johnson. He is married to the former Mary Alice Hoult of Oakland and they have two children, Dwight and Rhonda. The Johnsons now live in Aurora, Colo.

Girl Scouts Begin Roadside Clean-up Campaign for Area

Girl Scouts of the area are conducting a county-wide roadside clean-up campaign, which began April 21 and will continue until May 18, and they are soliciting assistance from all citizens.

The scouts are sponsoring a slogan contest with everyone eligible. The slogans are designed to be suitable for painting on litter barrels. Suggestions may be sent on postal cards to Box 88, Mt. Lake post office. For a prize the girl scouts of junior troop 131 will clean up a residential lot for the winner. The contest will end May 11 and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Randol, Loch Lynn, are judges.

A clean-up poster contest is also sponsored, with schools, clubs and interested groups invited to join. A first prize of $10 is being contributed by the First National Bank, Oakland; with second prize of $5 and third prize of $1 contributed by Garrett National bank.

Place of litter barrels will be arranged next week.

May 18 will be designated as general roadside clean-up day.

Interested groups of children are invited to participate. Motorists will be asked to drive with caution. All girls taking part will wear something red to identify them.

Medical Books Given To Hospital Board

The Garrett County Memorial hospital, at Oakland, was in receipt of the office medical books of the late Dr. E. I. Baumgartner, this week. They were presented to the hospital by Mrs. Baumgartner.

They were officially accepted by Irvin Feld, president of the Board of Governors who said the books would be used by staff members at the hospital for research.

Mrs. Baumgartner also presented to the hospital board the certificate of appreciation presented to her late husband by the American Medical association's board of trustees for the doctor's contribution to the Scientific Assembly from 1962 to 1967. Mr. Feld said this plaque would be placed on the wall in the board room.

Two Masonic Lodgemen Receive 50-Year Pins

Two long-time members of the Masonic Lodge of Oakland, received 50-year emblems on Tuesday evening during a Past Masters' observance at the lodge hall.

Here to present the pins to J. Gordon Mealy and Walter W. Dawson was A. Wayne Reed, of Westernport, a former grand master of Masons of Maryland. Thomas D. Browning, present worshipful master of Oakland Lodge No. 192 also presented the two men with plaques from lodge, in recognition of their lengthy service.

Some sixty Masons were in attendance, visitors being from lodges at Westernport, Barton, Somerset, Meyersdale, Cumberland, Bentleyville, Belle Vernon, Grafton, Newburg, Kingwood, Texas and California. Also attending were Homer Michael, district grand lecturer, and Louis Biggs, district grand inspector, both from Westernport.

Past masters of the lodge, occupying the officer chairs, conferred the Fellowcraft degree upon Robert Ray Ridder. Refreshments followed in the clubroom.

Campus Life Rally Attracts 156 Persons

The Campus Life rally at Southern High school, sponsored by Mt. Top Youth For Christ, attracted 156 persons last Saturday evening. The rally featured the Crestmen quartet with twelve special numbers.

Your Federal Income Tax

The Republican, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, Baltimore District, will publish each week in this column, tax information that will enable taxpayers to become more familiar with the ederal income tax laws.

Questions and Answers

Q. A fellow in my car pool filed his return after I did but he has already gotten his refund. How can I find out what happened to mine?

A. You should soon receive your refund or a letter explaining why you have not received it. An inquiry to our offices about the refund now would not speed things up but only add to the workload of employees processing refunds.

There are a number of reasons why one particular refund claim might receive faster processing than another - mistakes on a return, information omitted, etc.

Q. I just moved and have a question about my return. Who should I contact, my present district director or the one in my old office?

A. Contact the district office serving you now. To help IRS identify your return, be sure to give your Social Security number, former address, and the district where the return was filed.

Q. Even with graduated withholding and claiming no exemptions I still had tax to pay when I filed. Can I increase my withholding even further?

A. Yes, File a new withholding certificate—Form W-4—with your employer indicating the additional amount you would like withheld from your paycheck.

Q. Is there any way you can buy bonds for a child and avoid having to pay tax on the interest yourself?

A. Yes, the bonds issued solely in the child's name or in his name with your name as beneficiary. Then the interest earned on the bonds should be reported an income by the child.

Q. I'm a waitress and have to pay Social Security tax on my tips. Does my boss match these payments as he does on my wages?

A. The law does not require employers to match Social Security payments on your tips.

Q. We are thinking of renting our house this summer while we're away. If we do, will the money we get be taxable?

A. Your total income from this rental must be reported but only the amount in excess of allowable expenses will be taxable. Heat, light, repairs and depreciation are some of the expenses that may be deducted. Since you will be renting the house only part of the year, annual expenses such as taxes must be pro-rated.

Be sure to keep good records on both income and expenses so you will be able to file an accurate return next year.

Q. I filed my return weeks ago and still haven't gotten my refund. Does that mean my return is going to be audited?

A. Not necessarily. It normally takes 6 to 8 weeks to process a return. If everything is in order you can expect to receive your refund shortly.

There are other reasons for delays besides an audit. A common reason is an inaccurate Social Security number on a tax return. Correction takes several weeks if it can be made through Social Security Administration records. It usually takes much longer, though, if the taxpayer has to be contacted.

Q. If somebody prepared your return for you, should he be there when your return is audited?

A. This is not necessary, but you can have your tax advisor come with you if you wish.

Q. When you're asked for records to substantiate a deduction can you mail them instead of bringing them in?

A. Yes, you may. However, to guard against loss of your original records it would be advisable to send copies.

Sometimes a personal visit is necessary. You will be notified if this applies in your case.

Q. The amount withheld from my pay for taxes was much greater than I owed. Can I reduce withholding to avoid that happening again?

A. You may be able to reduce the amount withheld from your pay for taxes if your itemized deductions exceed a certain amount. To do this, a new withholding statement should be filed with your employer. The form to use is Schedule A (Form W-4).

Q. Our house is up for sale. In figuring any profit de we have to include the commission we pay our broker.

A. No. Your broker's commission, any advertising expenses, legal fees, and similar costs may be deducted from the sales price. Be sure to keep records of these items so you can substantiate them if called upon to do so.

Complete information on this subject is contained in IRS Document No. 5017, "Selling Your Home", which may be obtained at your local IRS office.

Q. I just got my return in under the deadline. How long should it take for me to get my refund?

A. You should receive it within 6 to 10 weeks from the time you mailed it unless the return is incomplete or inaccurate.

Deer Management Is Topic of Izaak Walton Leaguers

The Glades Chapter of the Izaak Walton League met last Friday, Saturday with members of the State Game and Fish commission concerning problems of deer management, particularly on how they affect the county's deer herd.

Present for a meeting on April 19 were Ralph Bitely, chief Maryland Game biologist; and Bernard Halla, Maryland deer biologist. Then on Saturday, April 20, the two took several members of the league on a tour of the county to see in the field areas of alleged "overbrowse" and excessive deer concentration.

Purpose of these sessions with Maryland Game officials, according to Dr. William G. Savage, president, was to discuss possible discontinuation of the local open season on does. Dr. Savage said the game officials were unable to convince any league member that there were as many deer in the woods today as there were ten years ago.

He said the local Izaak Walton League chapter remains opposed to having a doe season in 1968, and suggested people interested in discontinuing the practice should write to the county's member of the House of Delegates.

Circles To Meet

The circles of St. Paul's Methodist church in Oakland will meet on Wednesday, May 1.

Circle 1, Mrs. Wesley Schaible, leader, will meet at the church at 1:15 p. m. Mrs. Harold Harned and Miss Ethel Hesser will be hostesses.

Circle 2, Mrs. Ralph Cross, leader, will meet at the church at 1:15.

Circle 3, Mrs. Walter DeBerry, leader, will meet at the home of Mrs. Lewis Jones, at 8 p. m., Mrs. Darrell Malone and Mrs. John Browning will be co-hostesses.

Circle 4, Mrs. S. T. Naylor, leader, will meet at the home of Mrs. Tom Fraley at 8 p. m. Mrs. Scott Shirer will be co-hostess.

Flash flooding has occurred in some Southern states.

CARD OF THANKS

We sincerely wish to thank our many friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown us following the death of our beloved husband and father, Lloyd E. Parrish.

We especially wish to thank Rev. Charles Teets, the pallbearers and Mr. Gerald Minnich and the many friends who gave and assisted in any manner.

29 Are Killed On State Highways

Twenty-nine persons were killed on Maryland highways last week, according to the weekly survey published by the Maryland State Police. Fourteen of those killed were drivers, ten were passengers, and five were pedestrians. Alcohol was a contributing factor in twelve cases, speed in nineteen, and "driver error" in twenty-four.

"The driver who was drinking, the driver who was speeding, and the driver who was doing both certainly take most of the credit for the tragedy on Maryland highways last week", commented Lt. Col. George E. Davidson, Chief of Operations, the State Police. "And it was a very tragic week indeed.

"Considering the tremendous number of safety messages issued daily through the news media, it would be hard to find anyone who has not been made aware of the hazards of speeding and of drinking and driving. However, apparently what they saw or heard made very little impression on a number of drivers last week. The rest of us would do well not to make the same mistake".

Tax Collections Show $1,485,468.93

A report from Mrs. Arzella Parsons, County treasurer, shows that as of March 31, $1,485,468.93 in 1967-68 taxes have been received. The county levy calls for $1,514,000.00.

The $1,485,468.93 had been collected from five sources, personal property, real estate, financial corporations, ordinary business, and public utilities and railroads. A breakdown of the total collected showed the following:

Levied for personal property, $72,856.15, collected, $52,137.00, or 71.5 per cent of the amount levied.

Levied for real estate, $807,400.00, collected, $727,246.39, or 90.7 per cent of the amount levied.

Levied for financial corporations, $18,000.00; collected, $21,639.82, or 123.5 per cent of the levied amount.

Levied for ordinary business, $85,000.00; collected $72,676.07, or 85.5 per cent of the amount levied.

Levied for public utilities and railroads, $530,743.85; collected, $608,626.16, or 114.6 per cent of the amount levied.

Adam Clayton Powell is renewing his campaign for his seat in Congress; he hopes to regain his seniority also.

A tornado roaring through a Memphis trailer park killed 55 persons.

Little League Meeting Scheduled April 30

A meeting of persons interested in the Little League will be held at the Oakland fire hall on Tuesday, April 30, at 7 o'clock p. m., it was announced by Joe DiSimone, secretary.

The playing schedule for the season will be arranged and tryout dates also will be set up for the new players.

Mr. DiSimone said other important items would be discussed including equipment needed for the season, and necessary work to get the field in shape. He urged a good attendance.

Church Women Meet

The Lutheran Church Women of Zion Church, Jennings, met on April 7 in the home of Mrs. Robert A. McKenzie with six members in attendance.

Mrs. Herman C. Meyers led the topic, "Our New Leisure". The principal endeavors of the program were to help the Christian woman to see that time is a gift of God to be used constructively in His service; understand the factors which have brought about such a great increase of leisure time on all levels of society, and to discover the church's role and the role of church women in helping with problems which have accompanied the new mass leisure. Scripture lessons were taken from the Book of Psalms.

Two readings were given by Viola Meyers and Leota Baker.

Leota Baker presided at the business meeting.

Tribute to the memory of Mrs. A. C. Curran, former pastor's wife, was paid through an offering to be presented to the general organization of Lutheran Church Women. Fifteen memberships were sent to the auxiliary to the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, Pa.

Activities of the Week

The drafting classes and building trades' class toured the technical schools of the Uniontown area Tuesday. They left by bus at 9:00 a. m. and returned to the school at 3:15.

The traditional Senior Tea, held for the graduates, was given Wednesday. The various Home Economics classes and teachers participated in the preparation and serving the seniors.

Wednesday the County Health Department gave the tuberculosis test to the 9th grade and other students requesting it.

The space mobile assembly will be held Friday, 9:00 a. m. for the junior high and 10:00 for the senior high, and 1:30 for local elementary schools.

1968-69 Viking Staff Chosen

Recently the new Viking Staff for next year was chosen. The positions are editor, Mary Humberson; assistant editor, Rita Hummel; managing editor, John Wisor; feature editor, Sherry Bender.

Two Varsity Cheerleaders Chosen

Tryouts for two varsity cheerleaders resulted in Cathy Hinebaugh and Nancy Frazee being chosen. They will join Donna Haenftling, Linda Wagner, Linda Uphold and Pam Klotz as varsity cheerleaders.

Student Council Officers Elected

The student body voted last Friday for 1968-69 Student Council officers. The new officers are Larry Brenneman, vice president; Linda Uphold, secretary; and Grant Sutherland, treasurer. As vice president this year, George Layman will automatically assume the position of Student Council president.

Mrs. Robert A. McKenzie will lead the topic, "All Loves Excelling" when the group meets on May 19.

College Trustees Request Funds for Books, Miscellany

The Board of Trustees of Garrett County Community College submitted a request for a budget of $22,670.00 for the period of March 1 to July 1, 1969 to the County Commissioners at their April 15 meeting.

This budget would cover estimated required funds for books, salaries, and general expenses preliminary to opening the college in September, 1969.

The Commissioners are expected to make a final decision some time in May.

During the same meeting, Commissioner John Ross Sines made a motion that Russell L. Smith be appointed as member of the Sanitary Commission, to bring the number of members up to five. After unanimous approval, it was decided that the appointment will be effective from May 1, 1968 until December 31, 1970. The other Commission members are George Perrine, Walter Price, Ralph Beachly and Harry Harvey.

In other business, the right-of-way agreement and deed was negotiated and signed by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Blamble and the Board president for the Corunna road.

Plan Hunter Survey

During April the Department of Game and Inland Fish will be sending out a questionnaire to hunters requesting information on their hunting experiences during the 1967-68 hunting season.

As in the past, hunter's names have been randomly selected from license files for this survey.

Hunters receiving questionnaires are asked to fill them out promptly and return in the postage-paid envelope.

Cooperation in this survey will help the Department in furthering the development of game management in the State of Maryland.

Truck Owners Need Plates By April 30

All truck owners should have their 1968-69 license plates mounted by April 30, reminds Mrs. Arzella Parsons, county treasurer.

Anyone who has not yet received a truck tag application form must write or call the Department of Motor Vehicles at once if they are to have the application before the April 30 deadline.

The DMV promises 24-hour service after receipt of a letter or telephone call, Mrs. Parsons said. Correspondence should be addressed to Tag Application Department, Department of Motor Vehicles, 6601 Ritchie Highway NE, Glen Burnie, Maryland 21061, she concluded.

Florida, plagued by its fifth year of spring droughts, has declared a state of emergency in 30 northern counties.

Civic Club To Visit Historical Museum

The Oakland Civic Club will meet Tuesday, April 30, at 1 p. m., in the Allegheny Room. After the luncheon, the Fine Arts committee has arranged for the club to visit the Garrett County Historical Museum located on Center Street.

The Fine Arts committee consists of Mrs. Doyle Brown, chairman; Mrs. John Robinson, and Mrs. Lewis Jones. The luncheon arrangements were made by Mrs. Arthur Naylor, Mrs. Paul Naylor, and Mrs. Paul Riley.

Of the five planets visible to the naked eye, three can be seen this week. The planets Saturn and Mercury are too close to the sun for observation. Mars is visible low in the west just after sunset, while Venus may be seen just before sunrise low in the east. The planet in the best position for observation is Jupiter. It can be found as the brighest star-like object high in the sky at 9:00 p. m.

The sun shines longer each day as it rises earlier and sets later with the passing days. Today we have thirteen hours forty-one minutes between sunrise at 5:25 a. m. and sunset at 7:06 p. m. On May Day there will be thirteen hours fifty four minutes of daylight as the sun rises at 5:18 a. m. and sets at 7:12 p. m. that day.

The moon will be a crescent during the week. It will be seen early in the morning until Saturday when it will not be seen at all. On that day at 10:22 a. m. it will be in the New Moon phase. After Saturday the moon will be a thin crescent setting early in the evening and waxing as the days pass. At 4:00 a. m. on Monday, the moon will be at its apogee of 252,000 miles from earth.

During New Moon, the moon is between the sun and the earth. It would be found in the sky near the sun. The moon usually does not cover the sun, but moves north or south of it. We cannot see the moon at this phase because the sun is too bright and because the dark side of the moon is toward earth. Since the moon shines for the same reason a bicycle reflector shines when a light falls on it, we only see the sunlit side of the moon which always faces the sun.

All that is known about the universe has been acquired through careful observation by astronomers. Before telescopes were invented, a pioneer astronomer, Tycho Brahe, was given an island by the king of Denmark on which to build his observatory. Brahe's observations were so accurate that the laws of planetary motion are based on them. Another remarkable fact about Brahe's observatory is that it had running water piped to each room from a well, although it was built in the sixteenth century.

We find the first week campers from Allegany County in the planetarium on Tuesday studying the North Circumpolar Constellations. At 7:30 p. m. on Tuesday the Oakland TOPS club will visit. The NASA space-mobile will be at Grantsville today and at Northern tomorrow. Central Elementary school of Lonaconing will study planets and constellations on May 1st.

Club Receives Charter

The Casselman Valley Sportsmen, Inc., Grantsville, has joined the ranks of National Rifle Association affiliated organizations, it was announced in Washington.

CONSTANT COMPANIONS

Copyright 1968 Keister Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg, Va.

"Those three are always together," remarked Lisa's mother. She was referring to her little daughter, who is seldom seen without her beloved collie, and her well-worn rag doll. They are constant companions.

"Lisa is very sensitive about friends," her mother continued. "And this week she came home from Sunday School with a very important lesson. Her teacher told her about God's love, and how He never leaves us. Lisa came skipping into the house and announced, 'Now I have three good friends, and the best one of all is Jesus.'"

Little Lisa had indeed learned a wonderful truth. All of us need to discover it for our own lives. For every life needs the companionship of God. Let your church bring this hope and promise to you.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE CLOSED MIND

Lesson for April 28, 1968

Background Scripture: Proverbs 1 through 3.
Devotional Reading: Proverbs 2:6-11.

For most of us the greatest barrier to wisdom is our refusal to acknowledge that we have something further to learn. In his Markings, Dag Hammarskjold once observed: "' What! He is now going to try to teach me!' — Why not? There is nobody from whom you cannot learn. Before God, who speaks through all men, you are always in the bottom class of nursery school."

Rev. Althouse

A learned ignorance

This is hardly a new discovery. Socrates, the great Greek philosopher who lived before the time of Christ, once said: "As for me, all I know is that I know nothing." Coming from a man who is still remembered for his great knowledge and wisdom, this sounds like a strange statement. Yet, his conclusion is quite in harmony with the findings of all the greatest thinkers.

Spurgeon, the famous preacher, once said something quite akin to this: "The doorway to the temple of wisdom is a knowledge of our own ignorance." He had discovered that the more we learn and the more we understand, the more that we find our learning and understanding are inadequate. Only when we are willing to admit our limitation, can we pass on to the greater wisdom.

It is this failure to acknowledge his own ignorance that so often keeps man in the darkness. We find this same line of thought in the Old Testament Book of Proverbs. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge". (Proverbs 1:7 RSV) Of course, when the sage speaks of "fear of the Lord," he refers not to fright, but to reverence. If we revere God, if we approach him, not as an equal but as one whose knowledge is so far beyond our own, we will be able to receive the gift of wisdom he would give us.

Hard-headed wisdom

The wisdom and knowledge of which the sages wrote in Proverbs must not be mistaken with intellectual brilliance, theoretical learning, or the possession of sheer facts. The Hebrew was not interested in ideas as such, especially not abstract knowledge. What he sought was that which he needed to know in order to live successfully day by day. This wisdom had to be practical and useful.

The source of this hard-headed wisdom to live one's daily life, then, was reverence for God. He was not expected to be dependent upon his intellect alone. The key was his willingness to accept God's guidance. The man who cannot acknowledge his need for guidance will be too proud, too self-satisfied to accept God's direction. Thus, humility is of even greater importance than cerebral brilliance. "Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil" (Proverbs 3:7 RSV)

Unfortunately, few of us who read these words from Proverbs will feel that they apply to us. We are certainly not too satisfied with our own wisdom and knowledge! We are certainly not closed to what God would teach us! Are we really sure of that? Really?

All wrong, but . . .

Many years ago there was a stubborn old Scottish elder who vigorously opposed the union of the Scottish Presbyterian Church with the Church of Scotland. Finally, however, the majority vote prevailed and the union was approved. The man was heard to mutter to himself: "It's all wrong, I tell ye, it's all wrong. But evidently it is the will of God." Often it is hard to let go of what we "know" in order to accept the truth of God.

Isn't it quite possible that our minds too are tightly closed against God's truth, that we reject his wisdom for the simple reason that our own understanding fits in better with the kind of lives we want to live and attitudes we want to hold? Might it not be that when we claim we are merely standing upon our convictions, what we are really doing is sitting on the lid of a closed mind?

Mrs. Freda Denison will conduct a Leader Training meeting for the Home Furnishings Chairmen in Grantsville April 29 at 1:00 p. m., in the Methodist Church Basement. She announced three other Homemaker meetings for the week.

May 1, Grantsville Homemakers Club, 1:30 p. m., home of Mrs. George Diefenbach.

May 2, New Germany Homemakers Club, home of Mrs. Willie Warnick at 1:30 p. m.; Short Course Club Dinner at Bittinger Community Building at 6:45 p. m.

Home Furnishings Trends For "68"

Casual, comfortable, care-free living. This is the way of life today's furnishings must satisfy, Mrs. Denison declared. Impressions of elegance and worldliness also are demanded of many consumers, she added. Designers and manufacturers are meeting these requests and are providing us with functional furnishings for our homes.

The Flower Trend

Flowers, flowers, everywhere. Some are large, some are small. Some are bright, some are dull. And some, made from fibers, plastics, leather, feathers, beads, or paper, have been scented with perfumes!

Many flowers appearing on today's carpets are usually printed. New dyes and printing techniques make it possible to have printed designs on carpets which are guaranteed to last "the life of the carpet". Flowered rugs are increasing in availability and demand for every room, even the kitchen. Some floral designs are formed by tufting or knotting, and are more costly than printed.

Flowered bedspreads are enjoying popularity again. Matching patterns are also available for walls, draperies, slipcovered or upholstered chairs, or bathroom accessories. Printed bedroom carpeting can also be made to match the bedspread - for a price, of course.

Highly abstracted floral patterns are becoming popular for bathroom towels. Colors range from very brilliant to very soft; light to dark. Few realistic flowers are found on bathroom towels this year.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Answers Misleading

To the Editor:

Mr. Grant's letter in last week's paper under the caption of "Questions and Answers on the Constitution", contains two statements that I believe are misleading and therefore should be clarified. I quote his Questions and Answers:

Mr. Grant's Question:

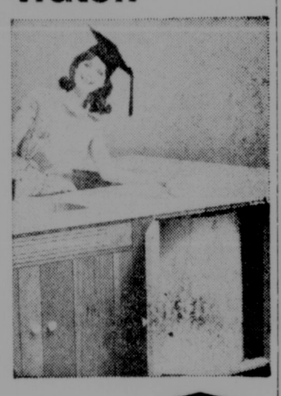
"How do you get rid of a judge who is no good and unable to work?"

Mr. Grant's Answer: "There is no way under the present Constitution except to wait the fifteen years to the end of his term of office. Under the new constitution there is a judicial disability commission which can take immediate action to dismiss a judge who is unwilling or unable to properly perform the duties of his office".

I quote below Sec. 4 of Art. 4 of our present Constitution:

"Any judge may be removed from office by the Governor, on conviction in a Court of Law, of incompetency, or wilful neglect of duty, misbehavior in office, or any other crime, or on impreachment, according to this Constitution, or the laws of the State; or on the address of the General Assembly, two thirds of each House concurring in such address, and the accused having been notified of the charges against him, and having had an opportunity of making his defense."

Thus, it will be seen that the present Constitution does provide several methods for removal of an incompetent judge, or one who wilfully fails to properly perform the duties of his office. It is not necessary to wait fifteen years to the end of his term.



Again, Mr. Grant has stated that the new constitution does not specify the salary for any official. This is only half true. Under Chapter 4, sec. 17, of the Acts of 1967, subject to the adoption of the new constitution by the people of Maryland, the salary of the Governor will be raised from $25,000.00 to $40,000.00 per year. After that the Legislature could further increase, or decrease, the salary of the Governor, and other officials.

Under the present Constitution the salary of the Governor, and members of the Legislature can be changed only by a change in the Constitution and ratified by a vote of the people.

It should be understood that if the proposed constitution is adopted on May 14, by the voters, the salary of the Governor will be increased from $25,000.00 to $40,000.00 per year and the salaries of the members of the Legislature will be increased from $2,400.00 per year to $8,000.00. If the people reject the proposed constitution, then the salary of the Governor and that of the members of the Legislature cannot be raised, except by a vote of the people. The new constitution gives to the members of the legislature the right to raise their own salaries even above the figure of $8,000.00 per year. The sky would be the limit. This also applies to the Governor.

Deep Creek Firemen Answer Alarm

Members of the Deep Creek Volunteer Fire company answered an alarm at the Paul Cosner home on Sang Run road on Tuesday morning about 3:15, as the result of an automobile blaze.

Twenty men and two trucks responded to the alarm and confined the blaze to the interior of a new automobile. No damage estimate was available.

Settlement Viewed In Strip Mine Case

Attorneys last week were trying to make an arrangement for a strip mining operation in this county to continue for 6 months on condition it did not disturb land needed for the $73 million dam on the Potomac river.

The federal government brought condemnation proceedings in the U. S. District court last week to halt the strip mining operations of W. R. Nethken and Co., Inc., of Oakland.

The 2,060 acres it wants is at the site of the proposed Bloomington dam. Asst. U. S. Atty. Theodore R. McKeldin, Jr., said government lawyers and counsel for Nethken would try to work out an arrangement for the mining operation to continue under certain conditions.

Judge Alexander Harvey II signed an order last Thursday directing that owners of the land surrender possession of the property to the government. It permitted the land owners, however, to contest the surrender in court if they make such a move by May 8.

The stipulation requires owners to give the government advance notice before moving the mining operations from one area to another, and to provide the government books and records pertaining to the mining operation for the last five years. It also limits the areas in which coal may be mined.

It also said in event the district engineer should determine that the continued use and occupancy of the areas designated constitutes an interference with project purposes, the defendants agree to cease its operations immediately upon notice by the U. S. Army district engineer.

Owners of the 2,000 acres named defendants in the notice of condemnation include Western Maryland Co. of Baltimore and Upper Potomac Properties Corp., Oakland; as well as W. Robert Nethken, Oakland, and his coal mining firm. Others are the Potomac Lumber Co., Shaw, W. Va.; William Virts, Swanton; James F. Jackson heirs, Frostburg; Earl F. Pritts, Shaw; W. A. Paugh and E. S. Goodwin.

McKeldin said the Upper Potomac firm owns most of the land while Nethken, who leases from that company, has leased some of the property to others. The federal attorney said the government acted because Nethken's mining operation was "a few days away from boring into Manor hill and doing irreparable damage to the hill", which will be a main support for the proposed dam.

To Celebrate Fiftieth

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hobart Bishoff, Friendsville, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Sunday, May 5, with an open house, from two until four o'clock, at the Hoyes Methodist church social room.

Relatives and friends are invited.

St. Matthew's Has Parish Meeting

St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Oakland held its Annual Parish Meeting last Sunday after the 11 a. m. service of Morning Prayer. A new set of By-Laws was presented to the congregation and adopted by the members present. It was announced during the meeting that St. Matthew's Church would become a self-supporting parish June 1, 1968. The local church has been an aided-parish since its founding in 1874.

During the meeting two vestrymen were elected for a four year term. Those elected were Clinton Englander and Eugene McClellan. Two men were retired from the Vestry with one ineligible to be re-elected until a year has elapsed. The terms of Willard Hawkins and Clinton Englander had expired. However, since Clinton Englander was serving an unexpired term of a vestryman who had moved from the area, he was eligible for a new term of office.

Following the annual parish meeting, the Vestry held its organizational meeting to elect officers for the coming year. Those elected were: Clinton Englander, Senior Warden; William W. Grant, Jr., Junior Warden; Ralph H. Beachley, Registrar; W. Scott Wysong, Treasurer; Eugene McClellan, Assistant Treasurer. Herman Poling was re-elected Chief of Ushers.

William Johnson Is New Superintend't Of State Parks

William H. Johnson, who served as district forester here for several years, has been named superintendent of state parks for Maryland, according to Spencer P. Ellis, director of Maryland Forests and Parks.

Mr. Johnson, a native of Hazleton, Pa., attended Penn State University and graduated in 1933 with a B.S. degree in forestry.

In June of that year, he entered the newly formed Civilian Conservation Corps and in 1936, transfered to CCC service at Swallow Falls. Mr. Johnson directed the construction of 10 cabins plus a lake for recreation purposes in the Herrington Manor area.

On April 4, 1942 Mr. Johnson joined the Department of Forests and Parks as a district forester and spent 18 years in three of the state's four districts.

During his tour of duty in Western Maryland, designated as the Western District, additional land was acquired for Green Ridge, Savage River and Swallow Falls state forest; eight new cabins were built at Herrington Manor State Park; the facilities at New Germany and Fort Frederick state parks were enlarged; Cunningham Falls state park was acquired from the United States; and several other projects became realities.

Mr. Johnson was promoted on February 3, 1960 to assistant state forester and was placed in charge of forest fire prevention and control in the Annapolis general office.

During his eight years in this position, there has been a steady decline in both the number of forest fires as well as acreage consumed. It was in 1961, with the help of favorable weather conditions, Maryland hit a record low of 257 fires destroying only 528 acres.

In 1963, a dangerously dry year, 960 fires caused destruction of about 9,000 acres; however, this was relatively low compared to the hundreds of thousands of acres lost in adjacent states.

Mr. Johnson was presented a 25-year Merit Award on March 12. As superintendent he will replace the late A. J. Pickall.

Mr. Johnson married the former Helen Humbird Offutt of Oakland, and they have two sons, William Offutt Johnson, married and living in the Annapolis area; and H. Lynn Johnson, living with them at 5 Whittier Court in Severna Park.

Northern Hi Wins Opening Game 11-7

Scoring all of their runs in the first three innings, Northern High School Huskies launched their baseball season with an 11-7 victory over Salisbury High school last Friday at Salisbury.

The Huskies scored four runs in the opening frame, three in the second and four in the third to sew up the decision early.

Wayne Ellis went the route for the Huskies, scattered eight hits and struck out five. He rapped a pair of triples. Warnick got three hits and Hunter had a pair of safeties. Lishia and O'Donnell shared four of Salisbury's eight hits.

Playing for Northern were Hunter, Hetz, Ellis, Sisler, Teats, McKenzie, Layman, Brenneman, Warnick, Reichenbecher, Yutzy and Friend.

The Huskies listed a ten-game schedule with seven of the games being with Pennsylvania high school teams; Jack Frantz is coach, beginning his fourth season.

In addition to home and home series with Southern High of Oakland, Northern will play single contests with Salisbury, Shade of Cairbrook, Turkeyfoot of Confluence, Meyersdale, Forbes, Rockwood, Berlin and Terra Alta.

The schedule:

Apr. 19—Salisbury, away.
Apr. 23—Shade, away.
Apr. 27—Turkeyfoot, away.
Apr. 30—Meyersdale, home 4.
May 3—Forbes, away.
May 7—Rockwood, away.
May 10—Berlin, home 4.
May 17— Southern, home 1:30.
May 21—Terra Alta, home, 3:30
May 24—Southern, away, 1:30.

Mrs. Ervin Frees Seimes, Millsboro, Dela., has been elected as new President General of the DAR.

DEER PARK

Dinner guests of Mrs. Mabel Timmerman, recently, were Mr. and Mrs. William Mullaney, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clary and daughter, New Brighton, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beane and family, Sebring, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gnegy, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Clary and children, Mrs. Ruth Friend and children, Mrs. Wilma Friend and Thomas Perry.

Miss Faye Ellen Nazelrod, of Cumberland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eston Nazelrod.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sollars, Jr. and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sollars.

Paula Marlene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clary was baptized Easter Sunday by Rev. William Markley at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunne and daughter, of Silver Spring, visited relatives here recently.

Revival services are in progress at 7:30 p. m. through May 5, at the Deer Park Assembly of God. The evangelist is Raymond A. Jones, Kansas City, Mo. There will be a youth service with the film "A Christian in Communist China," Thursday, April 25; and a missionary service on April 28, with missionary Dwight Dobson. Singing each evening by Rev. Harvey and others.

SUNNYSIDE UNDERWOOD

The United Women's society of Underwood is having a covered dish supper this Thursday at the Crellin hall at 7:30 p. m. for their families and a few invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Arnold and two children, Winchester, Va., spent a recent Sunday afternoon visiting their aunt, Mrs. Bessie Canan.

Mrs. Lucy Fike and Mrs. Walter Peterson have been appointed to head the Cancer Drive for the Underwood section, this week. Anyone who is not at home when they visit may telephone either one and they will pick up the contribution.

Mrs. Josephine Ladd, Allen and Sharon, Shepherdstown, W. Va., and Helen Stahl and sons, of Baltimore, spent the Easter holidays with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Effie Stahl and other relatives in the area.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Bessie Canan and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Canan were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hauser, Stemple Ridge, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. William Edeburn, Fairmont, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Canan and daughter, of Crellin, and Mr. and Mrs. John Burns and children, Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peterson and family spent Sunday afternoon at their cabin on Deep Creek lake.

Mrs. Effie Stahl spent the week-end with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Savage. Her grandson, Lydell, is recuperating from a recent tonsillectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Beckman and children visited Mrs. Bessie Canan recently.

Mrs. Merle Stemple, Stemple Ridge, W. Va., has returned to her home after spending nearly two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Effie Stahl.

Is this tiny monthly difference all that's keeping you from owning a Chrysler?

So you think you can't afford one of our Chryslers? Sure, Chrysler is expensive looking. It's bigger. Roomier. And it has a big standard 383 cubic inch V-8 engine that runs on regular gas.

But compare car payments. You'll find a full-size Chrysler Newport is priced just a couple bucks more a month than one of the most popular smaller cars, comparably equipped.

And if that tiny monthly difference still keeps you from buying a Chrysler from us, skip lunch once in awhile.

Newport 2-Door Hardtop

*Based on comparison of Manufacturers' Suggested Retail prices for Chrysler Newport and Chevrolet Caprice 2-door hardtops comparably equipped with 3-speed automatic transmission, power steering and AM radio, white sidewall tires and wheel covers. A 275 horsepower optional 8-cylinder engine is included on Caprice to compare with Newport's standard 290 horsepower V-8 engine. Comparisons are based on 1/3 down and 36 monthly payments excluding other optional equipment, destination charges, state and local taxes, interest, insurance and licensing fees.

Aurora - Eglon

The Eglon Mountaineer 4-H club met April 8 at the Memorial building with 26 members present. The club plans to attend Rural Life Sunday at the Maple Spring church. They also plan to have a car wash on May 11 at the Maple Spring parking ground. Talks were given by Billy Kitzmiller, Stanley Harsh and Bobby Kuhn. Demonstrations were given by Martha Teets and Gary Feather. Readings were by Ricky Spaid, Martha Teets, David Teeter and Melvin Fike. Ronnie Harsh had the closing prayer. Refreshments were served by Neva, Stanley and Brenda Harsh.

Memorial rites were conducted Friday at 2 p. m. at Maple Spring Church of the Brethren for James W. Helmick, 80, who passed away April 16 in Oak Rest Nursing Home in Oakland following a lingering illness. Services were by the Reverends D. B. Spaid, of Junior, W. Va., and Galen Fike, Eglon. Interment was in the Eglon cemetery.

Roy Teets, who had been a patient in University hospital, Morgantown, since March 31, came to the home of his son, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Teets, Eglon.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harman, Eglon, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and sons, Fredericktown, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Dice Hedrick and sons, of Coshocton, O.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett, Grafton, visited a short while on Sunday with Mrs. Elza Bland, Eglon. Mrs. Bennett is the former Lelah Cozad and was employed for some time at the Bland Lumber company office, Aurora.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Slaubaugh, Eglon, were Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Sattazahn, both of Campbeltown, Pa.

The Rev. and Mrs. Walter VanSickle, Hazelton, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harman, Eglon. The Harmans, who sold their farm home to Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pennington, Canaan Valley, plan to move to their newly remodeled house near Mouth of Seneca, W. Va. The Penningtons are to have possession May 1.

Charles Grove, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Grove, of near Aurora, underwent an appendectomy, Saturday, in McKeesport hospital. The Groves were former residents of Eglon.

The Aurora 4-H club met on April 8 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Myers. Delores Kope was in charge of devotions with Iretta Kope and Robin Sisler taking part. Others participating were Angela Bolyard, Cathy Wilt, Mike Myers, Angela Myers, Mark Lantz, Rhonda Steringer and Mary Steringer. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Myers to the 25 members present.

On April 8, the Aurora Senior 4-H club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Lantz. Janie Adams led devotions assisted by Linda Knotts and Beverly Wilt. Others taking part were Penny Crawford, Donetta Sisler, Mike Sisler, Sue Bolyard, Kirk Lantz, Frances Loughrie, Linda Fint and Janice Wilt. Linda Knotts gave a talk on yeast bread and an illustrated talk on plants. Janice Wilt conversed on table manners and Mike Alexander gave a demonstration on how to spring a bow and arrow. Refreshments were served to 18 members and three guests, Mrs. Bonnie Lantz, Mrs. Wilda Wilt and Mrs. Clifford Bucklew.

Mrs. Ernest Dumire, Horse Shoe Run, who was a patient in Garrett County Memorial hospital, Oakland, was moved last week to University hospital, Morgantown, W. Va.

Donald White, Rocky Mt., N. C., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Talmage White and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Miller, at their home in Eglon.

Mrs. Mollie Abernathy, Aurora, received word that her brother, Harry Selders, of Delaware, is critically ill.

Attending a Bridgewater college alumni banquet on Saturday evening at Fairview church were the Rev. Lowell Ritchie, Cash Valley; the Rev. and Mrs. Galen Fike and Mrs. Mona Hylton, all of Eglon.

Mrs. Daisy Lipscomb, Mt. Top, visited for several days last week with her brother, Robert Lipscomb and family, in Morgantown.

Mrs. Joseph Conn, Mt. Top, is a surgical patient in the Broaddus hospital in Philippi.

Friday guests of Mrs. Gertrude Lantz, Aurora, were Miss Violet Evans and niece, Verla Evans, both of Minerva, O.; Mrs. Ervin Strawser and Mrs. Glenn Strawser, both of Eglon. Saturday guests were Mrs. Margaret Myers, Aurora, and Mrs. Merle Stemple, of Stemple Ridge.

Mrs. Robert Wotring, of Aurora, remains a medical patient in Garrett County Memorial hospital.

George's Creek Survey Conducted

The house-to-house survey in the Frostburg area for the Potomac River Basin Demonstration Project in George's Creek will be completed this week. The 15 enumerators from Allegany and Garrett Counties who are doing this as a part of a basic training course will be starting in the Midland area on Wednesday.

This training course for neighborhood workers began on April 1st at Frostburg State College as a result of the joint efforts of Frostburg State College, the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Maryland and the Community Action Agencies of Garrett and Allegany Counties.

The detailed family characteristics survey will serve three major purposes. It provides information on the characteristics and distribution of population in the George's Creek area of Allegany and Garrett Counties needed to assist local people and agencies in determining the needs for public facilities. It provides on-the-job training for neighborhood workers in conducting family interviews and in identifying community and family needs. And it can assist local groups in preparing community action projects to meet these community and family needs.

The neighborhood workers are also receiving classroom training during this nine week course. Wednesday they had a class on home repairs conducted by Mr. Guy Gienger, specialist from the University of Maryyand. On Thursday, Dr. Bruce John, Area Director for the West Virginia Center for Appalachian Studies and Development in Charleston, will conduct a course on organizing small groups. Other classes are conducted each week of the training.

The Garrett County enumerators include Ethel Viola Kelly, Sandra Leigh Smith, Mary Elmira Humberson, Helen Rae Durst, Edna Roberta Livengood, Elizabeth Jane Nicklow, Ivadine Elaine Cummings, Vivian Grace Tasker, Frances Virginia Martin and Donald Curtis Beitzel.

Those from Allegany County include Peggy L. Taylor, Jo-Anna Roberta Braithwaite, Walter G. Minnick, Kathleen Ann Grubb and Donna Jean Freeland.

Three military reserve units, Baltimore, Rockville, and Middle River, are among those to report to active duty on May 13.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, Jackson E. Thomas, who departed this life two years ago, April 28, 1966.
No one knows how much we miss you;
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you,
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tenderly, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear Father
That we do not think of you.
Sadly missed by children,

Questions, Answers On Constitution Continue Today

Questions and answers concerning the proposed Maryland Constitution, which will be voted on by the citizens on Tuesday, May 14, continue to be published this week. They were prepared by William W. Grant, Oakland, the county's elected delegate to the convention last fall.

Q. Does the new Constitution change the financial policies of the State?

A. No. Maryland now has the highest possible credit rating on its bonds and the Constitutional Convention Committee on Finance and Taxation kept in contact with the bonding market representatives to insure that nothing in the new Constitution would affect this rating. The Executive Budget System which, since 1916, has kept a balanced budget in Maryland was retained. The board of review of bond money expenditures was retained. The 15-year debt limit was retained except for special situations where a 25-year limit can be approved by a three-fifths vote of the General Assembly. This will enable the State to assist the counties in the building of certain public work programs such as schools, etc., which has heretofore not been possible.

Q. Does the new Constitution provide special tax treatment for farm land?

A. Yes. The present Constitution was amended about ten years ago to allow a special "low value" assessment for farm land. This was done in the urban areas because of the desirability of the "open space" which farmland represents in densely populated localities, and was done in the rural areas because land used for farming has a very low return on investment as compared to other uses. Unfortunately, the exemption is abused by urban developers who hold vacant land for speculative purposes. There has been a great demand in the urban areas for the exemption to be abolished. Under the present Constitution, it has not been possible to write a law which would eliminate the abuse without also eliminating many legitimate farmers. The new Constitution permits the General Assembly to tax the developers and to exempt the real farmers.

Q. How does the new Constitution assure Garrett County of representation in the General Assembly?

A. It requires the State to be divided along geographical and political boundaries into 120 districts, each of which will elect one delegate to the General Assembly. Each district will contain 33,000 persons. Because of its population and geographical position, 20,000 of the 33,000 persons in our district will reside in Garrett County. With two of every three voters in the district living in Garrett County, there is an excellent opportunity for a person from Garrett County to be elected as a delegate to the General Assembly.

Q. Why can't Garrett County have a Senator and three delegates, as provided in the present Constitution?

A. The Supreme Court of the United States has ruled illegal that part of the present Maryland Constitution which provides a Senator and three delegates for Garrett County. This is called the "one man, one vote" rule. Because of the small population of some of the Eastern Shore counties, to have one senator (or one delegate) from each county would require that that branch of the legislatures have 227 members. The urban areas are already dissatisfied with the 142 members in the present House of Delegates and wish to reduce it to 80. The new Constitution with 120 delegates from 120 districts represents the maximum concession which could be obtained by the rural areas from the urban areas.

Maryland could use at least 100 more doctors.

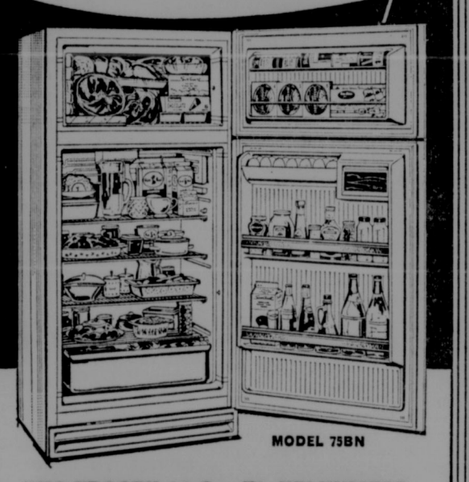
Cancer Crusade Returns Favorable



Garrett County's 1968 Crusade against Cancer is turning out to be an excellent one, both on the part of the volunteer workers and the reception by the communities, according to Rev. Eldon Shingleton, committee member. At this writing partial returns are in. Treasurer Earl Clark reports partial receipts amounting to $126.75 from Hoyes, Cove, and Accident. Neighborhood chairmen report $340.02 from Oakland and $182.45 from Mt. Lake Park, Loch Lynn and Oak Park. In addition to the residential campaign, Mrs. John O. Durst and her committee are working on the special gifts campaign. Simultaneous with the financial campaign the distribution of bits of information regarding Cancer's warning signals is being done.

The name of Darlie Lewis was added as chairman for the Hutton community. The Oakland city Crusade has been aided by the future nurses of Southern High School. The list includes Crystal Friend, Judy Sherwood, Diane Fletcher, Carolyn Mayle, Sylvia Crosco, Anita Philips, Karen Schaible, Sherry Elliott, Ruby Brennaman, Valetta Lee, Ruth Sisler, Susan Wolf, Linda Weimer, Cindy Garner, Sandy Terrant, Carol Gibson, Kathy Jones, Beverly Wolf, Cathy Beckman, Miss Mary Lou Teets and Mrs. Harland Bittinger, leaders.

County residents not at home at the time of the call may mail their contributions to Garrett Unit, A.C.S., Box 5412, Oakland.

A Lament . . .

This is a lament rather than an editorial — on the loss of freedom. Sunday there were many who were of the opinion that nothing could jar us loose from reality. But it happened Monday.

Those of us from the southern end of town and beyond learned Monday noon that we could no longer use the bridge across the Little Yough. Not only that but we wouldn't be able to use it for at least THREE MONTHS!

We know nothing whatever about bridge building and we are aware that a new bridge is needed and that the improvement will be most welcome. But how can it take three months?

Now instead of 500 yards to the center of town, it is 3.7 miles for some, more for others. Multiply that by four times a day and for 90 days and that makes 1,332 miles and at least 88.8 gallons of gas, and at 35 cents a gallon, $31.08 additional, just to get to work.

And what of the people who have no automobiles and must walk that far each day for groceries? Well it's not quite that bad because the town did make arrangements for a footbridge, which is not yet in use. We're happy they did not decide to make a row boat ferry type mode of transportation.

Can't we demand a temporary bridge during all this construction? Apparently we can't. Can we stand it for ninety days, or maybe 120 days? Apparently we can. Will we be happy to get back to a short way to the middle of town? We will. Will we be glad to have a wide and safe bridge eventually? You bet your life we will.

Suddenly Monte Vista road has become a well traveled highway.

Lt. Randall Shaffer Given Posthumous Valor Recognition

Three of the Army's highest awards were presented posthumously to First Lieutenant Randall Dale Shaffer, Aurora, who was killed in a helicopter crash in South Vietnam on November 14, 1967. Presented to Lt. Shaffer's wife, Judy, in recognition of her husband's sacrifice were the Purple Heart, the Bronze Star, and an Army commendation medal with the V for valor.

Mrs. Shaffer received the awards from Maj. Dail, from the West Virginia University R. O. T. C. program. The presentation was made in the Aurora Methodist Church Sunday morning, April 28, following the regular morning services.

Mrs. Shaffer, her 19-month-old daughter Lisa Renee, and the parents of Lt. Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shaffer, were given Gold Stars, which are presented to the families of men killed in battle.

Grantsville Woman Hospitalized After Crash on Route 40

A Grantsville woman was admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital in Cumberland last Thursday afternoon with injuries suffered in a three-car collision on U. S. Route 40 four miles west of Cumberland.

Mrs. Fay D. Ludwig, the operator of one of the cars involved, was admitted to the hospital with a fractured wrist and was reported in "satisfactory" condition. Her husband, Rev. Guy F. Ludwig, a passenger, was treated and released at the hospital.

Tfc. D. A. Tucker said the chain reaction collision occurred when John E. Stewart, Lonaconing, applied his brakes to avoid a pack of dogs running across the highway.

The Ludwig vehicle ran into the rear of the Stewart car and an auto operated by Betty J. Loar, Frostburg, ran into the Ludwig car.

All three vehicles were traveling west when the accident occurred.

Given Award For Top Journalism

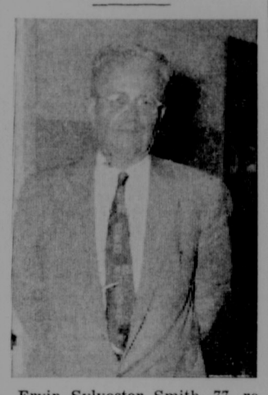
Miss Lynn Sutherland, senior student at Northern High school, recently was notified she was first runner-up to the high school journalist of the year, an annual award given by the Maryland-Delaware Scholastic Press Advisers' association.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sutherland, of McHenry.

Miss Sutherland received the award for outstanding work in journalism during the present school year. In entering the contest she prepared a folder containing clippings of the articles which she had written and which were published in editions of the school Newspaper, The Viking, from September to March. The folder also contained an autobiography explaining her activities in journalism and a letter of recommendation from her advisor, Mrs Joan Lambert.

She was presented the award, a gold plaque, at the twenty-second annual Maryland Scholastic Press association convention in Baltimore on April 27 by Richard Ensor, president.

Miss Sutherland, an honor roll student, has been co-editor in chief of the Viking for two years. She has also participated actively in the Senior Band and the Student Council. She is president of the Drama club. She recently was awarded a two-year tuition scholarship to the University of Maryland.



W. Marvin Watson suceeds Lawrence O'Brien as postmaster general.

RECEIVE 50-YEAR PINS—Walter W. Dawson and J. Gordon Mealy, in center, received 50-year Masonic emblems at a regular meeting of Oakland Lodge No. 192, A., F. and A. M., on Tuesday evening, April 23. Presentation was made by A. Wayne Reed, left, of Westernport, a former grand master of Masons of Maryland. Also presented from the lodge by Thomas D. Browning, extreme right, present worshipful master of Oakland lodge, were two plaques to the honored members. In the rear are Homer Michael, deputy grand lecturer; and Louis Biggs, district grand inspector, both of Westernport lodge. Also at the session were Robert Thrasher and Paul B. Naylor, previous 50-year members, and R. C. McComas, who is scheduled to receive his 50-year emblem at a meeting in the near future. Harold H. Harned, who received his 50-year emblem last month, was unable to attend.

E. S. Smith, 77, Dies At Oakland

Was Retired Commercial Teacher And Former City Councilman

Ervin Sylvester Smith, 77, retired county school teacher and former member of the Oakland city council, died Monday night, April 29, in Garrett County Memorial hospital where he had been a patient for one month. He had been in failing health three years.

Mr. Smith was a retired school teacher with 46 years of service. He taught in the commercial department of the old Oakland High school and the new Southern High school for 29 years, coming to this area from Clarksburg, W. Va.

Mr. Smith served on the Oakland city council for three terms, retiring in 1966.

A graduate of Ohio Northern University he took graduate work at West Virginia University and the University of Maryland.

He was a member of St. Mark's Lutheran church, the church choir for a number of years and served on the church council for several terms. He was superintendent of the Sunday Church school also for a number of years.

Deceased was a member of Oakland Lodge No. 192, A., F. and A. M., the Garrett County Historical Society. He served for a time as editor of the society's newspaper, the Glades Star.

A native of Portland, Ind., he was a son of the late Samuel and Mary Bibler Smith.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Ada Wagner Smith; two daughters, Mrs. Edith Stemple, with the diplomatic corps, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. John (Joan) Bowles, Richmond, Va.; two sons, Ervin S. Smith, Jr., Towson; Douglas E. Smith, Vienna, Va.; two sisters Miss Orpha Smith, Richmond, Ind.; Mrs. Pearl LeMasters, Portland, Ind.; and ten grandchildren.

The body was taken to the Minnich Funeral home on Second street. A Masonic memorial service was conducted at the funeral home Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Funeral services are being conducted from the funeral home this afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. Wm. Ernest Fox, pastor, officiating. Interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

The family suggested that in lieu of flowers contributions be made to St. Mark's Lutheran church building fund.

Rape Case Being Heard In Court

A change of venue trial from Queen Anne's county which began Tuesday in the Oakland Court House is continuing.

The defense attorneys from Queen Anne's county, assisted by William Grant, Oakland Attorney, challenged all women jurors, so that an all-male jury is sitting on the case. Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill is presiding.

The case itself involves Michael Eugene Conway, 19, of Queen Anne's county, who allegedly raped Brenda Jean Wright, 18, of Stevensville. The state rested its case around noon Wednesday after hearing testimony from the state's witnesses. Proceedings have not yet gone to the jury.

There was some deliberation over one of the jury members when it was learned that I. R. Rudy, Jr., had been a member of the grand jury in March. He was chosen as petit juror from one of the extra talismen that were gathered in anticipation of difficulty in selecting the jury from the regular 25 members. Attorneys agreed that he was able to serve, since he had no part in the traverser's original indictment.

Man Given Three-Year Suspended Term For Forgery

Hanson Friend, indicted on three counts of forgery, was given a suspended three-year sentence Monday, April 29 in the circuit court.

Friend who lives near Sand Flat, changed his plea from not guilty to guilty on the charges shortly before the state's attorney asked that the second and third counts be dismissed.

The sentence was suspended by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill upon the condition that Friend make full restitution of the money involved and that he be placed under the supervision of the Maryland Parole and Probation Department.

Richard Everhart Is Given Two-Year Sentence Monday

The trial of Richard Everhart, which began in Oakland Circuit Court on January 25 after a change of venue from Montgomery County, ended April 29 with a sentence of two years handed down on each indictment by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill.

Although Everhart entered not guilty pleas to charges of kidnapping and assault and battery, he was found guilty by the jury and following a pre-sentence investigation, sentenced to the two year terms. Judge Hamill ruled that the sentences are to run concurrently.

Everhart was accused by Gloria Adelene Henriquez, who testified she was in the District of Columbia when accosted by Everhart, whom she thought was a taxi driver.

Named Worthy Matron

Mrs. Rosalie Shobe, a former resident of Garrett County, who is now a Cumberland resident, has been elevated to the office of worthy grand matron in the Order of the Eastern Star in Maryland.

Mrs. Shobe is the former Rosalie Click, who taught school in this county for a number of years.

Her election was announced on the final day of a three-day meeting of the Maryland organization.

Retired Dentist Passes Monday

Dr. B. Frank Selby Practiced For Sixty Years In Oakland Office

Dr. Benjamin Franklin Selby, 87, of East Alder street, Oakland died Monday morning, April 29, at his home, following a stroke of paralysis. He had undergone surgery several weeks ago at Garrett County Memorial hospital and had been released from the hospital last month.

Born in Howard county, he was a son of the late Elias G. and Margaret Gilbert Selby. His first wife, Anna C. McQuay Selby, died in 1924.

Educated in Howard county public schools, he received his degree in dentistry from the Baltimore Dental college in 1903 and moved to Oakland in 1904. He practiced dentistry in Oakland for sixty years, in the same office in the old First National Bank building. corner of Second and Alder streets, retiring in 1964.

Dr. Selby was a member of Oakland Lodge No. 192, A. F. and A. Masons and had received his 60-year emblem July 28, 1964. He was also a member of Garrett Lodge No. 113, Knights of Pythias, and a charter member of the Oakland Rotary club. He had been an ardent sportsman during his active years and had hunted big game in Canada on numerous occasions.

Surviving are his widow, Louise (Chance) Selby; and a daughter, Mrs. Philip D. Wachtel, Jr., Baltimore.

The body was taken to the John O. Durst Funeral home on Second street. A Masonic memorial service was conducted at the funeral home on Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Funeral services were conducted from the funeral home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Dr. Lawrence Sherwood, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church, and Rev. Shelby Walthall, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, officiating. Burial was in Oakland cemetery.

Garrett Taxpayers Pay $371,092 In 1966 Income Taxes

Garrett countians filed .23 percent of Maryland's total resident income tax returns during fiscal year 1966. The amount collected from the 5,301 county residents was $371,092.

Average tax per return was $70, while the state average tax was $135.39.

Some 94.13 percent of the county total was attributed to the ordinary 3 percent rate, which amounted to $349,318. The other 5.87 percent, or $21,774, came from the investment 5 percent rate. These taxes were taken from $11,643,922 ordinary income, and $435,481 investment income.

The county paid $329,509 by withholding; $39,282 by declaration; and $80,827 with their filing returns; for a total gross amount of $449,618. Of the gross, $78,527 was refunded.

The above figures may be compared with those for 1964 and 1965. Listed below are the number of returns filed and the amount of tax paid. For 1964, 4,729 returns; $268,870 paid. In 1965, 4,940 returns, $321,010 paid. This year's amounts represent an increase of 14.32 percent over 1965.

A total of 1,649 persons in this county paid no tax; 656 paid from $1 to $20; only 11 paid over $1,000.

Revenue allotted to Garrett County from the distribution of income tax totaled $89,370, which allowed $72,467 to the county government and $16,903 to cities, towns and taxing areas.

Bank Resources Near $40 Million

Total Almost A Million Greater Than Report At First Of Year

Banks of Garrett County in this week's issue of The Republican show resources of almost $40 million dollars and bank deposits of almost $37 million.

Exact figures are available for the First National Bank of Oakland and the Garrett National Bank in Oakland. If resources of the Grantsville branch of the Liberty Trust company of Cumberland were added the total might reach as high as $48 million but that company's figures show no breakdown for the county's branch office.

The First National Bank statement showed resources of $22,078,164.87, an increase of almost half a million dollars. It shows deposits of $20,088,373.09, surplus of $650,000, undivided profits of $348,357.30, with a capital stock of $350,000.

The Garrett National statement showed resources of $18,617,845.03, a gain of almost half a million dollars. It showed deposits of $16,721,765.96, surplus of $900,000, undivided profits of $107,992.25, with capital stock of $350,000.

Detailed statements appear on another page of today's issue.

May 17, New Date For Mathias Talk On Middle East

Congressman Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., will be the speaker at a public meeting sponsored by the Garrett Branch of the American Association of University Women, to be held on Friday evening, May 17, at 8 o'clock, at the Southern High school cafetorium.

This is a re-scheduled appearance for the Congressman, who was originally scheduled to be in Oakland on March 1, but the meeting was postponed due to inclement weather.

The address will be non-partisan in nature. The Congressman, who announced his candidacy for the U. S. Senate last February, will speak on the Middle East situation. He recently spent two weeks in January in both Israel and Jordan with a purpose in mind to review the refugee situation and to make recommendations for resolving somt of the problems as well as reducing the tension in those areas.

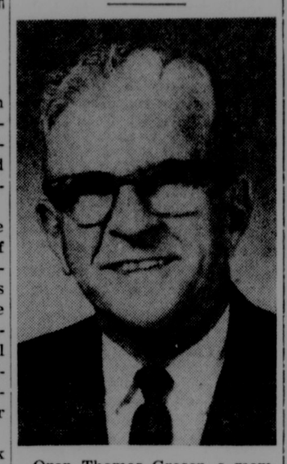
Members of the AAUW stressed the fact that the talk would be non-political and that the public was invited.

Lions Club Show Set for May 3, 4

The Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club is prepared to present its Variety Show, "In Show, That's Way Out", on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 3 and 4, at 8 o'clock in the Southern High cafetorium. Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

This is the first Variety show to be offered since 1959. Proceeds from the project will go for community work. Thomas Thayer will serve as master of ceremonies while Charles Briner is director of the chorus.

In addition to chorus numbers and several special features there will be solos by Earl Clark, Mr. Briner, and Beeson Snyder. Robert Proudfoot, James Simms, Foster Riggs and Joseph Welch will present a quartet number. Richard Davis, club president, will deliver a welcome address.



Phone Employees Striking This Week

Large "On Strike" signs may be seen at the corner of Second and Alder and also at the corner of Oak and Sixth, as telephone workers in this community join nationwide pressure for higher wages.

The picketers began Monday morning, and although a settlement is expected momentarily, there has not been any announcement of a settlement as yet.

Telephone service in the area is not reported to be disrupted, although there were reports that the picketers kept persons from entering the telephone office downtown.

Graser Named District Governor Of Rotary, 1969-70

Oren Thomas Graser, a member of the Oakland Rotary club for over thirty years, was elected district governor of district 735 of Rotary International for 1969-1970 at a district conference in Hershey, Pa., over the weekend. He will succeed Arthur E. Pollock of Altoona, Pa., at the end of his 1968 term.

He was chosen by ballot over his opponent, Rev. Robert J. Keeler, Bellefonte, Pa. His term of one year begins July 1, 1969, during which time he will visit and address all 40 clubs with 2,000 members and direct Rotary activities of district 735. Retiring governor is Lee Mullendore, of Hagerstown.

District 735 comprises some forty Rotary clubs in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Maryland, running from the northern boundary of Pennsylvania at Coudersport, to Martinsburg, W. Va., and east to Hagerstown.

Attending the district conference were Mr. and Mrs. Graser, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Denison, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Rev. and Mrs. Eldon Shingleton.

Mr. Graser taught vocational agriculture at Oakland High

Two Markers For Revolutionary War Veterans Placed

In the continuing program of obtaining government markers for Revolutionary War veterans buried in the County, two more were obtained and were erected on Tuesday, April 16.

One marker was for Michael Paugh, who is buried in the Mt. Zion Church cemetery; the other was placed for Richard Tasker, who is interred in the Hamill Cemetery, near Kitzmiller.

These markers were placed for the above veterans by Mr. and Mrs. Randall R. Kahl, of Mt. Lake Park. This young couple has been active in this work for some time. The Garrett County Historical Society is assisting in the program.

Lions Elect

Robert E. Proudfoot was elected president of the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club and will succeed Richard L. Davis. The officers will assume office on July 1.

Bus Operators Receive Raise As Requested

Commissioners To Provide $21,000, Education Board $21,000

A motion that would in effect provide the school bus operators of the county the ten percent increase they had requested earlier, was passed by a 2 to 1 decision at a meeting of the County Commissioners on Monday.

The motion, made by Allen S. Paugh would provide $21,000 for the bus operators, with the County Board of Education providing the additional $21,000 needed. The motion was seconded by Hubert Friend, with J. Ross Sines voting against the motion.

The amount needed from the Board of Education had previously been okayed.

Mr. Paugh said that several weeks ago he had made a motion that the Commissioners provide $30,000 for the increase with the Board of Education providing the balance of the $42,000 needed, there was no second. On Monday Mr. Paugh rescinded his original motion and made the one that eventually was seconded by Mr. Friend.

Mr. Paugh pointed out that the bus operators had received no increase since 1960 and since that time the price of gasoline had increased 3 9/10 cents a gallon, tires up 25 percent, labor for mechanics had increased and parts for buses had increased three times.

The Board of Education earlier had approved the 10 percent increase in school bus contracts. The Contractors met Monday, April 8, with the County Commssioners with no decision having been reached.

It was a known fact that the state had indicated it could do nothing for school bus operators this year. Mr. Sines had maintained that the state should be the instrument for increasing the contracts.

Citizens Lose Use of Yough Bridge, 3 Months

Residents of the town of Oakland, across the Little Youghiogheny River bridge, and those residing south of the town limits in that area, became aware on Monday that they would be somewhat isolated from the rest of the community, when workmen of the George F. Hazelwood company closed South Third street to traffic and began to dismantle the old Little Youghiogheny River bridge.

They became more concerned later in the day when they were informed that the street would remain closed for at least three months and, depending on the weather, possibly longer.

The improvement project was temporarily halted last fall so that people would still be able to use the bridge during the winter and early spring months.

This is a federal aid project, with the county and town of Oakland contributing a share of the total cost. This was a project joined last year with the improvement of the Old Deer Park road. That project was started last fall under contract by the Phoenix Construction company.

Cost of both project is $252,831.21 with the federal government providing $115,600, leaving a balance of $137,231.21 for the county and town of Oakland. The cost of the bridge was set at $105,585.55 and the cost

5 County Women Attend Workshop

Five county women traveled to Clear Spring last Thursday to attend a Farm Bureau Women's Committee workshop. Among the group were Mrs. B. O. Aiken, chairman for the Garrett County Women's Committee, Mrs. Herbert Harman, Mrs. Wayne Hamilton, Mrs. Parker Warnick and Mrs. Carl Miller.

Mrs. James Bigelow, State Chairman of the Farm Bureau Women's committee, guided the group in following the theme, "Focus for Action".

The morning session consisted of an explanation of the proposed Constitution, with a pro and con discussion. In the afternoon session, those present were divided into six groups, which were so arranged that at least one member from each county was in a group. The groups then deliberated the rising cost of labor, marketing, the cost of owning and maintaining farm equipment and creating a better understanding between farmers and the consuming public, and conferred on ways the Farm Bureau Women could aid in solving the problem.

A Lesson For Us...

One of the Founding Fathers of our country warned a long time ago that internal weaknesses might present a greater threat to the perpetuation of of our country than foreign military aggression. We have now had a first-rate example of how internal weakness can wreck a nation. Within a space of 22 years following World War II, the British Empire disintegrated. The obituaries of Britain's decline have been documented in the world's press. What Hitler and his mighty air armada were unable to accomplish — the extinction of Britain as a world power — is now a fact of history. From all accounts, the demise of Britain is traceable largely to socialist leaders. The energy - sapping philosophy of the welfare state which they advocated apparently played an important part in the rapid decline of British fortunes. U. S. citizens should take note that even the mightiest nation can be brought down by its own weaknesses—just as was predicted nearly two centuries ago.—Industrial News Review.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

The numerous changes that would be required in our County Government, and our Courts, if the new Constitution is adopted, would surely prove costly in money and citizens rights. It would grant powers to the Governor and certain State and County officials that they do not now possess, and it would take away from the people a corresponding amount of remaining rights which we now enjoy.

The changes wrought in our County Government would be burdensome and costly. Most of our county officials would be eliminated as elective officers. Some of them, such as our three County Commissioners, would be replaced by a five or seven man County Council. The powers of our County Council would be different from the present Commissioners, in that they would have authority to make the laws governing the county. They also would have power to hire certain administrators to run the County.

The office of Sheriff and that of the clerk to the Circuit Court will be eliminated. These officers will be appointed, perhaps, under a different title. Orphans Court, Register of Wills, and Trial Magistrates will be eliminated.

Our present Circuit Court would become the Superior Court for the County. Instead of the Orphans Court and the Trial Magistrates we would have a District Court. The District Court Judge would have to be a lawyer with five years of practice. Both the Superior Judge and the District Court Judge would be appointed by the Governor. (Except our present Judge would continue to serve as the Superior Court Judge).

After an appointed Judge has had two years on the Bench he would run for election on his record. No other qualified lawyer would be permitted to oppose him. We would be granted the great privilege of voting "YES" to retain him, or "NO" to unseat him. then, if there are more "No" votes than "Yes" votes, another judge would be appointed by the Governor and we would go through the same motions again, never having had a chance to nominate and elect a Judge chosen by the people. Special elections might have to be arranged for the people to participate in these Russian type elections. The cost would be upon our taxpayers.

A unified concept of the court system would replace the present system of independent courts at various levels, appointment of judges coming through the Governor. Statewide administration and supervision would extend in a direct chain from the Court of Appeals in Annapolis to the lower courts in the counties.

Many members of our Legislature, thousands of our thoughtful citizens, and a fair percentage of our lawyers are concerned about the effect of this kind of system upon our courts. They have expressed fear that such powers coming from above might destroy the independence of our judges.

THE DECLARATION OF RIGHTS in our present Constitution states: "That the independency and uprightness of judges are essential to the impartial administration of justice, and a great security to the rights and liberties of the People".

April 30, 1968

To the Editor:

As one who ran unsuccessfully to be a delegate to the Maryland Constitutional Convention I want to express to the voters of Garrett County and to my friends, who voted for me, my opinion of the NEW Constitution.

Let me say at the start that, when I was campaigning I studied and read what were considered to be the best of the present state constitutions. More than that I read and reread our present Maryland Constitution. Furthermore I have read every word I could find about the making of our proposed Constitution.

As a result of the above I am firmly convinced that the only people who are opposed to the NEW Constitution are either those who do not understand it or those who, for political reasons, like Mr. Goldstein, are against it because it strips them of power.

It was my privilege, on March 29, to attend an all-day workshop at the University of Maryland which pointed up the good and bad in the New Constitution and as well as a comparison of it with the present Constitution. I learned that the NEW Constitution is now considered by most political scientists a TEXTBOOK MODEL - better even than that of Alaska which was pointed to as the best by scholars up to now. According to many authorities the making of better constitutions for our states will be set back 50 years if we defeat this new document on May 14th.

In my opinion it is better even than Pennsylvania's revised constitution which was recently adopted by a 2 to 1 majority.

It does have a few parts, perhaps, which anyone could object to but, by and large, when considered as a whole, it seems to me to be just what Maryland needs for this twentieth century just as the present 101 year old document was quite sufficient for the 19th century.

With about one-half of the delegates being lawyers I expected a constitution filled with statutes like the present much over-loaded Constitution. However under the guidance of a great leader, Mr. Eney, they came up with a people's document which our people can both read and understand. Furthermore it is concise containing only about 14,000 words, about one-sixth of the words that are in the Constitution now.

On May 14th let us show the entire United tSates that we are just as intelligent as the voters of our neighboring state of Pennsylvania.

Commissioners Purchase Safe For Magistrate

At their April 22 meeting, the Board of County Commissioners for Garrett County decided that a safe should be purchased from Oakland Office Supply Company for the use of Oakland Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney. The safe, which cost $90, is now in the Magistrate's office.

A letter was received by the Commissioners from Frank R. Corliss, Jr., official county surveyor, who made a formal protest against the practicing of land surveying by Herbert McRobie.

The letter, dated April 15, alleged that the Garrett County Roads department is soliciting private surveying.

Amended by the Commissioners at this meeting was the resolution-application for a state loan to finance the addition to Grantsville School. An application for $94,250 replaced and voided an application signed April 4 for the amount of $100,000. The move was made necessary since only $94,250 is available this year.

William Shoemaker, assistant State Supervisor of Assessments for the area including this county; Jerome Moyer, supervisor of Assessments for Garrett County; Elwood Wilt and Melvin Custer, members of the local Department of Assessments, discussed local assessment and tax matters with the Commissioners.

Herbert Sharpless asked that the Sharpless Road in the Mt. Zion area be given some maintenance work.

James A. Baker and Guy Jay, representing themselves and other users of the Finzel Road extension, asked that dust conditions be eliminated and practice of snow plows turning on private property be discontinued.

Mrs. Carson Miller appeared before the Board to pursue the matter of complaints against the ditches and sewerage near her home on old Route 219 of Oakland. Her complaint is to be referred to the County Roads Department and Health Department.

Joseph Tichnell, James Tichnell, Foster Tasker and Louis Sharpless asked that Walnut Bottom Road be widened from the end of hardtop to the end of the road. With the exception of Mrs. Miller's complaint, all matters concerning road conditions are to be investigated by the Board.

Floor Covering Is Homemaker Topic

During the month of May the Homemaker Clubs will study the topic, "Care of Smooth Surface Floor Coverings" and the new "Coverings on the Market". The Home Furnishing chairmen will present the lesson in each club.

Dates of meetings:

May 7, 1:30 p. m., Hoyes Club, home of Mrs. Emerson Bishoff; 8:00 p. m., Casselman Valley Club, home of Mrs. Ronald Gillium with Co-Hostess, Mrs. Peter Hoffman.

May 8, 1:30 p. m., McHenry Club the E.U.B. Church, William Grant will be the speaker and talk on the proposed Maryland Constitution; 8:00 p. m., Route 40 Club, Route 40 School.

May 9, 10:00 a. m., Meadow Glade Club with Mrs. Howard O. Jones; 8:00 p. m., Oakland Club, home of Mrs. Harold G. Bittinger. Members are to bring birthday gifts for birthday month, and are requested to be present to take picture for County Scrapbook.

The WSCS will meet at the United Methodist church, Thursday, May 2.

Bids Rejected on School Addition

Three bids were opened for the Bloomington School addition in the office of the Garrett County Board of Education Monday. All three bids exceeded the budget allowance for the four classroom and gymnasium addition. Bids were submitted by the Wilson Construction Company in the amount of $275,000.00, the Phoenix Construction Company in the amount of $266,388.50, and the Hazelwood Construction Company in the amount of $252,380.00. All bidders were from Cumberland.

The Board rejected all bids and asked the architectural firm of Altman & Altman to review plans for cost reduction so that rebidding or negotiation can take place at the earliest possible date.

Recordation Tax Doubled In County

As of May 1, the recordation tax on deeds and other instruments recorded in the Office of the Circuit Court for Garrett County was raised from $1.10 to $2.20 per $1,000 purchase price.

Senator Mary L. Nock, Wicomico county, introduced the bill (SB575) at the last session of the General Assembly. Between introduction and enactment, SB575 was amended to include Garrett, Allegany, and Dorchester counties.

The bill provides that: "On instruments conveying title to property, the tax shall be at the rate of $1.10 for each $500.00 or fractional part thereof of the actual consideration paid or to be paid and in the case of instruments securing a debt, the tax shall be at the rate of $1.10 for each $500.00 of the principal amount of the debt secured."

of the Deer Park road improvement $97,127.50, with additional charges totaling $50,118.16. Bids were opened last June 20.

The town was making plans this week to provide a foot bridge over the stream to provide a walk-way for pedestrians who have no automobiles and who must get to town to shop for food and other items.

Those having automobiles are required to travel to town by way of Monte Vista road, to U. S. 219, then north to Oakland, a distance of four miles from the bridge to the center of town, consuming six or seven minutes.

According to the present schedule it might be August before the bridge is completed and normal traffic may move again.

36 Properties Offered At Delinquent Tax Sale

Thirty-six pieces of property are being advertised this week at tax sale by Mrs. Arzella Parsons, county treasurer, and Joseph H. Welch, former treasurer. The sale is scheduled to occur on Friday, May 24, in front of the Court House in Oakland.

The properties so advertised are for delinquent taxes for the years 1965, 1966 and 1967.

This is the first time since May, 1966, that properties have been offered for sale for delinquent taxes.

Last Thursday Set Chilly Pattern For Remainder of Week

Last Thursday's light snow, cloudiness, and chilling temperatures repeated itself several times through the week, with the exception of snow.

The high noted April 25, the day it snowed was 37, with more clouds and falling temperatures in the afternoon. Friday was sunny, with a high in the low 50's. Saturday was damp and cold, with a high in the mid-forties, while Sunday managed to uncloud the skies and raise the thermometer to a high in the 50's.

Frost was noted both Sunday and Monday mornings, even though Monday's skies were cloudy. From an 8 a. m. reading to 41, the mercury climbed to a high of 56. Tuesday had a high of 49, with high winds and some thunder showers in the afternoon.

Wednesday and Thursday both began with sunny skies; Wednesday had a high of 57 after an early morning reading of 44. On Thursday, there was noticeable frost and a 41 degree reading at 8.

Fire Alarm Unexpectedly Rings At Southern High

The firm alarm sounded unexpectedly Monday morning at Southern High School, causing the evacuation of the pupils for a short time.

Smoke wafted through the main floor lobby and halls, but no flames or damage resulted from the "fire," which was reportedly the result of lighting the incinerator from the bottom instead of the top.

Dear Ben Franklin Customers,

We are dropping you a few lines to let you know what is going on with J. W. Jackson's Ben Franklin Store in Oakland. We have served Oakland and the surrounding areas for the past 35 years, and we will continue to serve our customers with a fine Ben Franklin store in the future.

We are now located at the old Monongahela Power Company office next to Rudy's Store in Oakland. We are sorry if we have caused you any inconvenience in the present location. We are pressed for space and are not able to handle the complete variety of merchandise we did in our old location.

We are having a new store built by William Shirer company of Oakland. The store will be built in the same location as the old Ben Franklin store next to the old First National Bank building.

The new Ben Franklin store will be one of the most modern stores in the chain of some 2,400 stores of Ben Franklin. Ben Franklin is a franchised store operation. It is nationally known, and locally owned. We have been part of this operation for the past 35 years. This is why we are able to give you a bigger variety of merchandise at a lower price. Ben Franklin was originated some 92 years ago. Ben Franklin's main office is in Chicago, Ill. They have stores in every state.

The new Ben Franklin store in Oakland will be located at 114 Second street at the same location as before. It will consist of two floors. It also will be air conditioned. It will be 40 feet wide by 80 feet in length. It will be fixtured with the newest in metal fixturing. It will have much more display than in the past. We will carry a large selection of merchandise in every department. And it will be self-serve as in the past.

We are dropping you this little note because there have been so many inquiries on what will J. W. Jackson 5 and 10 do. Will they rebuild or not. So, we are very happy to say that we are investing a large sum of money to bring you, our customers, one of the newest and most modern 5 and 10's. We will have this new store opened some time in August of this year. We thank you for being patient with us, and hope that we have not inconvenienced you since the time of our tragic fire of January 3, 1968.

Signed,
Management of

Over 325 Attend Testimonial For Willard Hawkins

A testimonial dinner in honor of Willard L. Hawkins, who will retire as county superintendent of schools on August 1, was attended by over 325 persons on Tuesday evening at the Southern High school cafetorium in Oakland.

The dinner was planned by the Garrett County Council of Parents and Teachers and had school personnel, teachers, P-TA members and citizens in attendance.

Clinton Englander, member of the Board of Education, served as master of ceremonies. Mrs. John D. Loizeaux, president of the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc., spoke for the 287,000 state PTA members on "Values that Count". She presented Mr. Hawkins with a certificate for "Outstanding Volunteer Service", in lieu of life membership recognition which he had previously received.

Mrs. Esther Yoder, principal of Yoder school, spoke of the work that had been accomplished by Mr. Hawkins over the past 13½ years that the man had served in this county. She called it a "testimonial to a man of education".

Gift presentations were made by Mrs. Herbert Leighton and Paul Mateer for the county PTA council, Courtney Tusing for the Southern High PTA, C. C. Bender for the county bus drivers and Mrs. Ruby Adams for the Allegany County PTA organization.

Willard Elliott, who had served in numerous capacities in Parent-Teacher groups and also as county PTA president, was presented with a life membership pin.

A brochure was prepared by Aza Stanton recounting the work of Mr. Hawkins throughout his years of service, which carried photographs of all the schools which had been enlarged and constructed. These included the Southern High complex, Northern High vocational shop, Loch Lynn School, Yoder School, Dennett Road, Southern Agricultural center, Center street school, Kitzmiller school, Route 40 school, Red House, Bloomington, Crtllin, Accident, Grantsville, Swan Meadow, the outdoor education complex at Northern, a paragraph about the planetarium and science center at Oakland and a photo of the proposed community college which will be located at McHenry.

Community Center Will Open Soon

Men of the Department of Labor, Nelson Program, are rehabilitating a building in Kitzmiller donated to the Community Action Committee by Earl Pritts of Shaw, W. Va.

The building, located on Union street, will be opened within six weeks, according to Brad Rinard, executive director Community Action center, and will be staffed with Community Aides now being trained under the Nelson Program at Frostburg State College. In addition, secretarial services and office facilities will be offered in a program for any agency which wishes to extend its services to the Kitzmiller area. Space will be provided on a scheduled basis to such agencies as Employment Security, Farmers Home Administration, Cooperative Extension Service, Welfare Department and Health Department in an effort to bring the services of these agencies closer to the residents of Kitzmiller.

Through the Community Service Center residents of Kitzmiller and surrounding areas will be provided a facility and guidance for programs and activities geared to meet the needs of their particular community.

The building was donated by Mr. Pritts for a period of two years with an option for renewal of use at the end of that period.

Where there's a WILL, there's a WAY!

... make it YOUR way!

If you die without a will, the State will distribute your property according to law.

Your estate will be passed on to individuals, regardless of your wishes.

BUT ...

make a will and your property, including cash, investments, home and other real estate, all of it, goes to those you designate. Yes, to those you WANT to have it, and in a manner which will incur the least tax.

Our TRUST DEPARTMENT will give you the details without cost or obligation. And our bank, serving as your executor, will carry out your wishes, exactly as you direct under your will. Of course, your attorney, or the lawyer of your choice, is always counted upon for advice and to draft the document properly for your signature.

Events Above The Mountain Top

Paul S. Frank Jr.

This week we are again treated to a meteor shower. It will occur on Saturday. The maximum will be at 11:00 p. m. and one should see twenty meteors each hour near that time. The shower will be visible on Friday and on Sunday nights too, but not as many meteors will be visible on those nights.

The daylight hours steadily increase as the sun continues its apparent motion to the north. This week they increase thirteen minutes as there are thirteen hours and fifty five minutes of daylight today compared to fourteen hours and eight minutes on May 8. The sun rises at 6:18 a. m. and sets at 8:13 p. m. today. Next Wednesday the sun rises at 6:11 a. m. and sets at 8:19 p. m.

The moon is waxing this week, passing through its first quarter phase on Sunday at 11:55 a. m. It will rise during the day and set near midnight.

The planets Mercury, Venus, Mars and Saturn are too close to the sun to be easily seen this week. A very sharp eyed person might be able to see Venus and Saturn just before sunrise though. The planet Jupiter is high in the western sky at 9:00 p. m. It is moving slowly eastward through the stars.

Time is based on the rotation of the earth on its axis. Since the earth rotates a full circle, 360 degrees in twenty-four hours, it rotates 15 degrees in each hour. To make traveling more convenient time zones have been established. These zones are centered on meridians of multiples of fifteen degrees. Therefore the Eastern time zone is centered on the 75 degree meridian; the Mountain time zone is centered on the 105 degree meridian and so on for all the time zones. The change to daylight saving time causes us to use the time of the time zone that is east of us, the Atlantic time zone centered on the 60 degree meridian, even though we do not live in that geographical area. Therefore time by our clock is one hour later than the same time by the sun for our area. This allows many people to take advantage of the daylight which occurs while they normally sleep in the morning.

In the planetarium next Wednesday we find the Yoder School studying space travel and satellite orbits using the NASA exhibit. The second week campers from Allegany County visit on Tuesday to study the North Circumpolar Constellations. Mrs. Minnick's 3rd grade from Rt. 40 will study the NASA exhibit today. Tomorrow Mrs. Riggs' 5th grade class from Loch Lynn will study geography. Mr. Strauss's eighth and ninth grade classes from Northern will be studying the moon on Monday and Tuesday.

Northern FFA Takes Two Firsts In Oakland Contest

Future Farmers of America teams from Northern High School won two first places in a regional FFA contest held Friday at Southern High School in Oakland. Northern teams also took a second place award and a third place award.

Flintstone High School teams also took two first, one second and one third place awards, while Southern's teams took two seconds and two thirds.

Taking part in the event were some 125 FFA members of Western Maryland.

The Northern High team with Gary Sines, Jack Coddington, Sam Michael and Ronald Frazee won the livestock judging contest. Southern placed second, with J. R. Martin, Jr., Robert Miller and John Sweitzer on the team. Flintstone, with Gary Sbriver, Robert Burton, Steve Hartley and Aden Stonestreet, placed third.

The milk judging contest was won by a Northern team composed of Danny Weimer, Eddie Hauser and Michael Weimer. Flintstone, represented by Joseph Davis, Charles Statler, Kim McCuster and Larry Moyer, won second place and the Southern team formed by Tom Wildesen, Carlton Glotfelty and Clayton Miller was in third place.

The Flintstone chapter took first place in the poultry judging. Lee Heavner was the high scorer in the Flintstone team, which included George Robinette and Kenneth Gilpin.

Southern High took second place. Members were James Zimmerman, Ernest King, Thomas Gordon and Philip Bowman.

Northern High School was in third place, with team members including Donald Schmidt, Lowell Fike, David Sisler and Donald Savage.

The Flintstone team took first place honors in dairy cattle judging. Members of the FFA team were Gary Humbertson, Robert Humbertson, Robert Potts and David Kyle.

In second place was a Northern High team composed of David Burow, George Beitzel and Richard Rush. A Southern High team composed of Gary Iden, Delbert Waybright and William Frazee was in third place.

The teams were coached by Richard Bishoff, Southern; Harold Loughrie, Northern, and Robert Saville, Flintstone.

Judges were Dr. William Curry, Dr. Daniel Bigbee and Dr. James Casson, of the University of Maryland, and Howard White, manager of the Carnation Milk Company's Oakland plant.

Green Street Students Plan Summer Camp

Plans for a four-day summer camp at Camp Galilee, near Terra Alta, for children from the Green Street school and other children from Preston county, West Virginia, were discussed at a meeting last Wednesday of the Garrett County Chapter for Retarded Children.

The camp will be held July 28 to 31. Some 30 children from the two areas are expected to attend. The camp will be mostly for relaxation and fun, according to Mrs. Madelein Blamble, one of the instructors. She said there would be no arts and crafts taught as the school year was mostly arts and crafts.

Mrs. Blamble said the camp was a new project, and through efforts of Mrs. Blamble and the Church of the Brethren a bake sale is being planned to be held at Browning Foodland for Saturday, May 4 to help raise funds to defray some of the expenses. Rev. Owen Stultz, district director of the Church of the Brethren, is assisting in the plans.

KITZMILLER

Mrs. Della Martin, Cumberland; Mrs. Elva May Butts, Gorman; Mrs. Mame Shank and Mrs. Grace Evans represented the Kitzmiller Presbyterian church, April 25, at a Presbyterial at Keyser.

The Women of the Presbyterian church will present a film, "The Birthday Objective," Sunday, May 5, at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

Mrs. Lillian White, Bayard, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Arlie W. Barrick.

Mrs. Hazel Wilson visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kesner and family, Mt. Storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Barton and family, Elkins, visited friends and relatives, Saturday.

Visiting Mrs. Tina James over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. James Muir and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Larry James and son, of Midland, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pritts and family, Elk Garden.

Miss Pat Van Hise, of Silver Spring, and Jerry Milavec, of Hyattsville, spent the week-end visiting friends and relatives. They were accompanied here by the latter's mother, Mrs. Beulah Milavec.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Jones, of Westernport, visited friends and relatives, Friday.

Mrs. Minnie McKean spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Jean Sollars, Oakland.

Ray Barton, of Oberlin, O., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Alma Barton.

Miss Gladys Hamill and Mrs. Alyce Iman were recent business visitors in Winchester, Va.

Mrs. Hallie Pritts returned after visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Anderson at Chevy Chase.

To have a town clean and beautiful should be the ambition of everyone of its citizens.

Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor, and with the hearty approval of many conscientious citizens, I hereby proclaim

May 13 Through May 17

CLEAN UP & PAINT UP WEEK

Town Trucks Will Haul Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

- You are being asked to:
- Clean up your rubbish
- Banish the plague spots
- Clean up those vacant lots of rubbish, weeds and junk

We need a thorough cleaning and renovation. It is the sensible thing to do for health, safety, pride and happiness of all our people.

If you will cooperate and comply with this simple request, you will avoid the expense of having the town do your job and rendering you a bill.

If our town employees should miss any rubbish during this campaign do not hesitate to call City Hall, phone 334-2691, giving name and place of same, and it will be removed.

Mayor and Town Council of Oakland

H. D. Swartzentruber, Mayor

it's the little things that make gas heat so great!

The cost, for instance.

There are a lot of great things about Gas heat. You take them for granted. Clean, circulating, whole-house heat seems as natural as . . . fresh air. But the biggest thing about Gas heat is the littleness of the cost—about one-third the cost of electric heat. Maybe the cost of heating your home with Gas doesn't seem like such a big thing to you.

That's because it isn't.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my beloved husband, Omer J. Humberson, who passed away three years ago, May 2, 1965, due to injuries received in an automobile accident.

He came to me today,
He touched my hair and whispered in my ear.
He came to me today,
I did not see him, but I knew that he was there.
I see him when I look into my children's eyes.
He left me with Life's most precious gift—
A love that never dies.

Sadly missed by his wife, Thelma and his three children, Gina Renai, Ivan Jay, and Dana Ray Humberson.

Mental Health Group To Recruit Students

The Maryland Association for Mental Health (MAMH) and its Chapters across the State are again recruiting high school students for the Student Careers Program in the State mental hospitals.

Purpose of the program, July 8 through August 16, is to encourage students to consider a career in the mental health field and to give them a more informed attitude toward mental illness. Students work with mentally ill and retarded patients at Eastern Shore, Crownsville, Spring Grove, Springfield, Henryton and Rosewood State Hospitals as well as at the Baltimore Psychiatric Day Center. Many of the students working at the State hospitals will live on the hospital grounds.

Students must be entering their senior year in high school and must be 16 years old, must have average or above scholarship, evidence of leadership qualities, and emotional stability and maturity.

Seed Potatoes

There's a big difference in certifieds. Some growers just get in under the wire. But only the best of Maine's certified growers can meet all 3 rigid requirements of Southern States "Pick of the Crop" Seed Potatoes:

(1.) U. S. No. 1 Grade Standards, (2.) Maine Certification Standards, and (3.) Southern States own additional disease standards which are identical to those of foundation stock, one step higher in quality than certified. What's more, samples from every grower are winter-tested in Florida for disease

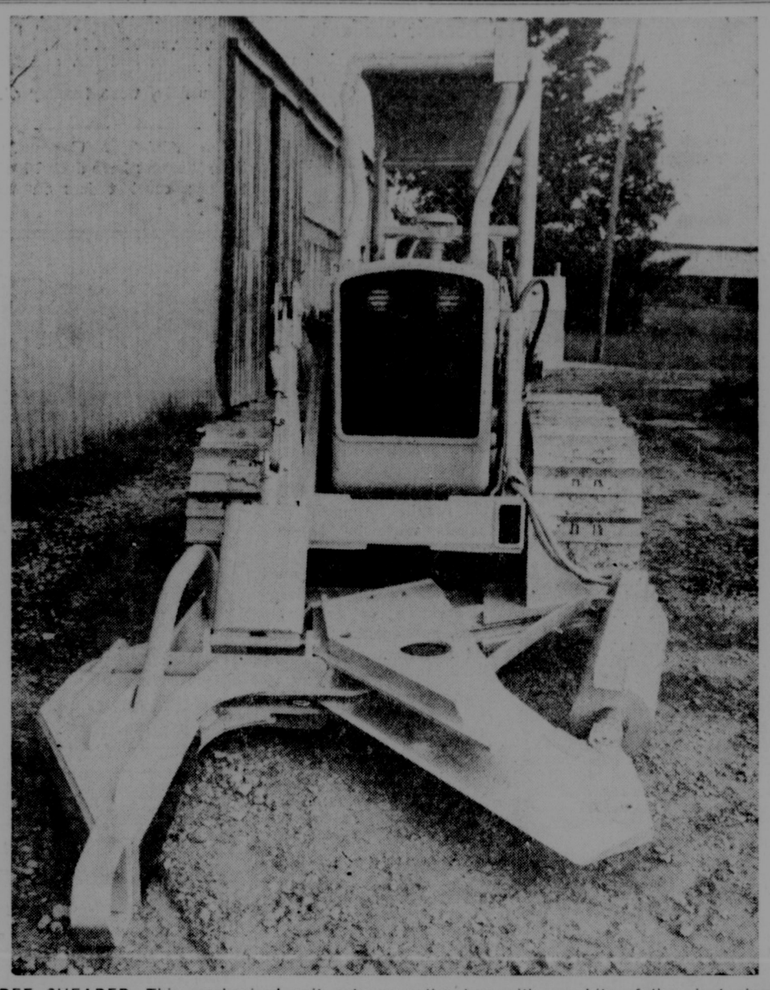
J. William Hunt Killed in Crash

J. William Hunt, 75, Cumberland, who was editor of the Cumberland Sunday Times from its founding in 1925 until his retirement on June 30, 157, was fatally injured late Tuesday afternoon in a two-vehicle collision on U. S. Route 40 at the intersection of the LaVale Plaza Shopping center access road.

Mr. Hunt was pronounced dead at 5:10 on arrival at Sacred Heart hospital where he had been taken in the ambulance of the Cresaptown fire company.



Police said Mr. Hunt was driving from the shopping center onto route 40 when his car was rammed in the left front by a pickup truck being driven on route 40 by Charles Leroy Dye, 52, of Barton, enroute home from work. Mr. Dye apparently was not hurt.

Since his retirement he had continued to write his column "Across the Desk", for the Sunday Times. He was a native of Tunnelton, W. Va., and was well known in this area.

TREE SHEARER—This mechanized unit cuts an entire tree with one bite of the giant pincer located on the front. The unit, one of many new pieces of mechanized equipment, will be demonstrated at the Pulpwood Producer's Field Day May 8. The Field Day, first of its kind in this area, will be sponsored by West Virginia Pulp and Paper. It will take place from 9:30 a. m. to 6:00 p. m. at the Ed Rippon farm three miles south of Cresaptown, on U. S. 220.

Pulpwood Field Day Is Planned

A pulpwood producers' Field Day, the first of its kind in this area, will be held Wednesday, May 8, in Southern Allegany County, according to an announcement just released by officials of West Virginia Pulp and Paper.

Sponsored by the Westvaco organization, the Field Day will provide pulpwood producers an opportunity to witness demonstrations of the specialized equipment used in their business.

The event will take place from 9:30 a. m. to 6:00 p. m., on the Ed Rippon Farm, three miles south of Cresaptown, located just west of U. S. Route 220 at the newly constructed intersection leading to Allegany Ballistics Laboratory.

Three demonstration areas will provide continuous equipment demonstration.

One feature will be the mechanized tree shearer and the hydraulic pulpwood skidders and loaders. The tree shearer cuts an entire tree with one bite of a giant pincer located on the front.

Purpose of the Field Day is to acquaint producers with the latest types of equipment available, and help the producer become a more effective operator.

Free refreshments will be served at lunch.

Attend Maryland Convention

Mrs. E. I. Baumgartner, left, chairman of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs' Handbook; and Mrs. Leonard I. Loflin, right, president of the Junior Woman's Civic club of Oakland, were two of those attending the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs' convention held April 21 to 23 in Baltimore. Another attendant was Mrs. Walter Wachter, Jr., hospitality chairman for the junior Woman's club in Oakland.

Allan S. Boyd, secretary of transportation; U. S. Senator Joseph D. Tydings and Mrs. Earle A. Brown, second vice president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, were convention guests.

Mrs. Loflin reported on her club's activities for the 1967-68 period. Awards received by the Junior Woman's Civic club of Oakland included Care, Project Good Ship Hope, March of Dimes and Membership.

DIED

CHARLES W. LEE

Charles Wesley Lee, 75, Bloomington, died Thursday, April 25, at Garrett County Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient seven days.

Born in Swanton, he was the son of the late Abraham and Rose (Friend) Lee. Mr. Lee was a school bus driver in Garrett County for 25 years, retiring in 1966.

He was a member of Chestnut Grove Methodist Church, near Swanton, and the Garrett County School Bus Association.

Surviving are his widow, Virginia P. (Wilson) Lee; four sons, Charles R. Lee, Fairmont, W. Va.; Wesley W. Lee and Russell M. Lee, both of RD 1, Swanton, and Albert M. Lee, Bloomington; eight daughters, Mrs. Mary Jenkins, Grafton, W. Va.; Mrs. Lillian Corley, Cumberland; Mrs. Betty Belden, Akron, O.; Mrs. Shirley Taylor, Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.; Mrs. Anna Johnson, Pen-Mar; Mrs. Janet Brown, Cascade; Miss Judy Lee, Pen-Mar, and Miss Pamela Lee, at home; one brother, Henry R. Lee, Romney, W. Va.; four sisters, Mrs. Ralph Wright, Akron; Mrs. Charles Green, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mrs. William Boyles, Akron, and Mrs. Zeddock Miller, Deer Park; 31 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The body was taken to the Boal Funeral Home in Westernport.

Services were conducted at the funeral home Sunday at 1 p. m. by Rev. Sumner Sawyers, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, Piedmont. Burial was in the George cemetery near Swanton.

JAMES F. HORCHLER

Funeral services for James F. Horchler, 82, who died Friday, April 26, in Wayne County General Hospital, Detroit, were conducted Monday at 10 a. m. from the Christ Lutheran Church, with Rev. David Fetter officiating. Interment followed in Grantsville cemetery.

Mr. Horchler, the son of the late Lewis and Mary (Wiley) Horchler, was born in Grantsville.

Surviving are two sisters, Miss Fannie Horchler and Mrs. Carrie McFall, both of Lincoln Park, Mich., and a number of nieces and nephews.

The body had been taken to the Newman Funeral Home in Grantsville.

MRS. ARA CLEVELAND

Mrs. Ara Mae Cleveland, 89, of 305 Guffey street, Fairmont, W. Va., and former resident of Oakland, died Wednesday, April 17, in the Hopemont Rest Home in that city.

She was born in Elk Garden, W. Va., February 13, 1879, a daughter of the late Benjamin F. and Carolyn Ethyl White Friend. She was the widow of William Oliver Cleveland who died in October, 1959.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland lived on Oak street in Oakland for several years before moving to Fairmont. Mr. Cleveland was employed by the A. D. Naylor and company and the family still has friends and relatives in the county.

Survivors include three sons, James Lowell Cleveland, William Alton Cleveland and Robert F. Cleveland, all of Fairmont; a daughter, Mrs. Owen J. (Mary) Wright, Coumbus, O.; a sister, Mrs. Roy (Bertie) Cunningham, Fairmont; five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Deceased was a member of Diamond Street Methodist church.

Red occupiers executed 1,000 or more at Hue.

Plan District 4-H Horse Show July 13

A district 4-H horse show will be held in Allegany county July 13, it was announced. The site will be selected later.

Plans for the show were begun at a meeting of extension agents for 4-H and youth with 4-H leaders from Garrett, Allegany and Washington counties in Cumberland.

The show will be open to all boys and girls now enrolled in the 4-H horse and pony projects and to other interested boys and girls who would like to become 4-H members. Attending the initial meeting were James Simms, extension agent, and Mrs. Jean Wright, 4-H leader, from this county.

S. Viet president Thieu will visit the U. S. between May 20 and May 30.
